There was a lively demand for wood this morning. A dealer in the article told us that one of our citizens, owing to a little heedlessness in attending to his supply of fuel, had none to burn from yesterday noon, and was in a big hurry for a load this morning. We should presume as much!

An honest "bucket-hop manager" having been approached by two friends for a "pointer" on cotton, solemnly answered: "Ye who listen with credulity to the whispers of fancy and follow with eagerness the phantoms of hope, who expect age will perform the promises of youth and that the deficiencies of to-day will be supplied by the morrow; buy or sell August; deposit the customary marginal requisite; select your choice, and don't give the 'pointer' away.

For North Carolina, fair weather in the interior, rain on the coast and slightly cooler.

Local forecasts, from 8 a. m. to-day for Wilmington and vicinity, fair weather and slightly cooler.

The favorable impression produced on the first appearance of the agreeable liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs a few years ago has been more than confirmed by the pleasant experience of all who have used it, and the success of the proprietors and manufacturers, the California Fig Syrup Company.

A Narrow Escape.
This morning George Grant, a little white boy living in the southern part of the city, while at work in the cotton mill got caught between the elevator and the floor as the elevator was descending and was severely injured. His head was cut in several places and his arms and shoulders were terribly bruised. Had it not been for the immediate assistance of Thomas Farrow, a white boy standing near by, who reversed the elevator, he would have undoubtedly been crushed to death. The injured lad was taken to a physician who dressed his wounds.

The attaches of the DAILY REVIEW celebrated the 14th anniversary of the establishment of the paper last Saturday night by partaking of an excellent oyster roast and "fixins" at Capt. E. W. Manning's at Wrightsville. We noticed a veteran ex-reporter in the party, to whom the day was the 28th anniversary of the battle of Fredericksburg where he was severely wounded. He seemed to enjoy the occasion and the oysters hugely, although he took his raw, instead of roasted. The party was pleasant, the oysters prime, but the weather was cold and "don't you forget it."

Capt. Phil Thomas had charge of the train that transported the "press club" over the road, which is a sufficient guarantee that they were in safe hands. To Capt. Nolan and Manning we make our blindest bow for the courtesies so kindly extended us.

The Raleigh News and Observer says: "Arrangements are being made for one of the greatest fox hunts on record in North Carolina. The hunt will come off in the next three weeks, and the hunters will make their headquarters at Wrightsville, in this State. Packs of hounds from North Carolina, Virginia and Pennsylvania have already entered and others are expected. Foxes are abundant around Wrightsville, and the country exceptionally fine for the chase. An invitation to lovers of the hunt throughout the country to participate has been extended."

It is not known exactly when this hunt will take place but it promises now to assume large proportions. There is talk of its being a State affair, with some packs also from other States. Capt. Manning will probably entertain the clubs and kennel the dogs, correspondence to this effect having already passed. The dates have not yet been set but they will probably fall in the week after Christmas.

Death of Mr. Alex Johnson.

Mr. Alex Johnson, a venerable and highly esteemed citizen of Wilmington, died at his residence here, corner Sixth and Walnut streets, at 11 o'clock yesterday forenoon. He had been sick for a long time, suffering originally from an attack of paralysis.

Mr. Johnson was a native of Robeson county and removed to this city from Fayetteville shortly after the war, where he has been engaged in the naval stores business ever since. He was 67 years of age and leaves a wife and seven children to mourn their great loss.

Mr. Johnson was a good man; an honorable, light-toned, chivalrous, up-right man; a gentleman, sans peur et sans reproche; and, withal, an humble, sincere Christian, with a charity as broad as the universe and a faith as fixed and immutable as the everlasting hills. He was a member of St. Andrew's Church. The funeral services took place this afternoon and the remains were tenderly laid away to rest in Oakdale there to await the sound of the last tramp. The pallbearers were Col. John D. Taylor, Mr. J. G. Wright, Capt. T. C. Lewis, Mr. J. L. Dudley, Col. John L. Cantwell and Mr. E. P. Convington.

Oration at St. John's.
Rev. H. A. Duboc, of Southport, was regularly ordained yesterday morning at St. John's Church to the Priesthood of the Protestant Episcopal Church. Rev. Dr. Carmichael, Rector of the church, preached a very fine sermon on this occasion, one of the best, it is thought by many, that he has ever delivered here. It was in relation to the ministerial orders of the church, bishop, priest and deacon, defining the duties of each to the world, to themselves, to the church and to each other. The laying on of hands was by the Bishop, assisted by Dr. Carmichael and Rev. Mr. Strange, of St. James', after which the Holy Communion was celebrated. There was a large congregation and the service was beautiful and impressive in the extreme.

Rev. Mr. Duboc has been resident at Southport for some time past as minister in charge of St. Philip's church at that place. He has also a flourishing school there. He has been in deacon's orders for more than a year past, a service of at least one year as deacon being required of all candidates before they can be elevated to the priesthood in the Episcopal Church. His wife is a charming lady, who has nobly aided her husband in his labors at Southport and we hear that Mr. and Mrs. Duboc are greatly beloved by the people of that town, where by precept, influence and example they have succeeded in accomplishing a great deal of good.

How's Your Liver?
Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, drowsiness and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons' Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficiency.
NEVER BEEN DISAPPOINTED.

As a general family remedy for dyspepsia, torpid liver, constipation, etc., I hardly ever see any other salve that has been so applicable in the most delicate cases as it is to the stomach and bowels.
