There are a dozen bath rooms in Washington that have cost all the way from $1,000 to $10,000 apiece.
One Senator's house has nine bath rooms, all of which are finished in mahogany.

The tax on spirits for the year 1889 brought the Russian Government 185,000,000 roubles; about 10,000,000 more than the preceding year and 33,000,000 above the average income of the ten years previous.

The Indianapolis Sentinel courteously informs Governor Hill that he has very few followers in Indiana, and that he has almost no followers at all outside of the disappointed office-seekers. Ditto for North Carolina.

Congressman D. B. Culberson, of Texas, has defended 114 clients indented for murder. Not one of them was hanged; only three were convicted (by a military court) and sent to the penitentiary. Culberson didn't rest till he got them released.

The following Republican newspapers in the West demand the modification of the McKinley bill: Chicago Tribune, Chicago Evening Journal, St. Paul Pioneer-Press, Minneapolis Journal, St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Omaha Bee, Peoria Transcript, Rockford Register.

Certain New York firms have been trying good-looking women as bill collectors. So far the scheme has been unsuccessful. Three of the women married inside a week, and four more are engaged, while the balance sympathize with the poor fellows who have run into debt, and have not collected a cent.

Czas, a Russian periodical, directs attention to the fact that a discovery of bacillus was made some 2,000 years ago by M. Terentius Varro.
Thirty-seven years before Christ he spoke in his Rerum rusticarum of "invisible little creatures that in swampy regions fill the air and, being breathed into the human organism, cause severe illnesses."

Prof. Koch's breakfast, which he takes shortly after 9 o'clock, would hardly please the palate of an American. It is composed solely of an unwhitening white soup into which he puts any amount of little squares of toasted bread. His dinner, taken at 2, consists of one course of meat and vegetables, one light sweet dish, and to finish all, a plate of soup.

The building of a Henry W. Grady hospital is an assured fact, and the corner stone will be laid at Atlanta, Ga., on Christmas Day, the first anniversary of the death of Mr. Grady.
It will cost $300,000, and will consist of a group of eight hundred buildings, with accommodations for white and colored people, and all the modern improvements. The work will be pushed, so that the hospital can soon enter upon its career of usefulness.

The contest in Cincinnati over the Governorship will be fought by the Democrats on the basis of a statute which gives the moderators who canvass the election returns exclusive authority to accept or reject disputed ballots. The Republicans wish to go behind the returns, but the statute says explicitly, "In case of doubt or dispute as to the reading of a ballot, or whether a ballot should be rejected as double or for any other cause, the moderator shall decide."

got in rather late last night; in fact,

And now No. 3, of the Wilmington Fox Club, tells us that there will be a hunt on Christmas Day; with the expected visitors, if they arrive in time, or without them if they do not get here until after Christmas. "Our columns are open to all."

Miss Ida C. Kelly, at No. 17 South Second street (Lessman building) has just opened a very handsome line of Christmas goods, toys, fancy goods, etc., of all kinds, which can be bought there very cheap.
She has a fine assortment, a good stock and low prices.

The weather was bad last night but notwithstanding there was a good attendance at the City Hall at the Bonnet Party on its second appearance here. The ladies realized handsomely and we trust that they secured a good sum for the laudable object in view during the two night's of the entertainment.

The Committee of the Board of Aldermen, to whom was referred the petition of the W. O. & E. C.
R. R. Co.—Aldermen Montgomery, Smith and Craft—will meet at the Mayor's office, at the City Hall, this evening at 7 o'clock, and will be prepared to hear from any one who has anything to say for or against the petition.

"Listed," as the brokers say, at "100 Doses One Dollar," Hood's Sas-saparilla is always a fair equivalent for the price.

Confirmed.

The favorable impression produced on the first appearance of the agreeable liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs a few years ago has been more than confirmed by the pleasant experience of all who have used it, and the success of the proprietors and manufacturers, the California Fig Syrup Company.

Sudden Death.

Mr. John Ewald, a baker by trade but for some time past employed by Mr. B. Bellois in his store on Market street, died very suddenly last night, about 10 o'clock, in his room in the Strauss building, on Second street between Princess and Market streets. He had been ailing from heart trouble for several days.
He clerked in the store of Mr. B.
Bellois on Market street and left there last evening at 8 o'clock to go to his room. He failed to return and when sent for was found locked in his room, and beyond the aid of a physician, although one was hastily summoned. The deceased was aged 52 years and has no family here.

Cleopatra.

As has been announced, Mr. Mc-Lean and Miss Prescott are to appear here next Saturday night in Cleopatra. This is not Shakespeare's great play but a dramatization of Rider Haggard's thrilling story. It was produced for the first time this Fall. The Louisville Post, under date of Sept. 25th says:

Miss Marie Prescott's new play, Cleopatra, was given its first production last night in the presence of a large audience. The play is a dramatization of Rider Haggard's famous work, "Cleopatra," and Miss Prescott has shown as much ability in the role of playwright as she has in her historic art. The play is strong and vigorous in action and the dialogue is well adapted and not too wordy. There are a number of very fine passages which give opportunity for excellent work and Miss Prescott has made all that can be got out of them. The Cleopatra of the authoress last night was an admirable creation, and one that is sure to win the beautiful young actress an enduring reputation. It's originality is its chief charm and it was evident throughout that Miss Prescott has carefully studied the life of the famous Egyptian Queen and has familiarized herself with contemporary history. This knowledge is conspicuously displayed in the costuming in which beauty has been frequently sacrificed to historical accuracy. The Ham-machis of Mr. McLean was excellent throughout. The pathos and rage of the desperate young lover was admirably portrayed. The other characters were well handled by the supporting company.

Forecasts.

For North Carolina, fair and slightly colder weather.
Local forecasts, from 8 a. m. to-day for Wilmington and vicinity, fair and slightly cooler weather.

The matter of allowing the W. O.
& E. C. R. R. to run a track up as far North as Church street, on Surry, will be discussed before the committee to-night. The charter of the road allows tracks to be run on any street in the city, with the consent and approval of the Board of Aldermen and with such restrictions as they may prescribe.

Hope They'll Get Everybody.

The police force are out to-day on a sensible expedition. They are to take the people, not vi et armis, but down on a little book; not for appearance before the Mayor tomorrow to get 20 days or 20 dollars, but to show the real strength of our population and just what the actual growth has been during the last decade. It is to be hoped that they will make a better showing than did the agents of the Great Depopulator.

A Moving Scene.

A moving scene was witnessed on Chestnut street to-day. Mr. James F. Woolvin, who has resided on Chestnut street, between Fifth and Sixth, intending to build a handsome residence, sold the building he has occupied to a colored woman who had it removed across the street and will put it up again on Chestnut street, near Sixth, on the North side. Mr. Woolvin, we hear, will erect a handsome two-story residence on his lot.

Sales of Real Estate.

The sale of real estate in the lower part of the city took place to-day as advertised in the REVIEW. It was made by Messrs. Cronly & Morris, auctioneers and real estate dealers.
In all, 146 lots were sold, aggregating $4,875. There was a good attendance and the bidding was lively. It was, also, about the quickest job of the kind on record. The sale of the 146 lots consumed but two hours, including the time required in walking from Front to Fifteenth street (15 blocks) as the sale progressed, and as the advertisement will show.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

CASTLE HALL, CLARENDON LODGE NO. 2, K. O. P.
WILMINGTON, N. C., Dec. 17, 1890.
WHEREAS, The members of Clarendon Lodge, Knights of Pythias, have been called upon, in the providence of God, to mourn the death of their valiant brother, Knight, John E. Grant, and have sustained by the disolution of the bond of brotherhood heretofore existing between the members of this Lodge and the deceased, an irreparable loss. Therefore, be it resolved,
1. That we shall cherish in memory the many virtues of our deceased brother, his kindly nature, unselfish friendship and generous manhood, which made his comradeship in life a pride and a pleasure, not only to this Lodge, but to the Order of Knights of Pythias in this city, and that we commend to our brother Knights the rich example of the noble and upright life of our deceased brother.
2. That profoundly sensible of his untimely death, at so young and so useful a period of life, and mourning in deep sorrow and full realization of our own great loss in the severance, by the dread messenger of death, which truly seemeth to love a shining mark, of our relations with our beloved brother, we tender to the sorrowing circle of the family of the deceased in their moment of supreme bereavement, the earnest, sincere and heartfelt sympathy of the members of this Lodge.
3. That as a mark of respect to the memory of the deceased the members of this Lodge shall wear the usual badge of mourning, for a period of thirty days, and that a page of the minute book be inscribed with the name, birth and death of our deceased brother.
4. That copies of this resolution be sent to the family of the deceased and be published in each of the daily papers of this city.

E. G. FARMER,
IREDELL KRAEPEL,
