Couldn't Make the Trip.

An attempt was made, either last night or the night previous, to break into Mr. A. G. Hankins' grocery store, on North Second street, adjoining this office, but it failed. At first an attempt was made to get in by the rear. A bar was forced and a wooden door opened when the rogues were confronted by an iron-barred gate. They then made an attempt on the front part but were probably frightened away, as they failed to effect an entrance.

Has Resigned. We regret to learn that Miss Cannie Chasten has resigned her position as organist at the First Baptist Church. She is a thorough musician, painstaking and conscientious, and has devoted much patient labor towards advancing the musical inter ests of that church, and it is to be regretted that the worshippers there will not have the pleasure of hearing the rich music of that noble instrument as revealed by the touch of her skilful fingers.

A Very Prompt Payment.

The Carolina Insurance Co., a very commendable plan of paying promptly all losses sustained by them just as soon as they can be adjusted. As it is located right here among as the payments can be made the more promptly on that account. The illustration consists in the fact that on Saturday last they J. H. Saturday Night's Fire.

On Saturday night about 80'clock, fire was discovered in D. L. Gibson's undertaker's shop on North Second street, just above Princess. How it originated no one knows but it protime the whole interior seemed on fire but it was a mere bagatelle to the department, who had the flames out in a very short time. The building, which is of frame, was badly damaged. It belongs to Mrs. W. H. C. Whiting and the loss was covered by insurance. There was no insurance on the stock. Isham Sweat, who had a barber shop next door, was damaged by water. The stock in Gibson's shop was not destroyed but it was badly charred.
