WILMINGTON, N. C.

MONDAY, DEC. 22, 1890.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N.C., as second-class matter.

The apportionment bill, upon the basis of the Porter census, has secured the sanction of the House, and will scarcely be disturbed either in the Senate or at the White House. The law for the first apportionment or representation in Congress was passed April 14, 1792. The second apportionment act was passed December 21, 1811; the third March 7, 1822; the fourth May 22, 1832; the fifth June 25, 1842; the sixth July 30, 1852; the seventh March 4, 1862; the eighth February 2, 1872, and the ninth February 25, 1882.

An exhibition of a novel kind is planned in St. Petersburg. The geographical and ethnographical societies of St. Petersburg and Moscow, the art academies and the historical museums, have for the last ten years collected women's needle work from all parts of the Czar's empire in Europe, Asia and Africa. Now they have several thousand samples of that work, which represent the patience, abilities and tastes of the women of various regions and tribes. To this will be added the historical ornamentation of garments, both male and female, as well as pictures of the various peoples and lands from which the needle-work was collected.

It is intimated by the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette that the Republican nomination for Governor of Ohio may not go to Major McKinley after all. The form in which the intimation is made is such as to suggest that the "bosses" are desirous of unloading the Major. Says the Commercial: "It is also a fact that, owing to the widespread misrepresentations by the Democrats as to the new tariff law, there are some Republicans who raise the question of the advisability of nominating McKinley, and plead that it would be good policy to allow the tariff law two years to vindicate itself, and that in the meantime Ohio Republicans should make their fight on State issues mainly."

The Dallas Morning News forcibly denies that Texas Democrats are in favor of dividing the State. It directs its denial to the following from the Nebraska State Journal: "Texas it is claimed, will soon be ready to offer herself as a candidate for dismemberment in order that the rule of the Democratic party may be perpetuated in the nation. It is claim that when the State was admitted into the Union permission was given to divide into five separate Commonwealths whenever the people so desired, and as the people down there are nearly all Democrats no difficulty will be experienced in having the job done neatly and quickly whenever it becomes necessary. This will admit eight new members from that region and make quite a change in the political complexion of the State. It seems strange that this brilliant scheme was not brought out sooner. It would have been of considerable advantage to the Democratic party a few years ago."

The Chicago Times of Friday devoted nearly four pages to the publication of expressions of Presidential preferences from two hundred and twenty-one editors, Democrats and Republicans, covering nearly every State of the Union. Briefly summed up, the preferences are as follows: For Cleveland, 106; Blaine, 52; Hill, 12; Harrison, 12, and remainder scattering and noncommittal. Commenting on these editorial expressions, the Times says: "Present sentiment is well crystalized. Most Democrats and all Republicans look upon Cleveland as the inevitable Democratic leader. Most Republicans and all Democrats give Blaine the chieftaincy of his party. The continuance of the tariff reform struggle in 1892 makes Cleveland's selection imperative. Upon the drastic lines of the McKinley bill the Republican party can never again win an election. Blaine, who was generally a high protectionist, caught the popular drift, made early condemnation of the extreme tariff policy, and talked soothingly of the benefits of reciprocal free trade between the countries of this hemisphere, Canada barred. Drowning men catch at straws. The Republican party turns almost unanimously to Blaine as a man of resource, capable, if anybody can be, of saving the Republican party.

Merit Wins

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Robert R. Bellamy, wholesale and retail druggists.

CATARRH

Is a constitutional and not a local disease, and therefore it cannot be cured by local applications. It requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, working through the blood, eradicates the impurity which causes and promotes the disease, and effects a permanent cure. Thousands of people testify to the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for catarrh when other preparations had failed.

CATARRH

"I will say I have been troubled for several years with that terribly disagreeable disease, catarrh. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla with the very best results. It cured me of that continual dropping in my throat, and built me feeling. It has also helped my mother, who has taken it for run down state of health and kidney trouble." MRS. S. D. HEATH, Putnam, Conn.

"I have used Hood's Sarsaparilla for catarrh with very satisfactory results. I have received more permanent benefit from it than from any other remedy I have ever tried." M. B. READ, of A. Read & Son, Wauseon, O.

Scribner's Magazine

FOR THE COMING YEAR WILL BE NOTEworthy for a number of special features which the Publishers believe are of very unusual interest, and among them the following may be mentioned:

SIR EDWIN ARNOLD

contributes to the December number the first of a series of four Articles upon Japan, its people, its ways, and its thoughts. Mr. Robert Blum, who was commissioned to go to Japan for Scribner's Magazine, has prepared a very remarkable series of drawings to illustrate Sir Edwin's papers. Articles upon the recent Japanese Festival will follow, illustrated by Mr. Blum.

HENRY M. STANLEY has prepared for the January number an important article upon "The Pigmies of the Great African Forest." Another contribution in this field will be Mr. J. Scott Keltie's account of the recent African Exhibition held in London. Both papers will be amply illustrated.

THE WRECKER,

a Serial Novel by Robert Louis Stevenson and Lloyd Osbourne, will run through a large part of the year. Illustrated by Hole. A two-part story by Frank R. Stockton will also appear.

PROF. JAMES BRYCE, M. P.,

author of "The American Commonwealth," will write a series of Four Articles upon India, embodying the results of his recent journey and studies on this land of never-ending interest.

OCEAN STEAMSHIPS

will be the subject of an important series somewhat upon the lines of the successful Railroad Articles. "Passenger Travel," "The Life of Officers and Men," "Speed and Safety Devices," and "Management," are some of the subjects touched upon and illustrated.

GREAT STREETS OF THE WORLD

is the title of a novel collection of articles on which the author and artist will collaborate to give the characteristics of famous thoroughfares. The first, on Broadway, will be written by Richard Harding Davis, and illustrated by Arthur B. Frost. Others will follow on Piccadilly, London; Boulevard Paris; The Corso, Rome.

The price of SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE admits of adding a subscription to one's other reading at very small cost. Orders should be sent at once.

GAS vs. WATER

We have just added, at very heavy expense, a four-horse power Otto Gas Engine to run our five presses. "It's a dandy," and makes our presses hum. Come and see it; no trouble to show to anyone who will call at our office. We try always to keep abreast of the times—and our establishment is the largest in the city, and will be kept so, if hard work, promptness, satisfaction and hard cash can keep it so.

Respectfully,
