Yesterday was a genuine Spring day with a clear sky and a balmy atmosphere. Everybody was out of doors. This morning it was cool enough for blankets but the clouds which accompanied the sun at his rising were soon dispersed and another beautiful day has resulted.

The Pastime.
Mr. H. G. Latimer's new steam yacht Pastime went out at Wrightsville Inlet at 12 o'clock yesterday bound for the Cape Fear river. Mr. Latimer has gone to Southport to meet her.

Since the above was written we learn that the Pastime arrived in below last evening and steamed up to the city to-day, her flag at half mast in respect to the memory of Mr. H. Bacon.

Going for the Boat.
Capt. John W. Harper arrived up in the city this morning (from Southport) and will leave here to-morrow morning at 12 35 a. m. for New York, where he goes to select a boat. His engineer, Mr. Thos. Walton, will accompany him and mate Wilson and the balance of the crew will leave later in the week, probably on Thursday, to bring her out. There will be no delay, as the season is advancing pretty rapidly and the new steamer is expected to be here in time to take up a regular schedule by the first of May.

The Peach Crop.
From all that we can hear we think that the peach crop in North Carolina this year will be a pretty fair one. In the extreme East, center and West the outlook is said to be good. Probably the greatest damage has been done along the pine country in places so far removed from the coast as to have been without the ameliorating influences of the warm air from the water. In South Carolina the prospect is not so good, judging from an article in the News and Courier. As a general thing the crop will be short in the South this year because of its forward condition when the last freeze came on. Some sections, however, where the trees were not in bloom, were more fortunate. Those who raise lots of peaches this year will therefore find themselves in luck.

Summoned to Raleigh.
U. S. Commissioner Shaw to day served summons of arrest on the Democrats composing the canvassing board of New Hanover county at the last election, requiring them to appear at Raleigh at the U. S. Circuit Court in June to answer the charge of having violated 5515 of the Revised Statutes. They gave bond. They will go up for trial, the case will be not pressed and they will come back.

The summons were issued for Messrs. Walker Taylor, E. W. Manning, E. G. Parmelee, B. S. Montford, Wm. Ulrich, Jr., J. M. McGowan, W. McEvans, Isaiah West and Thos. G. Pickett.

Messrs. Marsden Bellamy and George Rountree have been detained for the defence.

Sales of Realty To-Day.
Sales of real estate at the Court House this morning resulted as follows:
Lot 55x133, on Church street, brought $770, sold by Messrs. Cronly & Morris, auctioneers.
Lot on Seventh street, South of Harnett, 75x99, with frame dwelling thereon $1,500; butcher pen lot; 135x215x591, $900 tract adjoining and running to the rice field, containing 3.34 acres, $480. These sales were made by Messrs. S. VanAurunge & Co., auctioneers.

Mr. Samuel Blossom purchased the second lot and Mr. Thos. F. Bagley the third and fourth lots. The name of the purchaser of the first lot is withheld by request. It is probable that all will be confirmed with the exception, possibly, of the last lot.

Bro. King Goes It Alone.
The discussion on the "Immortality of the Soul," which was to have taken place yesterday afternoon between Elder J. P. King, of the Second Advent Church, and Rev. W. A. Jenkins, a local preacher in the Methodist Church, did not take place because Mr. Jenkins did not put in an appearance. It is said that he was forbidden by the Presiding Elder to take part in the discussion. There was a large congregation on hand, eager and ready for the discussion, when Mr. King arose and read a note from Mr. Jenkins, with drawing from the discussion, and without assigning a reason. Mr. King was rather bitter in his comments on the matter. He then preached a sermon and we hear that he was quite severe in his allusions to some of the religious denominations in this city.

Superior Court.
The April term of the Superior Court for New Hanover county convened at the Court House in this city to-day, Judge Melver presiding. Sheriff Stedman opened the Court in due form. Volders, G. H. C. Heyer. The following cases were disposed of:

Death of Mr. Bacon.
It is with sincere regret that we announce the death of Mr. Henry Bacon, of this city. He died yesterday afternoon about 6 o'clock. For some time past he had been quite sick, with an attack of the grip, but had improved lately and was so much better yesterday that he sat up for a short time. During the afternoon, however, and only a short time before he died, he complained of feeling much worse and a message was hastily dispatched for a physician. As soon as he arrived he knew that death was near and all of the resources known to science failed to arrest the dread destroyer. The immediate cause of his death was heart failure, preceded by congestion of the lungs.

Mr. Bacon was 69 years of age. He was born in Natick, Mass., in 1822, his father's family having resided in that neighborhood for many years. He was at one time engineer in charge of construction of the Boston and Maine Railway and later was in charge of the harbor improvements on the great lakes under Col. Junius B. Wheeler, of this State.

Mr. Bacon removed to North Carolina in 1876. He came here at the request of Col. W. P. Craighill, to take charge of the Cape Fear river work, for the government. He first located at Southport, but afterwards, in the year 1882, removed to this city, where he has ever since resided. He had been in charge of the Cape Fear river works for fourteen years and had seen the depth of water here grow from 7 1/2 feet to 16.

Death has made sad havoc in the family in recent years. A few years ago there were seven, Mr. Bacon, three brothers and three sisters. To-day but three of the seven, one brother and two sisters, are alive. Mr. Bacon leaves a widow, two daughters, one married (Mrs. W. B. McKay) and four sons. One of these is in Florida, one in Massachusetts and one is abroad. The two former have been telegraphed for and it is hoped will arrive here in time for the funeral.

Those who knew Mr. Bacon will realize the fact that one of the most gentle, genial, honest hearts among us has ceased to throb. Modest and retiring in disposition he was thoroughly devoted to his profession and ever since he came among us he has been an enthusiastic worker for the best interests of the Cape Fear river and Wilmington. We have lost one of our best men, one whose place it will be indeed hard to fill.

Progress.
It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach and healthy in its nature and effects. Possessing these qualities, Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known.

The New Court House.
The purchase of the site for the new Court House, corner Third and Princess streets, was completed today by the chairman of the Board of Commissioners, Mr. H. A. Bagg. The price paid was $10,000 cash. The two lots together are 146x165 feet and it is a beautiful and convenient location for the new building.

For North Carolina, fair and warmer weather and light rains on Tuesday.
Local forecasts, from 8 a. m. to-day, for Wilmington and vicinity, fair and warmer weather.

Belford's Magazine.
The April number of this increasing popular magazine opens with a timely article on the effect which the question of the Free Coinage of Silver will have on the prospects of the Democratic party. The writer concludes that to adopt Free Coinage as a plank in the platform of the party would injure if not destroy its prospects at the coming Presidential election. Mr. Henry Claws, in "The University vs. the Counting House," argues strongly against a university training for the bulk of our youth; while the Rev. Gerald Stanley Lee argues quite as strenuously and more eloquently in the opposite sense. "Thoughts on Matters Lyric and Dramatic," advocates the claims of opera in Italian (not Italian opera) against Wagner and the Germans. The number is unusually strong in fiction. The complete novel is "Slip-knots," having reference to the looseness of the marriage-tie in this country. Besides this there is "A Polkville Episode," and "A New Spectroscope," a brilliant little semi-humorous story. Dr. Felix Oswald contributes some useful "Popular Science Notes"; Col. Cowperthwait, the well known New York millionaire merchant, gives a pleasant account of his experience during "The Carnival at Nice (1889)"; and Champion Bissel, from personal knowledge obtained on the spot, shows the disastrous effects of unadulterated protection in the island of Hayti. The editorial department deals with "Cleveland's letter on the Free Silver Coinage question and with the question of "Subsidies." The usual "Passing Notes" and "Book Notices" complete an excellent number.
