THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XVIII. WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, APRIL 26, 1894. NO. 110.

PLEASE NOTICE.
We will be glad to receive communication from our friends on any and all subjects of general interest, but The name of the writer must always be furnished to the Editor.
Communications must be written on only one side of the paper.
Personalities must be avoided.
And it is especially and particularly understood that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents unless so stated in the editorial columns.

KNOWLEDGE Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.
Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fever, and permanently curing constipation.
It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.
Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

The Evolution Of medicinal agents is gradually relegating the old-time herbs, pills, draughts and vegetable extracts to the rear and bringing into general use the pleasant and effective liquid laxative, Syrup of Figs. To get the true remedy see that it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup druggists.

A Model Lover.
The repetition of the charming little comedy, "A Model Lover," at Mr. T. M. Emerson's residence last night, was a delightful success, although the audience was not so large, of course, as that which assembled at the Opera House on the first presentation. The cost of production was less, however, and we hope that the ladies realized a handsome little sum as the result.

A D y State.
The Supreme Court of South Carolina has at length rendered a decision in regard to the dispensary law in that state, declaring it to be unconstitutional. Two of the three justices were in favor of this view but the third justice dissents. The two assenting are politically opposed to Tillman and the third favors him. A strange coincidence! But one of the former goes out in July and a Tillmanite will then climb upon the bench when a new decision may be rendered, two to one, reversing the first. And that will be another strange coincidence. In the meantime the sale of liquor in South Carolina, by the State or by private parties, is declared unlawful and the blind tigers will reap a harvest while the State loses its revenues and its stock in trade, great and glorious and beautiful is Tillmanism.

Gov. Carr yesterday afternoon tendered the appointment of Senator from this State, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the lamented Vance, to Ex-Gov. Thos.
J. Jarvis. In a letter to Gov.
Carr, Gov. Jarvis accepts the appointment but it is understood that he will not contest for the seat before the legislature but will be, as indeed he has been for some time past, a candidate for that now held by Senator Ransom.

The appointment has created a great surprise throughout the State.
Gov. Jarvis' name had been mentioned but as he was not from the West—not even from the centre—but from the extreme East, it was generally considered that this fact ruled him out of the race. In making this appointment we take it that Gov. Carr has done an ungraceful and an unwise thing. The appointment properly pertained to the West and should have gone there.
It is the unwritten law of the Democratic party in this State that the two Senators should not come from the same section and in disregarding this fact Gov. Carr has not only defied the traditions and usages of the party and has set a dangerous precedent which may in the future be invoked to the dismay of the East but he has sown the seed of dragon's teeth which may result in dissension and disaster where peace and concord are so sadly and so essentially needed.

If the Democrats of Eastern North Carolina are wise they will repudiate this action and enter their protests against it. We know that they did not seek to have this second Senatorship sent here and they should at once disavow any desire to have it and thus break into and debase the precedents and traditions of the party. The West should have had it. There are many men beyond the Pee Dee and the Yadkin who are eminently fitted to hold this or any other position and the place belonged by right to one of them. We will at least let this go forth as the protest and the sentiment of one Democratic paper in Eastern North Carolina which has never yet flinched from its fealty and its duty to the party and has never hesitated to advise those in authority of their errors in dealing with the people.

And it was not only unwise in Gov. Carr to divert this appointment to a section where it does not pertain but it was exceedingly foolish in Jarvis to accept it, viewed in the light of his avowed candidacy for Senator Ransom's seat. It will hurt him here in the East as well as in the centre and the West. Probably he lost his head over the glittering allurements held out to him and missed "the greatest opportunity of a life time" when he failed to decline the honor because it did not belong to his section. If he had done this he would have become a far stronger candidate for the next race than now seems probable.

Gov. Carr's action is a mystery to us. Either it is a very shallow or a very deep artifice. It may be that he desired to honor his old friend and near neighbor, even in violation of sectional rights and general precedents, and then, again, maybe he is after Vance's seat when the regular term and his own term expires in '97 and wishes to make a precedent of which he can avail himself at that time. And that time, or some other time, alone will show.
