Upon but the Election of a Chief of Pelice Not Brought Up. The Board of Aldermen met in regular session last night. All the members were present. The Mayor announced the death of Capt. H. C. Brock, late Chief of Police, when Alderman Hall arose and in feeling terms offered approthe educational fund. priate resolutions which were unanimously adopted.

Aldermen King, Fishblate and Rice also spoke to the resolutions. Petition of Burr & Bailey, suggesting an amendment to the tax ordinance relating to manufacturers was discussed but no action taken. Committee on Streets and Wharves called attention to the fact that there are many obstructions in different sections of the city-such as fences, piazzas, and even houses-which project on the streets or entirely obstruct the same, and suggested that these should be removed as early as possible, with a proper regard to the rights of property owners in the premises. The committee recommended that the Board authorize the prosecution of such improvements (with the advice of the city attorney) as seem to be required, and in such lothony Campbell or his representacalities as may be considered necestives, and that said deeds be declared sary to meet public requirements, null and void, and be cancelled by and if necessary, that a test case be the register. made up for the courts to decide. The matter was referred back to the Streets and Wharves Committee and City Attorney, with a request to prepare an ordinance to be submitted to the Board for its sanction.

Col. C. L. Grafflin, one of Wilmington's most prominent citizens, was stricken with paralysis last Saturday at Lincolnton and died on the Sunday following. He had been in declining health for two years past, but it was hoped that he was in a fair way to complete recovery, when the sudden and unexpected summons came.

The remains were brought to this city last night, and were met at the depot and escorted to his late resi dence, corner of Third and Walnut streets, by Wilmington Lodge, No. 319, A. F. & A. M. The funeral will take place to-day, from the residence. at 11 a. m.

Col. Grafflin was an active member of Grace M. E. Church; a man of kindly heart and generous nature, and was held in the highest esteem by all. He was born in Baltimore, Md., in 1823, and came to Wilmington about fifteen years ago, as Superintendent of the Navassa Guano Co., of which he was a large stockholder. His wife and four children-one son and three daughters-survive him.

Tileston School.

The session of 1887.8 at Tileston School began yesterday with an unusually large number of applicants for admission, the number of new scholars applying being one hundred and fifty. The principal, Miss Bradley, was compelled, reluctantly, to refuse admission to the greater number of these, as there were over two hundred of the old scholars who were present for enrollment. Altogether, the number admitted is 288, which is all the building can accommodate. The school organized with the following corps of teachers: Principal-Miss Amy M. Bradley.
