OUTLINES.

The wildest confusion prevails in the Oklahoma country, and a grand rush has commenced from the city of tiuthtle, which promised but a few day-since to be a very elysian spot; lawlessness is rampant, and thousands, impelled by hunger and the lack of shelter, are availing themselves of every conceivable means for getting away from the embryo city; large numbers are invading the (herokee country, and no one can predict what the next few days will develop. - The carpenters' strike in St. Louis is practically ended, the burses having conceded the demands of the strikers relative to wages. --Ex (roy. Wm. M. Stone, of Iowa, has heen appointed Assistant Commissioner of the General Land Office. - Rev. L. C. Miller, a prominent minister of the M. E. Church South. died in Harrisonburg, Va, yesterday; he was one of the most eloquent preachers in the South. - The Postmaster General has granted the requests of the postmasters in Atlanta and Savannah to close their offices on Confederate memorial day. - There was a collision of freight trains at Glen Mary, Tenn, yesterday, resulting from the forgetfulness of the engineer of one of them, by which an engineer and conductor were fatally crushed and two others slightly injured. - The Allahanah hotel, at Jessup, Ga., was burned yesterday. - A young man died in Oklahoma city yesterday, of a congestive chill, brought on by exertion and exposure-the first natural death which has occurred there. - Intouse interest is manifested in the trial, at Birmingham, Ala., of Diek Hawes, for the murder of his wife and children. - New York markets: Money easy at 2@ 2 per cent.; cotton firm: middling uplands 10 15 16 cents, middling Orleans 11 3-16 cents; southern flour heavy; wheat firmer: No. 2 red April 83 cts; corn firmer and quiet: No. 2, 44 cents at elevator; spirits turpentine dull and offered at 454 cents; rosin

Mr. McCafferty, of South Carolina, has sent his race horses to Washington City. He is said to have some noted runners.

Maj. G. W. Connor, formerly Superintendent of the Agricultural Department of South Carolina, is dead of heart disease.

What's the matter? Massachusetts, Rhode Island and New Hampshire have all gone against Prohibition, and Pennsylvania is waiting to do so.

Two hundred ready-made houses were transported from Newton, Kan-838, over the Santa Fe road to Guthrie. These could be put up in two/ hours. That as business.

The New York Times says the Oklahoma lands that are desirable are not very extensive, and that there are already more than enough emigrants to absorb all that is good.

Canada is sickening of the rascals who fly over the border from the United States. The World says that it has put up the bars, and says no more of them can come, but those on hand may remain.

We regret to see that it is almost certain that the President will call an extra session of the Congress in October. There is no real pressing necessity for such a procedure save that which lies in party plans.

Greely, who undertakes to tell when it is not going to blow when it does, and puts the wind at the wrong quarter, is sure that the old, old idea of equinoctial storms is a humbug. He will next be declaring that the moon has no effect upon the tides.

The Baltimore American, Rep., 18 clearly right when it says that "no amount of theory will solve" the Southern question. It wisely says, and its President should heed it:

"The solution must be left to the gradual extension of progress, and the growth of civilization and enterprise."

Lord Lonsdale has reached San Francisco upon his return from his Arctic journey. An account says of his adventures:

"He had with him 69 dogs and 18 Indians, but during the journey all but 28 of the dogs died and several Indians were frozen to death. Lonsdale was obliged to walk over 1,500 miles of the journey across Alaska, owing to the depth of the snow, which made it impossible for the dogs to draw anything more than the sleds with the provisions in them and some rich specimens. On November 10, 1888, he reached the Russian mission on the Yukon river. From there he went across to Meshak river, thence to Bristol bay, arriving at Katns on January 13, 1889. Owing to the thickness of the ice the boat did not arrive from Kodik until March 17. He left Kodik for this port about a month ago."

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, APRIL 26, 1889.

When brother Blount, of the Wil-Local Dots. son Mirror, thinks we are unkind, is in the city. perhaps malicions, it is time to beg pardon. We would not willingly wound the gentle and sympathetic heart of our brother, for whom we have always felt a sincere attachment. We take it all back. We cannot afford to have him think of us with other than friendly feelings. We

The Chicago Inter-Ocean intimates that Porter's chief business as Commissioner of the Census, will be to collect data " relating to our industries, which will prove the efficacy of a protective tariff, and finally and forever damn all Mills bills legislation." He is said to be an expert in manipulating figures, and he may, as is feared and already intimated, so "cook" the census returns as to cut the South out of many Representatives in the Congress.

Lord Salisbury, the Tory Premier, describes the Irish desire for Home Rule as "mere empty sentiment." His Tory forefathers doubtless thought the same thing of the American patriots when they declared "that taxation without representation was tyranny." But in the end it became a practical and important truth that was heard round the world and is still ringing in the ears of mankind.

The Macon (Ga.) Telegraph de fines a "Protectionist Democrat"

"In most instances it means, in this part of the country, a man in whom a struggle is going on between his desire to further personal interests at the public expense, and his sense of duty to his State and people. In consequence of this struggle the Democratic Protectionist, or Democratic Republican, is astride of the political fence, and gives his vote to the Democrats and his influence to the Republicans."

That is well taken.

The Montgomery Dispatch was took to complement the host of a leading hotel. It said :

"It would be as difficult to "paint the city or adorn the rose," as it would be for Mr. Ed. Freeman to improve on the excellent manner in which he entertains the wayfaring man.'

This gave offence. Mr. Freeman does not "paint the town red." The editor wrote however, "paint the lily," and makes all smoothe.

The young Southern poet, Mr. William H. Hayne, writes very neat quatrains. Here is one on "Our Memories" in Lippincott for May:

"Our memories are gentle waves that flow Against the shore-line of the Long Ago, A dim land stretching 'neath a dimmer sky, Where past events like ships at anchor lie."

The announcement of the sudden death of Mr. John Falotico at Duluth, Minnesota, elicited many expressions of sincere regret in Wilmington. As leader of the Italian band in this city for many years he was well known, and his kindliness of heart and accommodating disposition made him many friends. In the ball room, on the steamers and in the midnight serenades, "Uncle John' was a familiar figure, and contributed largely to the pleasure of those who listened or danced to the sweet melody of his violin. yesterday on Front street. Several tioned the heroism of the deed, whereupon one of them suggested that they start a subscription fund of a dollar each, and organize a movement to erect a suitable monument to his memory. Five dollars were collected on the spot, and the STAR indicated as the custodian of the fund.

The STAR will undertake to take charge of the fund. It will take at least $1,000, but $5,000 would be more like it. It has been suggested that the monument be located in the city that will contribute the largest amount to its erection.

Nash County Tobacco Warehouse, A correspondent writing from Rocky Mount says:

This place continues to boom. WHO IS MRS. WINSLOW!—As this question s frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upwards of thirty years has untia lady who for upwards of thirty years has untiringly devoted her time and talents as a female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has especially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as a zurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup for children teething. It operates like magio—giving rest and health, and is, moreover, sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article Mrs. Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do zusz up and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Yast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are DALLY sold and used here. We think Mrs. Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed. No Mother has discharged her duty to her suffering little one, in our opinion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup Try it, mothers—TRY IT ZOW.—Ladier' Visitor, New York City. Cabbage is scarce and wanted at firm prices.
Tomatoes find ready sale when ripe, but prematurely green tomatoes sel slowly at lower prices. We quote: Large potatoes per bbl. $6 to 8; seconds $4 to 5 per bbl. wax beans per box, $1 50 to 175; green beans $1 to 175 per box; peas per box, $1 to 1 75; squash per box, $1 25 to 1 75; cabbage per barrel crate $2 to 2 50 cucumbers per box, $3 to 4. Tomatoes and potatoes should not be shipped premature. Ripe ones sell best at any time, and in case of a glut it is the prematures that hang fire. When the sudden glut struck our market last year it was only the choice large potatoes that moved at all at current prices, while small and poor stock would not move at any

Beans and peas must not be left on the vines long enough to get tough, but should be picked younger while green and tender, particularly so this hot weather, so that they will not arrive wilted and tough.
