COKE IN CARTERET.

Speaking at Newport-A Fine Impression NEWPORT, N. C., Aug. 18.

Editor Morning Star: Rarely has it been our privilege to listen to a speech such as Capt. Coke delivered here to-day. The audience was not large, but attentive and much good will result. It opened the eyes of reasonable men who have been led by the blind, and set them to thinking. Only one Third partyite showed signs restlessness, and he concluded the shortest method of disposing of Coke's arguments was to deny their truth. Every one knows the significance of that kind argument. The truth is, there is more smoke than fire in the Third party, and before November the captain, if he has his health, will put out a good deal of the fire. The weather is hot down here, but he is standing it first rate, and goes on from here to Stella to speak to-morrow. He leaves a good impression here and with him carries the best wishes of the com-

AT CAROLINA BEACH.

A Day of Enjoyment to Many Visitors

Balloon Ascension-Base Ball-Concert. There were crowds of visitors at Carolina Beach yesterday, drawn thither by the various attractions offered for the enjoyment of the public. Prof. Jewell, the balloonist, made a magnificent ascension and thrilling parachute drop.

After the ascension an exciting game of base ball was played by the Recreation and Atlantic clubs, and after supper at the Oceanic hotel, the Quintette club gave a concert that was very much enjoyed.

The crowd on the beach during the afternoon was estimated at about 750 people, and nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of anyone.

balloon ascension and parachute drop. | County Convention to be held at Lock-The ascension will be made at 4 o'clock | wood's Folly, on the 24th inst., was for one first class fare-on sale Septemin the afternoon. The fare to the Beach and return will be 25 cents to-day.

The Veteran Confederates.

The lew remaining veterans at Camp Holt departed for home yesterday. Several of them called at the STAR office. Among the number were Mr. O. H. Looper, of Vashti, Alexander county, Mr. O. H. Pearce, Dover, Craven county, and Mr. Matt Gregory, Robeson county. All said that they had enjoyed the reunion very much.

Thieves made a raid on the veterans in camp Friday night and robbed several of them of sums of money and articles of clothing. One man lost $15, another $5 and another $3.

A Change for a Balloon Race.

Prof. Jewell challenges any balloonist in America to compete with him in a time and distance balloon race for a purse of from $100 to $500, the contest to take place at Carolina Beach any day of the ensuing week. The Professor says that his time in this section is short, as he is under engagement to make series of ascensions before the leading crowned heads of Europe, but his kindly feelings towards the people of Wilmington would induce him to delay his departure for a few days if his challenge should be accepted.

"Jack's" history is interesting, and different from that of any other dog living. He is a red Scotch terrier, 5 or 6 years old, and was born in Albany, N. Y. When a puppy he became the property of the Wells Fargo Express Company and took up his quarters at the Union Depot at Albany, as he was used to being taken by express messengers on short trips, coming back always with the man he went out with.

A year ago he started out on an extended tour, and before he came back to Albany he had looked over the lay of the land in Canada and most of the Northern and Eastern States. Having become thoroughly familiar with the North "Jack" decided upon an extended Southern tour, and left Albany on the 4th of July. Since then he has been "hustling." In less than two weeks he was in San Francisco, Salt Lake City, Portland, Oregon, and many other places of note. The first part of August "fack" spent in Texas and then went to Florida. From Port Tampa "Jack" went to Cuba and a card attached to his collar says "'Jack' ate 'langua de cibolo' in Havanna Aug 13."

A Cleveland, Carr and Alexander Club

Formed at Phoenix. PHOENIX, BRUNSWICK Co., Aug 18. Editor of the Star; On yesterday at the usual voting place, our primary for To-day, Prof. Jewell will give another the purpose of electing delegates to the Mr. A. M. Williams acting as secretary. After some very appropriate remarks by the chairman and the completion of the routine business, it was proposed by Mr. F. M. Moore that a Cleveland, Carr and Alexander Democratic Club be formed. Amid much enthusiasm this suggestion was unanimously endorsed by everyone present, who immediately enrolled their names. F. M. Moore was elected president and J. D. Robbins secretary by acclamation. I am sure that, in a very short time, our club will number one hundred members. We have the banner township of North Carolina; not a single Third party man in it, and every

It would have amused a passer-by to have looked in at a residence on Princess street last night and seen Private Robinson, the veteran from Warren. picking the banjo for a party of young ladies and a certain gray-headed but young-hearted veteran of two wars 'tripping the light fantastic." All this is sub rosa; but really the party was "great," and the prizes were well awarded, but the Major's daughter ran a close race and looked awfully pretty, and Mr. H. W. was "in at the death," and also looked pretty (awful). Miss Sallie says "Col. Thunderblood "was immense," (especially his boots.)

Base Ball at Carolina Beach.

A good game of ball was played yesterday afternoon at Carolina Beach by the Atlantic and Recreation clubs. The game was won by the Atlantics-score 4 to 7. The batteries were: Burkheimer and Oldham for the Atlantics; Garrell and Watson for the Recreation. Good play was made by Johnson at first, and Andrews at third base. Schutte made the best hit.

Another Narrow Escape,

Mr. J. Eron, clerk for Messrs. Austern & Solky, came near drowning while bathing in the surf at Ocean View yesterday afternoon. As usual in such cases, he ventured too far, became exhausted, and further weakened himself by yelling for help. Mr. J. J. Hayes went to his assistance, and aided by Mr. Flynn, brought Mr. Eron to shore.

A Negro Girl's Encounter with a Hotel Proprietor. MT. AIRY, N. C., Aug. 19. Editor Morning Star:

Charlie Jordan, proprietor of the White Sulphur Springs Hotel, four miles from Mt. Airy, met with an accident last night. Some negro nurses were on the back porch of the hotel, and he ordered them to leave, when all left except one. He attempted to force her off, when she threw her head between his legs, raised him up, and threw him over the banister. He tell upon a pile of stone twenty feet below, but, marvelous to tell, no bones were broken. The negro girl was from Winston, and left this morning for her home. Mr. Jordan was attending to his duties this morning but was very sore.

Editor Star, Wilmington, N. C.

A horrible and cold blooded murder was committed near here on the 12th, inst. Mr. Wm. H. Grainger, a prominent citizen, who resides near Mt. Tabor, was the victim. While Mr. Grainger was on his way home in a cart, with his nephew. Vance Spivey, they had a dispute about something and a few words were passed, when Spivey became angry and drew his knife and stabbed Mr. Grainger in the heart, killing him almost instantly.

It is one of the most horrible murders ever committed in Columbus county. Spivey fled, but a posse is scouring the woods for the murderer, and if caught he will probably be dealt with by Judge Lynch.

Mr. Grainger was about 45 years old, and Spivey is about 23 years old. D.

The Morning Star.

Before the war Southern farmers were, as a general thing, prosperous. They lived well, some of them in magnificent style, were out of debt, and had plenty of money to meet every demand upon them. If they needed money for any special purpose more than they had, they had State banks to supply their needs at reasonable rates of interest, and their land was security enough upon which to borrow all the money they needed. Then they had no tariff tribute to pay, no pensions to pay. They were not compelled, as they are now, to sell in the cheapest market and buy in the dearest market. They were free to sell where they could sell to the best advantage and buy where they could buy to the best advantage. Now the Southern farmer is taxed to pay tariff tribute, pensions, and the enormous expenses of running the Government, the proportion of the South amounting in the aggregate to a couple hundred millions
