The analogy between the Presidential contest and a horse race is so obvious that much of the nomenclature of the turf has been incorporated into the vocabulary of candidacy.

We speak of men "running" for an office, of being "hokeyed," "handicapped" and "weighted" in the race.

The favorite just now is the sorrel horse Roscoe, sire of "Crantium," and out of the dam "Cantomboush."

There is a big-boned black gelding from Indiana, sired by "Specie Payment" dam "Inflation," out of "Kuklux," with "Southern Outrage."

The load snorting, high stepping gray is "Jim," of Maine, sired by "Bird of Freedom," and dammed by "Little Rock Bonds," out of "United Pacific," by "Rollins."

The brown horse "Secretary" has a good record, and comes of a good strain, from the blue grass country, sired by "Thief-fighter," dam "Hard Money."

The most interesting animal, however, is a large bay horse that a groom is leading up and down in the distance. He is the "Great Unknown," sired by "Circumstances," dam "Conflicting Interests."

The platform of the Ulica Convention is widely different in what it does not say, from that which was proclaimed in New York, during the Allen-Hayes campaign in Ohio.

The logic of events, the stern force of truth, has forced the Tilden-Tammany party to put the currency issue in the rear rank, where it ought to have been from the first.

A dwelling house on Clifford street took fire in one of the chambers the other night from an exploding kerosene lamp.

Consumption bore him to his grave in the full noon-tide of honorable usefulness to the community in which he lived.

Remored a Radical paper is to be started at Oxford.

L. Ives, of Beaufort, handled and shipped 10,000 tons in four days.

The next is to be the Fayetteville Daily Leaf, by Mr. T. J. Johnson, Jr.

The Kitchen of Mr. Elijah Fuller, who lives far from Oxford, was destroyed by fire last Friday evening.

Mr. T. B. Mingsbury, the critic and journalist, and his amiable wife, celebrated their silver wedding at Oxford, on the 1st of May.

The Wide Awake states, as a result of the recent Fayetteville Methodist revival, that twenty-five persons have indicated their intention to join the church.

Lincolnton Progress: Tean Caldwell was tried on Tuesday, found guilty, and sentenced to the penitentiary for two years.
