RUSSIA AND SERBIA.

The New York Journal of Commerce reviews the situation in the East in so far as Russia's position influences it. Russia no longer makes concealment of her intense sympathy with the Servians in their contest with Turkey.

On this side of the Big Pond it is noticeable that nearly all the sympathy extended to either contestant is given to Serbia. Americans are proverbial for their gushing good will towards all people struggling for independence.

The crazy Herald, which is as much for Hayes and Wheeler as it can be for anybody or anything, sees all sorts of evil signs in the earth beneath and the heavens above for the Democratic ticket.

WHAT MR. A. SMITH KNOWS OF THE CORRUPTION. Wm. A. Smith, called "Bill" Smith "for short," is the Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor.

Question: Do you know of any sum of money or any other consideration having been paid or promised to be paid, to any person in this State or out of it, for the purpose of procuring the lease of the North Carolina Railroad?

The inference direct and positive is, then, that this man Smith must not be elected Lieutenant Governor. It is pleasant to think that there is little danger of his election.

At the meeting of prominent and leading Republicans of the First Ward, held on the 31st of July, as we are informed, the following county ticket was recommended to be voted for on the first Tuesday in November next.

Having known well what Colonel Tazewell L. Hargrove's career was before and during the late insurrection, we could hardly believe what was written about him in a recent letter to the Raleigh Sentinel.

He was among the bravest of the brave and truest of the true, never wavering, never repining in privation and suffering. As his civil record had been honorable and brilliant so his military record was all glorious and men praised by heroic valor when valor was the commonest subject of laudation.

Well, Smith, William B. "Bill" Smith, you please, once refused to tell a committee of the North Carolina Legislature what he knew of corrupt means being used to secure the lease of the N. C. R. R., upon the ground that by so doing he might criminate himself.

What a confession! What bloody gratitude! At first we refused to believe that Tazewell L. Hargrove or any other creature in the form of man breathing the free air of North Carolina and herding with animals less savage than a Hindoo horde, could have manifested so much horrible brutality.

During the time said committee was in consultation, Col. W. E. Steele, who was present, was called on and entertained the Convention in a speech of one hour and a half, in his own vigorous and spicy style.

Democratic Meeting at Town Creek.

The Democrats of Town Creek, Pender county, met in Township Convention on Saturday, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the County Convention, to be held in Smithville on the fourth Monday in August.

Mr. Nelson Goodman was called to the chair, and Mr. W. W. Drew requested to act as Secretary. On motion, twenty delegates were appointed to represent the township in the County Convention.

Mr. A. W. Rieger was then called upon and made a stirring speech, at the conclusion of which calls were made for Mr. D. S. Cowan. That gentleman excused himself, but introduced to the club Mr. J. L. Mackey of this city, a young and energetic friend of reform.

At this stage of the proceedings a large number of gentlemen, who had been named as members of the club, it is confidently believed that, in less than a month, nearly every Democrat in the township will be a working member of the club.

ROCKY POINT MOVING.

Pursuant to previous notice, the Democracy of Rocky Point Township in Pender county, turned out almost en masse at Rocky Point depot, at 3 o'clock, P. M., on Saturday, the 29th July, 1876.

At this stage of the proceedings a large number of gentlemen, who had been named as members of the club, it is confidently believed that, in less than a month, nearly every Democrat in the township will be a working member of the club.

The club will again meet at Rocky Point depot on Saturday next, at 3 o'clock P. M. The Secretary was directed to prepare and send the condensed statement of the proceedings for publication in the Democratic papers of Wilmington, and to the Weekly Duplin Record.

A Church Reminiscence. From an article in the last number of the Raleigh Christian Advocate, giving an extract from the pages of a little work styled "Methodism, or Christianity in Barren Soil," written by Mrs. M. Harris, wife of a former pastor of the church, in reference to the completion and dedication of the First Street Methodist Church, in 1846.

I have repeated some of the points in my yesterday's letter, but I do not wish to show the radicals are put to rest for argument, and to show how close they are driven to the wall.

At Columbus, Polk County, Judge Settles.

The Spartanburg Band are with us again today, thus showing their respect and good wishes for Governor Vance. They make this entire trip from Spartanburg to Rutherfordton, then to Columbia, and back to Spartanburg, free of charge.

Judge Settle opened the discussion today by saying he was the candidate for Governor of North Carolina, and if elected, he would administer the laws for the people, tempered with mercy. The Judge tried to make a strong point by again quoting from Dr. Pritchard, of Raleigh, who had quoted from Dr. Curry, of Richmond, Virginia, that he was proud to say, "after travelling in foreign countries, that our government was the freest and best on earth."

At this stage of the proceedings a large number of gentlemen, who had been named as members of the club, it is confidently believed that, in less than a month, nearly every Democrat in the township will be a working member of the club.
