THE WEEKLY STAR.

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1876.

NO. 50.

VOL. 7.

would subside into quietness. Bob Ingersoll would cease for a while to blaspheme God and to denounce the Democracy and the Presbyterians, and Beast Butler would endeavor to squint for a short time in the direction of virtue and honesty.

In this connection, a remark of Charles Francis Adams, in his letter to the Cooper Institute Democratic meeting, of last Friday, may have been of some significance. He that wrote:

"The great efforts of the Republicans seems to be to operate on the popular passions excited during the late civil war. Instead of repeating the honorable call of President Grant, 'Let us have peace,' they are for raising what might prove another war."

Did he have in his mind some possible serious complications growing out of Mr. Ferry's supposed action in case of a close contest?

REBELLION LETTERS. Under the new system which went into effect June 1st, are a very small amount of sending small sums of money, &c. Moreover, the Post Office, as well as postage, must be paid in stamps at the office where letters are mailed, or else will be liable to a fine. The Postmaster General has the stamp box for postage and registry, paid in the money and sent the letter in his presence, and the postage and the fees are paid in full.
