

Writing in change your address, always give former direction as well as full particulars as to where you wish your paper to be sent hereafter.

Notices of Marriage or Death, Tributes of Respect, Resolutions of Thanks, &c., are charged for as ordinary advertisements, but only half rates when paid for strictly in advance.

Remittances must be made by Check, Draft, Postal Money Order or Registered Letter. Postmasters will register letters when desired.

Specimen copies forwarded when desired.

Election Tuesday, November 7th, 1882.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR REPRESENTATIVES IN CONGRESS.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE: RICHARD TYLER BENNETT, of Anson.

FOR THE THIRD DISTRICT: WHARTON J. GREEN, of Cumberland.

FOR THE FOURTH DISTRICT: THOMAS RUFFIN, of Orange.

FOR JUDGES: 1st Dist.—JOHN H. BLOUNT, of Perquimans.

2d Dist.—WILLIAM C. BOWEN, of Northampton.

3d Dist.—SWIFT GARDNER, of Greene.

4th Dist.—JAMES D. MOTT, of Moore.

5th Dist.—FREDRICK N. STRUDWICK, of Orange.

6th Dist.—FRANK I. OSBORNE, of Mecklenburg.

7th Dist.—JOHN A. GILMER, of Guilford.

8th Dist.—WILLIAM M. SHEPP, of Mecklenburg.

Notices—Solicitors are voted for by Districts. Other nominees will be voted for throughout the State.

We send out to-day a supplement that contains an error, and as follows: The dropping out of a type in the twenty-fourth line of the Craven county statement makes the Radical tax levy of 1878 only $4,307.48.

It should read $43,307.48. In the same, and the next paragraphs, the words "levied" and "levy," in place of "collected" and "collection" would be precisely accurate.

Sometimes there is a slight difference between the levy and the collection.

How is this? The Census men have been giving the population of North Carolina for June 1880 at 1,399,750—a little less you see than 1,400,000.

Yesterday we received Census Bulletin No. 296 and lo! the population of our State is announced to be 1,638,058.

This is a big error no doubt, and the census men should correct it. They put the whites at 1,028,756, and the colored at 609,302.

If our population is as large as that let us know it.

Under seven years of Radical rule in South Carolina $14,840,000 was collected for State and County taxes.

This was an average of $2,120,000 each year. Under four years of Democratic rule $6,973,000 was collected for State and County taxes—an average of $1,743,250 or $376,750 for each year. In four years the Democrats saved to the tax-payers $1,507,000. And so it was in North Carolina.

Senator Saulsbury, in a speech at Wilmington, Delaware, handled the Radical party with naked hands. He arraigned it for its efforts to centralize the government; for its despotic bayonet rule in the Southern States; for its reckless extravagance in the expenditure of public money, and for laying heavy internal taxes which he stated the Republican party contended was a prerogative of the majority.

They say Gen. Leach is studying Lawrence Sterne's "Tristram Shandy." He is committing to memory that awful course, and he means to pour it out on all Democratic editors who excite his wrath and vulgarity. He is the only man who ever lived in North Carolina who could repeat the Shandyan curse with gusto and without a blush.

Melville, the engineer of the Jeanette is back and has been welcomed home, but he is a had egg we apprehend. At any rate, he has deserted his wife and children according to the Philadelphia Press. If true, is it not a strange Providence that such a fellow was spared and men like De Long and Amble were lost?

There are 6,632,349 negroes in the United States and 6,679,944 foreign born. There are nearly six times as many native whites as negroes or foreigners.

Old Ben Butler is the Democratic nominee for Governor of Massachusetts. "An ounce of civet, good apothecary."

The negroes in the big black District in South Carolina are beginning to talk of having one of their own color. Why not?

HORSFORD'S ACID PHOSPHATE FOR NERVOUSNESS, INDIGESTION.—Send to the Rumford Chemical Works, Providence, R. I., for pamphlet. Mailed free.

JENKINS'S HOT-SHOOT.

The very best reading of this campaign thus far is ex-State Treasurer Jenkins's letter, in which he expresses himself with very great freedom as to the Mongrel party—the "Liberal" fiasco. It will not do far Radical neophytes to question Mr. Jenkins's Radicalism. He is one of the original panel. He trained with Holden and Kirk in the campaign against Dr. Roan and Judge Kerr and Frank Wiley, and Mr. Bow and the twenty or thirty other citizens of Caswell and Alamance, who were unlawfully seized in their persons and thrown into prison under the special guardianship of the Kirk lambs and Tennessee out-throats. Jenkins is sound in his Radicalism. His name is thorough. He goes the whole Radical hog, tail, bristles, snout, hoofs and chittlings. There is no discounting him. He has served his party most loyally in twelve or fifteen campaigns and he proposes to be loyal and true in the present campaign. He believes in placing on guard none but the fire-tried and wool-dyed. He has influence among the best men in his party, and David's voice will be heard. If anything else was lacking to finish the Liberal humbug in the West the letter we print elsewhere will supply it.

It must be remembered that Mr. Jenkins was a long time Treasurer of the State, and that in the midst of wide-spread demoralization and corruption in the State he bore himself above reproach, and that there is no small of corruption upon his garments. The honest men of his party will read what he says with interest.

But what a savage blow was that when he declares that it is the view of a large majority of the Republican party of this State that the "hybrid" ticket as he calls it, shall not be voted for by them. He tells the naked, unadorned truth when he says that this "hybrid" ticket is attempted to be forced upon the Republican party by the Revenue and work-out, broken-down Democrats." He refers in these complimentary terms to Mott and Cooper and Ike, the speaker who kisses the blarney-stone every morning; and to Folk and Clingman and Leach and Price and Devereux and Edwards and some of the lesser but not numerous lights. "Worn out and broken-down!" Oh! save me from my Radical friend must be the feeling of each deserter as he reads this salutation and welcome from one of the foremost men of the old party of Grant and Hayes. Mr. Jenkins says he has received very many letters expressing the very views he presents. Good, very good.

No wonder he is indignant. Has not the STAR said time and again that it was a shame and an outrage that the old warriors should be shut out and the Democratic deserters should be taken into the camp and made leaders of the Republican hosts? Has not the STAR urged that it was a great and gross wrong that Judge Bynum and Judge Dick, who have been on the Supreme Court Bench, should be shoved aside to give a fellow of Folk's calibre and inconsistency the nomination for Supreme Court Judge; that it was a foul wrong that such men as Strayhorn, of Orange, and Cozart, of Granville, and Loge Harris, of Wake, should be made to take back seats, and little Tom Devereux, a man with but little ability, and an old time Democratic aristocrat, should be placed in front to lead the Radical cohorts; that such an enemy to the negro race as Mr. Edwards should be foisted upon the old Republicans for Judge when there are so many Republican lawyers in that Judicial District. We might extend the list somewhat. Mr. Jenkins sees the foul injustice and every principle of his honest nature rises up in indignation and resentment at the attempted wrong. He scouts the idea that his party "should be hawked about and prostituted by any Democrat mean enough to sell himself for office," and he proceeds to deal a severe blow at "those impudent revenue officers"—Mott, the former prohibitionist, Cooper, the former prohibitionist, Mott, the government gauger, and Ike Young, the bung-smeller, are referred to in these handsome terms by their old comrade in arms who stands squarely by the old Radical flag. Ex-Treasurer Jenkins is evidently indignant and he does not restrain his language. "Prostituted Democrats"—"purchased Democrats"—"bought Democrats"—these are the descriptive titles employable by one of the most reputable and useful leaders in the Republican party. This shows precisely in what light the conduct of Clingman and Leach, of Folk and Edwards, is regarded by the honest

THE CAMPAIGN.

Speech of Col. John N. Staples, of Greensboro.

A large crowd assembled on Third street last night at the stand erected between Dock and Orange streets, to hear an address by Col. John N. Staples, of Greensboro, on the politics of the day. Mr. Thomas W. Strange, in a speech of a few moments during, welcomed Col. Staples to our city, and appropriately introduced him to the assembled audience. The gentleman, in commencing, pleasantly alluded to the recognition given him on this his first visit to Wilmington, and expressed his appreciation of the many kindnesses shown him. Proceeding to the subject for discussion, he reviewed the career of the Republican party in the administration of national affairs since 1868, and denounced the numerous outrages and violations of the laws and the constitution committed during that period. He then briefly referred to the conduct of affairs under Democratic control, and contrasted strikingly the results achieved by the two parties when in power. Passing on to State affairs, he stated the record of the Democratic party on the prohibition question, and proved conclusively that though the issue was settled, and dead the Democrats had nothing to fear in meeting it openly, should the Republicans desire to give battle on that point. He then named the numerous benefits that had redounded to the people of the State under Democratic management, and showing how economically and justly the affairs of the State had been administered by them. He denounced the Republican party for its proclivity and corruption, as well as for the oppressiveness and injustice of its administration in North Carolina. The speaker was often applauded, and created a splendid impression by his first effort in our section. His speech was an able, exhaustive and judicious review of the politics of the day; well conceived, written and arranged, and splendidly delivered. He has a full, clear, ringing voice, that adds much to the charm of his speaking, and his address last evening extended his reputation and won for him many high compliments from competent critics.

New Hotel at Smithville.

Dropping in at the Purell House yesterday we saw the design for a new hotel at Smithville, drawn by Mr. J. H. Vaughan, and which is proposed to be constructed for and leased for a number of years by Mr. B. L. Perry. It is to be a three-story building, with a front of 125 feet and two wings running out each 150 feet, and a ball room in the centre 90 by 120 feet. There will be one hundred rooms in the building, affording accommodations for several hundred people. There will be verandas around the building, and also in the ball room, so that spectators can overlook the room and view the dancing without getting in the way of the dancers. The building will be supplied with water and gas, elevators, and, in fact, all of the modern improvements and conveniences.

It is proposed in this connection to organize a joint stock company with a capital of about $40,000, and, as before stated, Mr. Perry has made arrangements to construct and lease the building, work upon which will commence about the first of November, and it is hoped to complete it and have it open for the reception of visitors on or about the first of May.

Judging from the plan the new hotel will be a very handsome and stylish building, and its erection will show that we are awakening to the importance of Smithville or its vicinity as a first-class watering place or summer resort. Another season and the accommodations will be ample in every respect for all who may visit our seaside resorts.

Meeting of Wilmington Presbytery.

Wilmington Presbytery held its fall meeting at Black River Chapel, Sampson county, on April 14th-17th inclusive. There was a large attendance of a very attentive and devout congregation. Great prominence was given to devotional exercises. Much attention was given to Home Missions, and, taking it all in all, it was a most satisfactory meeting.

Rev. S. H. Isler was elected Moderator, and Revs. Alex. Kirkland and S. H. Isler were appointed Evangelists for part of the time.

The next meeting will be held with the first church, in Wilmington, in April, 1883.

The New Hotel.

The ball room of the new hotel at Smithville is to be in dimensions 90 by 120 feet, not 90 by 120, as it appeared in the paper yesterday morning. It may be as well to say that the stock has all been taken. Call in and see the handsomely executed design by Mr. Vaughan, and you will have some idea of the fine appearance of the proposed building, surrounded by verandas, surmounted by spires, &c.

The Sheriff.

The campaign begins to wax warm.—Mr. Elijah Hewlett announces himself an Independent candidate for Sheriff and will make things lively for Stephen H. Mr. Hewlett is a Republican, and is very popular. In 1880, with two opponents in the field—a Democrat and a Greenbacker—he received every vote cast in his own township except three for the office of County Treasurer.

CENSUS RETURNS.

A Classified Statement of the Population of the United States.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The Census Bureau has issued a bulletin classifying the population of the United States in 1880 by nativity. The native Americans were: whites, 36,843,291; colored, 6,638,549; foreign born, 6,679,943. Total population, 50,158,883. Of the foreign born 3,772,107 were natives of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; 1,948,749 of the German Empire; 717,084 of British America; 194,397 of Norway; 181,729 of Sweden; 106,971 of France; 104,541 of China; and the remainder represent all the countries of the earth.

There is no use talking, Dr. Benson's Celery and Chamomile Pills will cure nervousness in its worst forms, and produce a charming happy state in a troubled mind. They are a safe and permanent remedy, and permanently build up the general system. They contain no narcotic or harmful drug whatever.

THE CAMPAIGN.

Speech of Col. John N. Staples, of Greensboro.

A large crowd assembled on Third street last night at the stand erected between Dock and Orange streets, to hear an address by Col. John N. Staples, of Greensboro, on the politics of the day. Mr. Thomas W. Strange, in a speech of a few moments during, welcomed Col. Staples to our city, and appropriately introduced him to the assembled audience. The gentleman, in commencing, pleasantly alluded to the recognition given him on this his first visit to Wilmington, and expressed his appreciation of the many kindnesses shown him. Proceeding to the subject for discussion, he reviewed the career of the Republican party in the administration of national affairs since 1868, and denounced the numerous outrages and violations of the laws and the constitution committed during that period. He then briefly referred to the conduct of affairs under Democratic control, and contrasted strikingly the results achieved by the two parties when in power. Passing on to State affairs, he stated the record of the Democratic party on the prohibition question, and proved conclusively that though the issue was settled, and dead the Democrats had nothing to fear in meeting it openly, should the Republicans desire to give battle on that point. He then named the numerous benefits that had redounded to the people of the State under Democratic management, and showing how economically and justly the affairs of the State had been administered by them. He denounced the Republican party for its proclivity and corruption, as well as for the oppressiveness and injustice of its administration in North Carolina. The speaker was often applauded, and created a splendid impression by his first effort in our section. His speech was an able, exhaustive and judicious review of the politics of the day; well conceived, written and arranged, and splendidly delivered. He has a full, clear, ringing voice, that adds much to the charm of his speaking, and his address last evening extended his reputation and won for him many high compliments from competent critics.

New Hotel at Smithville.

Dropping in at the Purell House yesterday we saw the design for a new hotel at Smithville, drawn by Mr. J. H. Vaughan, and which is proposed to be constructed for and leased for a number of years by Mr. B. L. Perry. It is to be a three-story building, with a front of 125 feet and two wings running out each 150 feet, and a ball room in the centre 90 by 120 feet. There will be one hundred rooms in the building, affording accommodations for several hundred people. There will be verandas around the building, and also in the ball room, so that spectators can overlook the room and view the dancing without getting in the way of the dancers. The building will be supplied with water and gas, elevators, and, in fact, all of the modern improvements and conveniences.

It is proposed in this connection to organize a joint stock company with a capital of about $40,000, and, as before stated, Mr. Perry has made arrangements to construct and lease the building, work upon which will commence about the first of November, and it is hoped to complete it and have it open for the reception of visitors on or about the first of May.

Judging from the plan the new hotel will be a very handsome and stylish building, and its erection will show that we are awakening to the importance of Smithville or its vicinity as a first-class watering place or summer resort. Another season and the accommodations will be ample in every respect for all who may visit our seaside resorts.

Meeting of Wilmington Presbytery.

Wilmington Presbytery held its fall meeting at Black River Chapel, Sampson county, on April 14th-17th inclusive. There was a large attendance of a very attentive and devout congregation. Great prominence was given to devotional exercises. Much attention was given to Home Missions, and, taking it all in all, it was a most satisfactory meeting.

Rev. S. H. Isler was elected Moderator, and Revs. Alex. Kirkland and S. H. Isler were appointed Evangelists for part of the time.

The next meeting will be held with the first church, in Wilmington, in April, 1883.

The New Hotel.

The ball room of the new hotel at Smithville is to be in dimensions 90 by 120 feet, not 90 by 120, as it appeared in the paper yesterday morning. It may be as well to say that the stock has all been taken. Call in and see the handsomely executed design by Mr. Vaughan, and you will have some idea of the fine appearance of the proposed building, surrounded by verandas, surmounted by spires, &c.

The Sheriff.

The campaign begins to wax warm.—Mr. Elijah Hewlett announces himself an Independent candidate for Sheriff and will make things lively for Stephen H. Mr. Hewlett is a Republican, and is very popular. In 1880, with two opponents in the field—a Democrat and a Greenbacker—he received every vote cast in his own township except three for the office of County Treasurer.

CENSUS RETURNS.

A Classified Statement of the Population of the United States.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The Census Bureau has issued a bulletin classifying the population of the United States in 1880 by nativity. The native Americans were: whites, 36,843,291; colored, 6,638,549; foreign born, 6,679,943. Total population, 50,158,883. Of the foreign born 3,772,107 were natives of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; 1,948,749 of the German Empire; 717,084 of British America; 194,397 of Norway; 181,729 of Sweden; 106,971 of France; 104,541 of China; and the remainder represent all the countries of the earth.

There is no use talking, Dr. Benson's Celery and Chamomile Pills will cure nervousness in its worst forms, and produce a charming happy state in a troubled mind. They are a safe and permanent remedy, and permanently build up the general system. They contain no narcotic or harmful drug whatever.

THE CAMPAIGN.

Speech of Col. John N. Staples, of Greensboro.

A large crowd assembled on Third street last night at the stand erected between Dock and Orange streets, to hear an address by Col. John N. Staples, of Greensboro, on the politics of the day. Mr. Thomas W. Strange, in a speech of a few moments during, welcomed Col. Staples to our city, and appropriately introduced him to the assembled audience. The gentleman, in commencing, pleasantly alluded to the recognition given him on this his first visit to Wilmington, and expressed his appreciation of the many kindnesses shown him. Proceeding to the subject for discussion, he reviewed the career of the Republican party in the administration of national affairs since 1868, and denounced the numerous outrages and violations of the laws and the constitution committed during that period. He then briefly referred to the conduct of affairs under Democratic control, and contrasted strikingly the results achieved by the two parties when in power. Passing on to State affairs, he stated the record of the Democratic party on the prohibition question, and proved conclusively that though the issue was settled, and dead the Democrats had nothing to fear in meeting it openly, should the Republicans desire to give battle on that point. He then named the numerous benefits that had redounded to the people of the State under Democratic management, and showing how economically and justly the affairs of the State had been administered by them. He denounced the Republican party for its proclivity and corruption, as well as for the oppressiveness and injustice of its administration in North Carolina. The speaker was often applauded, and created a splendid impression by his first effort in our section. His speech was an able, exhaustive and judicious review of the politics of the day; well conceived, written and arranged, and splendidly delivered. He has a full, clear, ringing voice, that adds much to the charm of his speaking, and his address last evening extended his reputation and won for him many high compliments from competent critics.

New Hotel at Smithville.

Dropping in at the Purell House yesterday we saw the design for a new hotel at Smithville, drawn by Mr. J. H. Vaughan, and which is proposed to be constructed for and leased for a number of years by Mr. B. L. Perry. It is to be a three-story building, with a front of 125 feet and two wings running out each 150 feet, and a ball room in the centre 90 by 120 feet. There will be one hundred rooms in the building, affording accommodations for several hundred people. There will be verandas around the building, and also in the ball room, so that spectators can overlook the room and view the dancing without getting in the way of the dancers. The building will be supplied with water and gas, elevators, and, in fact, all of the modern improvements and conveniences.

It is proposed in this connection to organize a joint stock company with a capital of about $40,000, and, as before stated, Mr. Perry has made arrangements to construct and lease the building, work upon which will commence about the first of November, and it is hoped to complete it and have it open for the reception of visitors on or about the first of May.

Judging from the plan the new hotel will be a very handsome and stylish building, and its erection will show that we are awakening to the importance of Smithville or its vicinity as a first-class watering place or summer resort. Another season and the accommodations will be ample in every respect for all who may visit our seaside resorts.

Meeting of Wilmington Presbytery.

Wilmington Presbytery held its fall meeting at Black River Chapel, Sampson county, on April 14th-17th inclusive. There was a large attendance of a very attentive and devout congregation. Great prominence was given to devotional exercises. Much attention was given to Home Missions, and, taking it all in all, it was a most satisfactory meeting.

Rev. S. H. Isler was elected Moderator, and Revs. Alex. Kirkland and S. H. Isler were appointed Evangelists for part of the time.

The next meeting will be held with the first church, in Wilmington, in April, 1883.

The New Hotel.

The ball room of the new hotel at Smithville is to be in dimensions 90 by 120 feet, not 90 by 120, as it appeared in the paper yesterday morning. It may be as well to say that the stock has all been taken. Call in and see the handsomely executed design by Mr. Vaughan, and you will have some idea of the fine appearance of the proposed building, surrounded by verandas, surmounted by spires, &c.

The Sheriff.

The campaign begins to wax warm.—Mr. Elijah Hewlett announces himself an Independent candidate for Sheriff and will make things lively for Stephen H. Mr. Hewlett is a Republican, and is very popular. In 1880, with two opponents in the field—a Democrat and a Greenbacker—he received every vote cast in his own township except three for the office of County Treasurer.

CENSUS RETURNS.

A Classified Statement of the Population of the United States.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The Census Bureau has issued a bulletin classifying the population of the United States in 1880 by nativity. The native Americans were: whites, 36,843,291; colored, 6,638,549; foreign born, 6,679,943. Total population, 50,158,883. Of the foreign born 3,772,107 were natives of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; 1,948,749 of the German Empire; 717,084 of British America; 194,397 of Norway; 181,729 of Sweden; 106,971 of France; 104,541 of China; and the remainder represent all the countries of the earth.

There is no use talking, Dr. Benson's Celery and Chamomile Pills will cure nervousness in its worst forms, and produce a charming happy state in a troubled mind. They are a safe and permanent remedy, and permanently build up the general system. They contain no narcotic or harmful drug whatever.

THE CAMPAIGN.

Speech of Col. John N. Staples, of Greensboro.

A large crowd assembled on Third street last night at the stand erected between Dock and Orange streets, to hear an address by Col. John N. Staples, of Greensboro, on the politics of the day. Mr. Thomas W. Strange, in a speech of a few moments during, welcomed Col. Staples to our city, and appropriately introduced him to the assembled audience. The gentleman, in commencing, pleasantly alluded to the recognition given him on this his first visit to Wilmington, and expressed his appreciation of the many kindnesses shown him. Proceeding to the subject for discussion, he reviewed the career of the Republican party in the administration of national affairs since 1868, and denounced the numerous outrages and violations of the laws and the constitution committed during that period. He then briefly referred to the conduct of affairs under Democratic control, and contrasted strikingly the results achieved by the two parties when in power. Passing on to State affairs, he stated the record of the Democratic party on the prohibition question, and proved conclusively that though the issue was settled, and dead the Democrats had nothing to fear in meeting it openly, should the Republicans desire to give battle on that point. He then named the numerous benefits that had redounded to the people of the State under Democratic management, and showing how economically and justly the affairs of the State had been administered by them. He denounced the Republican party for its proclivity and corruption, as well as for the oppressiveness and injustice of its administration in North Carolina. The speaker was often applauded, and created a splendid impression by his first effort in our section. His speech was an able, exhaustive and judicious review of the politics of the day; well conceived, written and arranged, and splendidly delivered. He has a full, clear, ringing voice, that adds much to the charm of his speaking, and his address last evening extended his reputation and won for him many high compliments from competent critics.

New Hotel at Smithville.

Dropping in at the Purell House yesterday we saw the design for a new hotel at Smithville, drawn by Mr. J. H. Vaughan, and which is proposed to be constructed for and leased for a number of years by Mr. B. L. Perry. It is to be a three-story building, with a front of 125 feet and two wings running out each 150 feet, and a ball room in the centre 90 by 120 feet. There will be one hundred rooms in the building, affording accommodations for several hundred people. There will be verandas around the building, and also in the ball room, so that spectators can overlook the room and view the dancing without getting in the way of the dancers. The building will be supplied with water and gas, elevators, and, in fact, all of the modern improvements and conveniences.

It is proposed in this connection to organize a joint stock company with a capital of about $40,000, and, as before stated, Mr. Perry has made arrangements to construct and lease the building, work upon which will commence about the first of November, and it is hoped to complete it and have it open for the reception of visitors on or about the first of May.

Judging from the plan the new hotel will be a very handsome and stylish building, and its erection will show that we are awakening to the importance of Smithville or its vicinity as a first-class watering place or summer resort. Another season and the accommodations will be ample in every respect for all who may visit our seaside resorts.

Meeting of Wilmington Presbytery.

Wilmington Presbytery held its fall meeting at Black River Chapel, Sampson county, on April 14th-17th inclusive. There was a large attendance of a very attentive and devout congregation. Great prominence was given to devotional exercises. Much attention was given to Home Missions, and, taking it all in all, it was a most satisfactory meeting.

Rev. S. H. Isler was elected Moderator, and Revs. Alex. Kirkland and S. H. Isler were appointed Evangelists for part of the time.

The next meeting will be held with the first church, in Wilmington, in April, 1883.

The New Hotel.

The ball room of the new hotel at Smithville is to be in dimensions 90 by 120 feet, not 90 by 120, as it appeared in the paper yesterday morning. It may be as well to say that the stock has all been taken. Call in and see the handsomely executed design by Mr. Vaughan, and you will have some idea of the fine appearance of the proposed building, surrounded by verandas, surmounted by spires, &c.

The Sheriff.

The campaign begins to wax warm.—Mr. Elijah Hewlett announces himself an Independent candidate for Sheriff and will make things lively for Stephen H. Mr. Hewlett is a Republican, and is very popular. In 1880, with two opponents in the field—a Democrat and a Greenbacker—he received every vote cast in his own township except three for the office of County Treasurer.

CENSUS RETURNS.

A Classified Statement of the Population of the United States.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The Census Bureau has issued a bulletin classifying the population of the United States in 1880 by nativity. The native Americans were: whites, 36,843,291; colored, 6,638,549; foreign born, 6,679,943. Total population, 50,158,883. Of the foreign born 3,772,107 were natives of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; 1,948,749 of the German Empire; 717,084 of British America; 194,397 of Norway; 181,729 of Sweden; 106,971 of France; 104,541 of China; and the remainder represent all the countries of the earth.

There is no use talking, Dr. Benson's Celery and Chamomile Pills will cure nervousness in its worst forms, and produce a charming happy state in a troubled mind. They are a safe and permanent remedy, and permanently build up the general system. They contain no narcotic or harmful drug whatever.

THE CAMPAIGN.

Speech of Col. John N. Staples, of Greensboro.

A large crowd assembled on Third street last night at the stand erected between Dock and Orange streets, to hear an address by Col. John N. Staples, of Greensboro, on the politics of the day. Mr. Thomas W. Strange, in a speech of a few moments during, welcomed Col. Staples to our city, and appropriately introduced him to the assembled audience. The gentleman, in commencing, pleasantly alluded to the recognition given him on this his first visit to Wilmington, and expressed his appreciation of the many kindnesses shown him. Proceeding to the subject for discussion, he reviewed the career of the Republican party in the administration of national affairs since 1868, and denounced the numerous outrages and violations of the laws and the constitution committed during that period. He then briefly referred to the conduct of affairs under Democratic control, and contrasted strikingly the results achieved by the two parties when in power. Passing on to State affairs, he stated the record of the Democratic party on the prohibition question, and proved conclusively that though the issue was settled, and dead the Democrats had nothing to fear in meeting it openly, should the Republicans desire to give battle on that point. He then named the numerous benefits that had redounded to the people of the State under Democratic management, and showing how economically and justly the affairs of the State had been administered by them. He denounced the Republican party for its proclivity and corruption, as well as for the oppressiveness and injustice of its administration in North Carolina. The speaker was often applauded, and created a splendid impression by his first effort in our section. His speech was an able, exhaustive and judicious review of the politics of the day; well conceived, written and arranged, and splendidly delivered. He has a full, clear, ringing voice, that adds much to the charm of his speaking, and his address last evening extended his reputation and won for him many high compliments from competent critics.

New Hotel at Smithville.

Dropping in at the Purell House yesterday we saw the design for a new hotel at Smithville, drawn by Mr. J. H. Vaughan, and which is proposed to be constructed for and leased for a number of years by Mr. B. L. Perry. It is to be a three-story building, with a front of 125 feet and two wings running out each 150 feet, and a ball room in the centre 90 by 120 feet. There will be one hundred rooms in the building, affording accommodations for several hundred people. There will be verandas around the building, and also in the ball room, so that spectators can overlook the room and view the dancing without getting in the way of the dancers. The building will be supplied with water and gas, elevators, and, in fact, all of the modern improvements and conveniences.

It is proposed in this connection to organize a joint stock company with a capital of about $40,000, and, as before stated, Mr. Perry has made arrangements to construct and lease the building, work upon which will commence about the first of November, and it is hoped to complete it and have it open for the reception of visitors on or about the first of May.

Judging from the plan the new hotel will be a very handsome and stylish building, and its erection will show that we are awakening to the importance of Smithville or its vicinity as a first-class watering place or summer resort. Another season and the accommodations will