The remedy is fully the article to attack the disease, both internally, through the blood, and externally, through the absorbents.

TO VIRGIL.

Roman Virgil, thou that singest, Ilion's lofty temples robed in fire.

Wars, and filial faith, and Dido's pyre; Landscape-lover, lord of language.

More than that he sang the Works and Days. All the chosen coin of fancy.

Flashing out from many a golden phrase; Thou that singest wheat and woodland.

Till the vineyard, live and horse and herd; All the charm of all the Muses.

Often flowering in a lonely wood; Now the Rome of slaves hath perished.

And the Rome of freemen holds their I, and from the Northern Island.

Sunder'd once from all the human race, I salute thee, Mantovano.

I that loved thee since my day began, Wielder of the stateliest measure.

Ever moulded by the lips of man. From Tennyson's New Poem.

WHY TITLES ARE SHOW-ERED AROUND.

Richmond State. The weakness of the average American for a title, or rather the universality of the custom to bestow one upon everybody, whether he likes it or not, which prevails in America, is very happily set off in the subjoined brief anecdote, in which he himself figured as the hero.

related by Capt. James Barron Hope, of the Norfolk Landmark, in that paper:

"Not very long ago, at the Allegheny Springs, the present writer formed the acquaintance of a pleasant young fellow from Georgia, who, deluded by the martial gleam of our gold spectacles, forthwith promoted us to the rank of 'Colonel.' He yielded to our quiet remonstrance against this and called us 'Judge.' Against this also we protested, and with an air which we shall never forget he answered: 'Sir, I could not think of addressing a gentleman of your age without some title of honor.'"

"We fled from that young man aghast; but on recovering our serenity we thought of all these things are relative after all, and that the French maxim (Fontenelle's, we think) is right—namely, that 'You are no older than you feel yourself to be.'"

And here we have the true explanation, perhaps.

THERE'S NOTHING LIKE FRESH NEWS.

Boston Herald. While country papers have "patent outsiders" egregious blunders are to be expected. As a sample, the following from an Ohio paper of August 15, 1882, is all sufficient:

"General Garfield, a correspondent notes, now receives hundreds of newspapers with the articles marked referring to him. He is gaining an experience as an exchange reader, and all kinds of experience are needed as the head of a great nation." * * * "General Garibaldi's health has been entirely restored by his residence on the Genesee coast. He frequently visits the villages along the shore in a canoe or small boat. His friends believe that he will live ten years longer at least."

OUR STATE CONTEMPORARIES.

When the Republican party was overwhelmed in this State it was not crushed, it was simply beaten. Year after year it has waged the same hard fight to regain power, and year after year it has put its candidate in the field and voted solidly for them. It met defeat with the resolve to try again, and has never despaired of finally recapturing the State. While there was a prospect of doing so without any outside alliances, so long as each alliance, but when the repeated experience of years demonstrated a strength in the Democratic party which it could not unaided overcome, then came resort to intrigue and strategy. The result of this intrigue and strategy was the birth of the so-called Liberal party. Who are its originators? The same men (save a small fraction) who for years have led the Republican party in its contests with the Democracy.—Charlotte Observer.

Shall we go back to the dark days of reconstruction and the gloomy years which followed, when the public welfare was committed to ignorant and irresponsible hands, or shall we continue in power the party which under many difficulties has caused the "desert (which Radicalism left our good old State) to blossom as the rose?" Let it be remembered that Radicalism, stripped of the "shams and pretences" under which it appeals to the people to-day, is the same thing that it was then. The Ethiopian has changed his skin nor the Leopard his spots.—Wilson Advance.

POLITICAL POINTS.

The attempt to galvanize the Greenback party into life again is the most extravagant undertaking of the year.—Philadelphia Press, Rep.

"The Tribune and Journal declare 'The River and Harbor bill is a big steal.' Gen. Ben Harrison, Republican Senator, says this is untrue, and it is in no sense a steal."

"The Republican party is not what it ought to be," says one of its most candid organs. True, true, it ought to have gone to an angel long ago. It ought now to be in the past tense.—Washington Post, Dem.

Charles J. Folger is a gentleman of irreproachable personal character, but as Secretary of the Treasury he has proved himself the most obsequious tool of Conkling and Cameron of all the members of President Arthur's Cabinet.—Brooklyn Times.

"We need among us a more entire consecration of brains and money to God. We need intense devotion to God, and therefore to man. The love of the Godman produces the love of God and of man; and thence follow Christian sayings and hospitals. We need that the well-to-do of the world, who sit in so many of our seats, shall be converted to personal faith and repentance. We need the substitution of sobriety and dignity in place of the frivolity which characterizes that class of butterfly women who have justified the satire with which the secular prints puncture their hypocrisy.—Special Bishop of Illinois.

A NOTED BUT UNLIVED WOMAN.

(From the Boston Globe.)

There is a good likeness of Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., who shows all the human beauties to be truthfully called the "Friend of Woman," as some of her correspondents love to call her. She is a woman of fine intellect, and in the outcome of a life's duty, and is believed to keep lady assistants, to help her answer the large correspondence which daily pours in upon her, each bearing the special burden of suffering, or joy, or release from it. Her Vegetable Compound is a medicine for good and not evil purposes. I have personally investigated it and am satisfied of its value.

On account of its proven merits, it is recommended and prescribed by the best physicians in the country. On any day it will do you good, and save much pain. It will cure indigestion, the worst form of falling of the uterus, Leucorrhoea, irregular and painful menstruation, all ovarian troubles, inflammation and congestion, Prolapsus, all Dysmenorrhoea, and the consequent neuralgic weakness, and is especially adapted to the Change of Life.

It purifies every portion of the system, and gives new life and vigor. It removes fatness, dissolves all chronic and inveterate, and relieves weakness of the stomach. It cures Headaches, Nervous Prostration, General Debility, Sleeplessness, Depression and Indigestion. That feeling of bearing down, coming pain, weight and heaviness, is always permanently cured by its use. It will all it does, and under all circumstances, act in harmony with the law that governs the female system.

It costs only 25 cents per bottle, and is sold by druggists. Any advice required as to special cases, and the names of many who have been restored to perfect health by the use of this Vegetable Compound, can be obtained by addressing Mrs. W. W. Kimball, Proprietor, 100 North Main Street, Lowell, Mass.

For Kidney Complaints of either sex this compound is unexcelled as a household medicine. It will cure all cases of "Mrs. Pinkham's Liver Pills," says one writer, "are the best in the world for the cure of Constipation, Biliousness and Torpidity of the Liver. Her Blood Purifier works wonders in the worst cases, and takes equal to equal the Compound in its popularity. All must respect her as an Angel of Mercy whose medicine do good to thousands." THE STATE CAMPAIGN.

Judge Bennett speaks at Fayetteville on the 22nd inst.

Our old friend Charles N. B. Evans, of the Milton Chronicle, has been nominated for the State Senate by the Democrats of the Twentieth District. Well done. We congratulate the Democrats. Now be sure to elect him.

The following are recent Democratic nominations: Leodor Dempsey Wood, Jr., for House; Martin D. Worthington, for House; Durham, Robert C. Strudwick, for 38th Senatorial District; Riley Noll and B. A. Berry; Columbus, H. D. Williamson for House.

A Rockingham friend writes: "There are no more radical allies: Liberals in Rockingham, has the Independents are abroad, and threaten mischief." They now say that W. S. Ball will be the mixed candidate for Congress in this district if Kogel will agree to support him.—Greenboro Patriot.

We have read with pleasure in the Fayetteville Examiner a pretty full synopsis of the speech delivered by Col. Wharton J. Green at Fayetteville. The points made are capital, and he puts them strongly and well. Richmond Star writes: "His speech was distributed throughout the Third District."

We learn that there is a movement on foot among the colored voters of the county to nominate W. J. Heritage for Register of Deeds. We are glad to see signs of the spirit of independence growing among them, and we hope to see the day when the colored voter of North Carolina will act and think for himself.—Washington Press.

Senator Vance and Gen. R. B. Vance spoke at Morganton last Saturday. On Monday Judge Bennett spoke there to a large crowd. A correspondent of the Raleigh Observer writes: "His speech was extraordinary, and kept his hearers spell-bound for nearly two hours, which was considered a short time, as the audience was so large." We are pleased to see that Col. Wharton J. Green, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Twentieth District, seems to be growing a popularity every day, and to be impressing the audiences which he addresses most favorably. Col. Green is a man of sense and a gentleman, and will prove himself a credit to his party. The Democrats of his district.—Charlotte Journal.

Maj. Louis C. Latham, Democratic candidate for Representative from this District, began his canvass at Currituck Court House on Monday last. He spoke to a large crowd, who were delighted at the prospect of his success. He approached Mr. Pool, his opponent, and endeavored to arrange a joint canvass, but Mr. Pool would enter into no arrangement.—Elizabeth City Falcon.

Col. W. J. Green returned on the 12th inst., from an extended canvass through the lower part of this district. The Colonel looks fresh and vigorous, and he has been successful in his work, he gives an encouraging account of the enthusiasm that is prevailing among the people. From the best information we can gather, it is thought that the district will elect at least fifteen hundred majority for Col. Green.—Fayetteville Examiner.

Capt. J. S. Lane, we regret to see, has announced himself an independent candidate for the Legislature in Pamlico county, and the negroes and Radicals have nominated him. We had expected better of Capt. Lane. Snow Hill correspondent, O'Hara mounted the stand at the usual hour, and told the negroes that he was the regular Republican nominee for Congress in the Second District, having been duly declared so at the late Republican Convention held at Wilson. About this time the negroes shouted out, "Yes, you are;" and we are going to stick by you as long as there is a "pea in the dish." The negroes of Greene county will go solid for O'Hara at the coming election. There was a big row among the negroes in the town during the day. Knives and sticks were freely used, and several of the negroes were seriously stabbed and otherwise bruised up and knocked down.
