David A. Jenkins, Esq., for a long time Treasurer of the State under Republican Administrations, a man of honor and who kept clean hands whilst in office, on October 7th writes a letter in which he advises all Republicans opposed to the Revenue Ring-to the unholy alliance-the Mott-Ike Young-Jim Harris-Tom Devereux-Mongrel Combination, to vote this year with the Democratic party. He says, and reflecting, honest, - well meaning Republicans would be wise to consider well the words of this old line Republican of honorable record, who has been always faithful to his party. He says of the Democratic party:

"While I am as much as ever opposed to the principles of that party, I cannot but recognize that in this fight that party repre-sents the moral influence of the country, and that party is not seeking possession degrading the State. When we are left to choose between Democrats, as we are, can we as good citizens hesitate? Not to vote is half voting for this infamous coalition! Can we, because we are Republicans, stand by idle and permit our old State to be turned over to such a set? For one, I say no; I shall cheerfully vote for the side of morality and good government, and hope all honest Republicans will do likewise, and bury this mongrel crowd so deep that they will never scratch out."

The Richmond & Danville Railroad Syndicate is broken. Mr. Stewart, of Richmond, Va., did it by selling his stock. The pool is "busted." A special from Raleigh, of the 14th inst., to the New York Times, gives the following particulars. It says of Mr. Stewart's sale:

"His shares were bought by the Standard Oil Company; George Pullman, of the Palace Car Company; S. B. Plant, of the Southern Express Company; R. T. Wilson, of the East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia Railroad; and Jim Keene, who bought 10,000 shares last week of the Danville & Wort Paint. West Point terminal stock. Robert Harris, of the Erie Road, is to be one of the Directors, and will represent Rockafeller's interest. Col. Buford holds on to his stock, and W. P. Clyde, J. M. Logan and the Oil Company now own the road. It is expected that ex-Vice President Cassett, of the Pennsylvania Road, will be taken into the new pool. The transfers have not yet been made, but will be in a few days. The par-ties to the trade are now in New York for this purpose. Undoubtedly this change of ownership was promoted by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, and it is in-tended to pour the whole Southern trade into Baltimore instead of into Richmond. as heretofore. Already there is talk here by men from Richmond of building a new road from Richmond to Ridgeway, on the Raleigh & Augusta Air Line to Columbia and Augusta, in order to make another Southern through line, which would be controlled by John M. Robinson and the men who own the Seaboard & Roanoke, the Raleigh & Gaston, and the Raleigh & Augusta Air Rine Road. The road from Washington to Quantico is owned by the Pennsylvania Central; that from Quantico to Richmond is owned by Moncure Robinson, the father of John M. Robinson. The building of the link from Richmond to Ridgeway and from Hamlet, N. C., to Augusta or Atlanta would make a through competing line, and would help New York and the Pennsylvania Road."

The Washington Post of Monday has a big batch of affidavits, &c., that would fill eight or ten columns of the STAR on the Star Route frauds. They set forth fully the attempts of the Government to bribe the jury that tried Brady and the other rascals. The affidavits directly inculpate the Department of Justice and expose its odious and venal system of espionage, over judge, jury and connsel.

If Dave Jenkins don't stop persuading the true rank and file to have nothing to do with our comical and curious combination ticket, I'm dashed if we will have a baker's dozen in the Legislature and nary Congressman. Our people know Dave is honest and they believe in him. In great haste. - Mott to Ike Young.

THE EDMUNDS LAW IN UTAH.

The next Congress will have to deal with the Mormon question afresh. The Edmunds law may do good if enforced, but it will not cover the case we take it. The efforts of the Mormons to resist the law ought to be met sternly. Instead of running State politics Arthur ought to be attending to the business of the country. Instead of holding Cabinet meetings, after the bad manner of Grant, in New York he ought to be at the Federal Capital, that is if he has any thing to do. He might keep his eyes fixed on the Mormon element in Utah, and upon those in cumbents who refuse to surrender Territorial offices even after the Congress of the United States has spoken. When such officials presume to resist the command of the Federal Government they assume very great responsibility.

Judge Black has given a very unfavorable opinion of the operations of the Edmunds law, but this does not comport with statements we have met with. The Commissioners do not exclude from the registration of voters all Mormons, but polyamists. It is estimated that there are more Mormons who are not polygamists than are polygamists. The Edmunds law excludes the latter very effectually. The Philadelphia American, Rep., thus shows the effects of the

"It may be said, 'What is gained by the Edmunds law if the Mormons are still to control?' We answer—Much every way. There are Mormons and Mormons. aristocratic ring, who have ruled the Territory and the Church, are polygamists. They are the zealous and domineering ele ment of the sect. It is a point of Mormon piety to have more wives than one, and this piety is of the sort which in Utah leads to political promotion. The exclusion of the polygamists from voting and from office not merely appeals to the younger genera-tion's ambition in favor of monogamy. It throws the control of affairs into the hands of the moderate men of the sect, and ex cludes from political influence the men who have made Mormonism a danger, as well as a reproach, to the country. It opens vistas of possibility as to the internal history of the sect which cannot but inspire hope for Utah. But, of course, the strong hand of the law must be continued. Unless the the law will be a dead letter."

A FARMER'S COMPLAINT.

Mr. E. D. Goodwin, a Connecticut farmer of intelligence, appeared be fore the Tariff Commission. He thought it was time that the farmers of the land were looked after. For twenty years they had been taxed to take care of other industries and now he thought it was time to have them protected. He thought Connecticut farmers had a right to be heard. He is reported as putting the case in this way, and our readers can judge for themseves if his remarks had the merit of three, justice and sense:

"He thought that those who had for gen erations made one crop a year without pro tection on the sterile soil of New England ought to have a hearing as well as the man-ufacturers, who could multiply their wheels ad infinitum, and under the stimulus of extreme protection had become the millionaires of the land, dominating alike in me nopolies and politics. He could not see why the farmer should have to compete in foreign markets with cheap labor, while clamorous bounty-loving manufacturers who could and did import that sort of as sistance whenever they saw fit, were pro tected with an average duty of 45 per cent. besides ocean freights, insurance and com missions; nor understand the favoritism which legislated for the manufacturers, who comprised only one-fifth of the people, at the expense of trade and commerce, by which another fifth lived, and agriculture which supported the remaining three-fifths The whole policy antagonized natural forces and set at naught the laws of truththe many subsisted while the few accumu lated. The tariff should be gradually reduced to a revenue standard, in his opinion."

Mr. Goodwin will be pleased with Senator Vance's Baltimore speech we cannot doubt. Mr. Goodwin in sisted that the tariff should be ver much reduced. But his complaints fell on stony-ground hearers. The time will come when the farmers will

We urge our Democratic friends not to lose sight for one moment of the Legislature. As far as North Carolina is concerned you had better lose every Representative and the Judges besides than to lose the Legislature. The Rads are threatening to overthrow our present system of county government and play havoc with our institutions generally if they get into power once more Be sure to disappoint them. To do this go to work in earnest, as if your house was on fire, and then vote. Now what do you say?

Rev. Thomas Guard, pastor of the rich and elegant Mount Vernon Methodist Episcopal church in Baltimore, is dead in his 57th year. He was one of the leading men in the Northern Methodist Church. He was born in Galway, Ireland.

A year or so ago the Northern papers reported Mrs. Abraham Lincoln as very poor. She left an estate worth $72,000, and her wardrobe was almost equal to that of Queen Elizabeth of England "in ye olden time."

The Distinguishing |Charm. A delightful fragrance of freshly gathered flowers and spices is the distinguishing charm of Floreston Cologne. A MANLY DECLINATURE.

One of the most sensible, patriotic and manly letters we have read is hat of Dr. L. D. Pelham, in the Hendersonville Herald, declining to become an Independent Democratic candidate for State Senator. The whole letter is excellent, and we regret that we have not space for it. It has the clear ring of principles all through. He says he is not aware that "his principles need vindication." He then with true fervor and inmistakable poin says:

"There is a general feeling manifested for radical reformation in State and National policy, but such a consummation cannot be reached through the agency of the noble army of independents. In our battle against the evils that oppress us in many channels of industry as well as in our so cial system, an "Independent" should merge his individuality as such into that of a well wisher of his country, and vote for the Democratic nominee. * * I do not feel that I am called upon to apply counter irritants or administer antidotes to the body politic in order to correct the farrage of nonsense to which it has been liberally treated. Let our friends remember that an Independent is indeed an INDEPENDENT in all things—but office, and when it comes to this he is a political tramp.

"At this juncture of affairs I have no hesitancy in saying that an Independent is the tancy in saying that an Independent is the ax laid at the tree of Democracy, and those who have sat beneath its shade and been refreshed, owe it to themselves to observe eternal vigilance, and to protect the proud old oak should be a privilege and a plea-

John S. Wise, son of Henry A., is now the Mahone-Arthur candidate for Representative-at-Large in Virgidia. Two years ago this very John said this: "I was born a Democrat I was raised a Democrat, and I wil die a Democrat." Let us see. It is about two years ago since Jim Leach stood up in Third street in this city and poured out his vociferous denunciations and incoherent abuse upon "Gyar-field" and the Radical party. It is only about two years since "Kurnel" Johnston was a Dem ocratic aspirant for Congressional honors and Mr. Charles Price was

We congratulate the people around Tarboro and Williamston, in Martin county, and all living between the two places. The railroad is a very important matter for them and of value to the State. Big Crops. Mr. T. J. Cowan, formerly of this city, but now a resident of Hamlet, informs t that he never saw such crops as are to be found all through the country in that section. Poor, and apparently worthless sand hills, on which formerly it was almost impossible to raise even so much as a "dis turbance," are now bristling with tall corn stalks on which are hanging as fine cars of corn as can be found anywhere. The trouble up that way, he says, will be to find storage room for the immense crops.

Methodist Quarterly Meeting at Smith-

Rey. R. O. Burton, Presiding Elder of the District, held his fourth quarterly meeting for the Smithville Station last week A correspondent informs us that he stands very high there, that his piety and zeal are held in great reverence, and that it is a mat ter for earnest congratulation that such man was placed in charge of the District. The Rev. Mr. North is also very popular with his charge, who would gladly welcome his return to them by Conference.

A correspondent at Clyde, South Carolina, informs us that Mr. Jesse F. Bloodworth died there very suddenly on Tuesday, the 10th inst., of congestion of the liver. He was formerly well known in this city and the adjacent country, having many friends, to whom the announcement of his death will be sad intelligence.

The funeral will take place to-day, from the residence of her son, on Chesnut street, corner of Second.

ST. Louis, Oct, 16.—Col. Cockrell, as a coroner's inquest yesterday, gave the allowing account of the shooting of Col. aybock: A few minutes past 5 o'clock was sitting at my desk talking with Mr. cGuffin, the business manager of the paclosed. My pistol was lying on m pocket on changing my cost, and leaving the office. Suddenly the door opened and two men entered, closing the door behind to men entered, closing the door. I recog-tem. I was facing the door. I recog-ted Col. Slaybock, and Mr. Clopton, a wyer, who had a few days before assault-d two members of his profession in a prid two members of his profession in a pri ate office. I realized that I was to be assaulted, and arose from my chair. Col. Slaybock's bearing was that of a man bent upon violence. His first words were, "Well, am here." He started as if to draw off his cost. I was in the corner next to the front window; instinctively I moved my hand toward the weapon on the desk. He saw it, and suddenly readjusted his coat, and said, "Is that for me?" at the same time throwing his hand to his hip same time throwing his hand to his hip pocket. My reply was, "No, sir," but I secured my weapon as he drew his. He presented it at me, and I heard him cock it. I shouted, "Don't do that," and at the same time, while his weapon was pointed at my breast, I fired, believing myself at the same moment a dead man. I knew nothing of the effect of my shot, for he closed with me and thrust his revolver against my side. At the same time Mr. closed with me and thrust his revolver against my side. At the same time Mr. Clopton approached me from behind and wrested my pistol from my hand, which was hanging by my side. I shouted to Mr. McGuffin, "Don't let these men kill me." He tore Col. Slaybock's pistol from his hand, and pointed it at Clopton's head, under the impression, I presume, that he was trying to shoot me. At that instant Col. Slaybock released his grasp upon me, and I realized for the first time that he had been urt. I left the room while Mr. Clopton was calling for a doctor. My head was eding from a cut received when I was orced against the window in the scuffle,

His speeches are great efforts—evarybody pleased, and no doubt good results will follow. We go to Martin to-morrow, and close Tuesday at Stonewall. The news from Ohio is simply superb. Liberalism is played out here. Latham's election is sure. The Democratic party of Stokes was never in better trim than at present. The prospects are the Democratic ticket will be elected by an increased majority. —Gov. Jarvis evidently has his eye on the Senatorship. His friends are being nominated right and left for the Legislature. —The fight between the Straightouts and the Coalitionists is waxing warmer daily; and the chances of Dockery and Folk We cannot speak of distant localities, but Cook will lead York in Rowan, Yadkin and Forsyth. Cook, indeed is the man to fear. If York withdraws Cook will push Robbins a little, just a little—but as the matter now stands, whew! —— In Yad-kin county the straight Republicans have nominated a county ticket. There are three tickets in the field in Yadkin. So it is or soon will be all over the State. The in Guilford are bent on having some fun if they do no more. Their resolutions endorsing Isaac Young for United States Senator were really witty. - Winston Leader. Col. Wm. Johnston, it is said, ran in his earlier days for the Legislature from Lincoln county and was elected. We next hear of him as the secession candidate for Governor against Zeb. Vance, the people's candidate. No one has been able yet to compute the exact majority by which the Colonel was left at home. For some years he ran the C., C. and A., the Hamb and the A., T. and O. railroads, until the stockholders of said roads elected others in his stead. He ran for the State Conven tion against Dr. Kerr, Republican, and was badly beaten. He was elected Mayor of Charlotte once, over Wm. F. Davidson and once over F. A. McNinch. He was defeated for Mayor by R. B. Smith. He was defeated before the Congressional Nomina-ting Convention by Walter L. Steele. He was defeated two years later at the same convention by the same man; was defeated two years later before the same convention by Major C. Dowd. He was defeated for the presidency of the Commercial Bank by Col. Frank Coxe. He was defeated a year later by R. M. White for the same office. later by R. M. White for the same office. He was defeated at the last election for Mayor by F. S. DeWolfe, and he will be defeated again this year for Congress by Major Dowd. He may well be termed the greatest runner and poorest catcher North Carolina has ever known.—Charlotte Jour-
