COTTON EXCHANGE KULES. An Important Amendment to the Regulation Governing the Classification of Cotton. New York Commercial Bulletin. The Board of Managers of the Cotton Exchange yesterday ordered posted an amendment to the instructions of the Classification Committee in classing inspected cotton for certification. In its amended form the rule covering the matter provides that full grades are "Fair," "Middling Fair," "Good Middling," "Mid . dling." "Low Middling," and "Good Ordinary." Half grades are those designated by the term "Strict." Quarter grades are those designated by the word "Barely," meaning the mean point between the half grade and the next full grade above, and "Fully," meaning the mean point bea tween the half grade and the next full grade below. In classing stained cotton the same sub-division of grades into "full," "strict," "barely," and "fully," is to be followed as in white cotton, and for grades of stained or tinged, better than middling stained, the term "strict middling stained" may be used, meaning the mean point between strict middling stained and middling white, and "fully middling stained" meaning the mean point between strict middling stained and middling stained; also "good middling tinged," which shall be considered of the same value as middling white.

The foregoing rule will be in force on and after July 18. The extensive amendments to the by laws of the Exchange will be considered and acted on at a meeting of the members of the Exchange which has been called for noon today. The discussion on the amend ments is expected to be very animated on account of the interest that is taken in the subject by the members.

Waiting Thirty Years for Her Lover.

Chicago Tribune. A romantic story is connected with the life of a woman who frequents the railroad station in Manchester, N. H. She is about 50 years old, but now bent with care, and her long handsome tresses streaked with gray; she always carries a traveling bag in her hand, and as the crowds arrive she scans each person eagerly, and then turns sadly away. The woman some thirty years ago was one of the belles of the city, courted by many. The favored lover, however, followed the sea.

No Wine at the Sacrament.

New York Sun.

An interesting controversy has been created in Buffalo by the action of the Women's Christian Temperance Union in trying to have wine at the sacrament abolished. The Union, believing that there is danger of the spread of intemperance at the very altar, propose to limit that danger by preventing the use of wine, and have appointed a committee to interview ill the clergymen of the city on the subject. Most of the ministers here have already been interviewed. The Rev. Mr. Wrigley, of St. Mary's Epis-copal church, said: "The movement is a species crankism and fanaticism with which the Episcopal Church will have nothing to do. Our Church believes in temperance in all things. The teach ings of the Bible and of the fathers go to show that the wine used at the Lord's Supper was fermented juice of the grape. We believe the Lord's practice is a safe one to follow. If one cannot use with prudence he can and should refrain from using it as a heverage. I always dilute sacramental wine about 100 per cent. I believe it is generally so diluted." The Rev. S. S. Mitchell, o the First Presbyterian church, said the move ment was zeal begotten of ignorance. if not impertinence, and that the Saviour knew what He was doing. The Rev. Mr. Hyde, of All Saints' church, said he would not dare use a substitute for fermented wine. The Rev. Mr. Egbert, of Calvary Delaware Ave. Presbyterian church said he used fermented wine and should do so. Three former drunk-ards who had drank it at the sacrament told him it gave them no temptation, One Baptist and two Presby-terian ministers use unfermented the truth and wisdom of what he wine, but almost all the other clergy-

Sullivan and bis Party Arrested in Nashville on Requisition of Governor of Mississippi-A show of Restatance fiede which was Quickly equelched-Sullivan and Johnsos Heleased.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. NASHVILLE, TENN., July 11 .- When the north-bound Louisville & Nashville train pulled unto this city, at 10 33 this morning, s crowd of people surged around the car to see John L Sullivan, who was known to be on board. A rumor soon obtained circulation that a requisition was in the hands of the police, several of whom had boards ed the car, and an officer reached over with handcuffs in his hand, and seizing the slugger's arms pulled him out into the sisle of the car. Sullivan resisted. Mike Muldoon, who occupied the same seat, put his head out of the window and cried to the crowd, "Gentlemen, I demand American rotection "

His patriotic wail was greeted with a variety of responses. Some cheered Sullivan, and begged him to "knock the copper out." Others cried, "Hurrah for the Nashville police," "Hit him with your club," etc. One youngster, who was hanging on the cutside of the car window, ducked his head behind the sill and informed the crowd that "The cops have out their guns." After a brief struggle Sullivan was taken from the car and hustled to a carriage. In the struggle he drew back to knock down the policeman, when chief Clack stuck a pistol in his face, and told him if he struck he (Clack) would kill him.

The officers next grabbed Charley Johnson, of Brooklyn, Sullivan's backer, who resisted vigorously, but finally began to cry with pain. During all this scrimmage Muldoon sat quietly and was not disturbed. Mike Cleary. Sullivan's other second, hid in the excitement, and one other named Lynch jumped off the train. Only Johnson and Bullivan are detained, though the others The arrest was made by authority of a telegram from Governor Lowry, of Missis sippi, to the Nashville Chief of Police. NASHVILLE, TENN, July 11,-John L. Sullivan gave an impromptu exhibition in Nashville to-day.

Gov. Lowrey, of Mississippi, telegraphed Chief of Police Clack this: "Arrest John L Sullivan and his fighting party, and de-liver to the sheriff here, and I will pay you $100 The charge is the crime of prize fighting.'

A large number of people were congreated at the Union depot this morning awaiting the arrival at 10.33 of the "cannon ball train," containing the redoubtable John and his party. As soon as the train was stopped it was boarded by Chief of Police Clack and members of the police force. Chief Clack, dressed in citizen's clothes, went up to one of the men and asked him where Sullivan was? The man replied that he was asleep, and could not be disturbed. The officer told him who he was, and that he must see Sullivan. The officer, followed by several of his men, then went forward to the stateroom, in the front, where he found Sullivan, his trainer, Muldoon, and Charley Johnson, his backer. Muldoon and Johnson were sitting, while Sullivan occupied the ber:h that ex ended the length of the state room. The big fellow was lying apparent. y asleep. The Chief asked the other men their names. One of them said his name was Lynch, and the other called himself Robertson. There was no occasion to ask the name of the giant lying on the berth; anybody would have known said, 'I intend to arrest you." "On what thority for the arrest of your party and you "I will not go without a warrant. You must show your authority. I am a citizen of New York, a tax payer, and I stand on my rights as an American citizen." The Chief insisted that he must go, and that it would be best to avoid trouble. 'You don't know who I am, nor anything I have done," said Sullivan. "I am on my way to New York on business." The Chief said he was satisfied he was one of the men he wanted. By this time the car filled with people who were crowding for a look at the scene. The police attempted ineffectually to remove them. The object of the prize fighting party evidently was to palaver until the train pulled cut. The Chief told one of his men to go forward and hold the train. The officer returned in a few minutes and said that the train could not be held, as it was a U S mail train. The Chief then told him to uncouple the sleeping car. The foregoing conversation had passed while Sullivan was still Is ing at full length either askep or pretending. He was dressed in a light woolen shirt, open at the throat, dark trousers, a blue belt and slippers. His hair was cut short been engaged in a prize fight; the only evidence of the conflict were his swollen hands. The Chief told his friends that they must wake him up. They declined to do it, and the Cuief himself shook him slight-Sullivan raised himself up drowily, and looked as if he was wondering what all the row was about. The chief informed him of his business, and asked him to go with him. Sullivan said he would not go. The chief said that he meant business, and intended to arrest "Well, what are you all going to do about it," said Sullivan, addressing his friends. They told him that he was dealing with the chief of police, and advised him not to hit the officers. "No, I will not hit anybody, but I be damned if I will go," exclaimed Sullivan. Chief Clack caught him by the collar Several other officers crowded into the room and a desperate struggle ensued. Some of the officers had their pistols drawn, and it looked like a general pistol as well as a pugilistic fight was about to begin. Three or four men caught Sullivan, his friends offering him no assistance, and no resistance to the officers. Sullivan gave an exhibition of his splendid strength. He jerked and pulled, and tried to push the officers off. Give me a show. I won't hurt you, but I won't go with you," exclaimed the Hercules. The officers held to him although he was in the heat of passion and looked as though he could have knocked any of them through the side of the car. If he had struck out some one would have received a long-to-be remembered blow. The sight of the clubs and pictols was probably what caused him to restrain his evidently strong desire to give the officers an example of his prowess as a hard-hatter. There were enough officers present, however, to overcome his giant strength. One of thom slipped the nippers on one of his wrists and then on the other Seeing that he was at this disadvantage Sullivan gave in. He was pushed out of the car ac far as the officers could make him move. Johnson was also handcuffed and taken out. In the excitement Muldoon was not arrested, but went on with Cleary and other friends of Sullivan. The officers forced their way through the crowd and placed their prisorers in carriages. Three officers and one prisoner occupied each carriage. They drove through Church street and to the police station. Lawyers were at once engaged and a writ of habeas corpus ap-

At 3 o'clock sharp, Judge McAlister, of the Circuit Court, made his appearance and proceedings were begun. Sullivan and Johnson, or Lynch, as he gave his name, appeared with their lawyers, W. H. Washngton, W G Bryan, A J Caldwell and Thomas L Dodd. Sullivan was surly and very sour, but sat quietly, but never mov-ing except to open several teiegrams from his friends in New York and else-where, offering aid. The city officials and

Sullivan longer would be a most arbitrary act on the part of the court; that the officers had arrested him without warrant or authority; that misdemesnors were not extraditional by the rulings of the Tennessee courts and by precedents of Gov. Taylor. He therefore ordered Sullivan released. There was an immense crowd present, and the decision of the judge was greeted with great applause. Sullivan was made a hero of, and the town was his until he left at 8 o'clock for the East. COLUMBUS, ORIO. July 11 -Governor

"About two years ago, after suffering for nearly two years from rheumatic gout, being able to walk only with great discomfort, and having tried various remedies, including mineral waters, without relief, I saw by an advertisement in a Chicago paper that a man had been relieved of this distressing complaint, after long suffering, by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. 9 NORTH FRONT STREET. OTTERBURN LITHIA AND MAGNESIA

IT NOT ONLY CURES "BRIGHT'S DISEASE." BUT ALSO DIABETES.

WATER.

MANNBOBO, VA., April 7, 1888. For a year I have been suffering with a form of Kidney Disease which my physician. Br. J. A. Hillman, thought was Diabetes, and advised the use of Otterburn Lithia and Magnesia Water. The quantity of urine passed was greatly in excess of the natural secretion. and I lost forty pounds of fiesh in a few months. The use of the Otterburn Water corrected this excessive flow entirely in six weeks, and I am again a well man. I tried many medicines without avail, and I attribute my cure of this troublesome and dangerous disease entirely to the use of the Otterburn Water.

R. N. BLANTON.

PERSONS OFTEN ASK "WILL IT KERP!" AMELIA COUNTY, Va., Feb. 24, 1888. I hereby certily that two years ago I obtained some of the Water of the Otterburn Lithia and Magnesia Spring for my wife in a demijohn, and recently, whilst moving to snother home, I found that some of the Water had been left in the demijohn. I poured it out and drank some of it, and found it to be as pure and nice as when first taken from the Spring.

G. E. CRADDOCK.

IT CURES RHEUMATIC GOUT. E. E. JEFFERSON. of Johnston, South Carolina, writes as fo lows of it:

A lady here has been entirely relieved of a severe attack of Rheumatic Gout. * * She found such immediate relief she did not take any modicine or any other remedy at all, and while on the sixth bottle stated that she had been entirely relieved and needed no more Water; her general health also being greatly improved.

E. E. JEFFERSON.

MANNBORO, VA., March 17 1888. When I commenced the use of the Otterburn Lithia and Magnesia Water, on the 28th of January last, I had no faith in any mineral water. I had been suffering for over three years with a disease that was proncunced by a prominent physician of Richmond to be an affection of the Kidneys, after making a scientific test.

I had only used the Water one week when I was entirely relieved of pain, which before had been constant and at times acute, and I have gained nineteen pounds in flesh, with a restoration of strength and energy. I gave the Water a fair test, using no other water and taking no needicine.

H. C. GREGORY.

RICHMOND, Va., April 3, 1887.

I have been suffering for years with a complication of Liver and Ridney trouble, suffering great pain in the region of the kidneys; and having my attention called to the Otterburn Lithia and Magnesia Water. I commenced to use it, and never experienced such relief from anything The very first half-gallon increased the flow of urine and cleared it up. My appetite has been restored, ann I feel that I cannot commend the Water too highly.

R. F. WALKER.

AMELIA C. H., VA., December 15, 1886.

I have been a Dyspeptio for the past fifteen years, and lately have suffered with Derangement of my Urinary Organs, evidenced by great difficulty in voiding the urine. About six months ago I commenced the use of the Otterburn Lithia and Magnesia Syrings Water, and since that time there has been marked and gradual improvement in my entire condition and state of health. My digestion is better than it has been for five or six years, and the urinary trouble is entirely relieved, and has been for the past two months.
