

COMES OUT FOR CLEVELAND

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 11.—There was a stir in the political circles here today when it became known that Bishop John M. Brown, known to the African Methodist Episcopal church, a resident of Washington, had announced his adherence to the Democratic party and advised all his church to do the same.

Bishop Brown has been a strong factor in the Republican party's work in Tennessee heretofore. He had been changed his politics because of the settled conviction that his race has nothing to hope from the Republican party. In conversation to-day he said he did not believe it was to the interest of the negro to ally himself solidly to any political party. Such a course destroyed his independence. He would rather be a neutral party who would have no respect for the negro or the negro's wishes. The negro must begin to vote for that party which has the most to expect.

Bishop Brown has written an open letter to the members of his church, in which he discusses the question of which candidate the negro should support. He says: "The negro has more experience than I, he has more of it all right if he will stand," meaning the negro should vote for the Republican party. "I have voted and some of our people have died for its progress. But now the question is being asked by a large number of us, how are we being benefited by our adherence to it? The choice is put to us by the fact that it is made to vanish before one comfort comes to us."

Our men are sometimes nominated for office, their names sent to the Senate, but before the Senate has time to act the name is withdrawn. This contrasts with Mr. Cleveland's course in nominating Mr. Matthews for the office of recorder in Washington and his insistence on the nomination until he was shown that the Republican Senate would not confirm him. Of Mr. Cleveland he says: "Not long ago he spoke most kindly of our people and urged kind treatment toward colored citizens. I was told by a gentleman in New York—at one time Chief of the Indian Bureau, a man of high position, a Democrat, a Southerner by birth and education and an ex-slaveholder—that he had been assured by Mr. Cleveland that if elected President he would prove himself as true to the interests of colored men as any man who might be elected. The question comes to us, what is our duty in casting our vote for him? For Mr. Cleveland or for the person who has no pro-nounced opinion for the colored man only on election day? It is not so equal equality we ask for, but we do ask that we be treated fairly."

I now appeal to you, dear brethren, to think before you act, and do not act so as to anger us in other and more severe difficulties. If you cannot consistently vote for Mr. Cleveland, then stay away from the voting precinct. The time has come for us to act, and act decidedly.

JOHN M. BROWN. Bishop Brown says he has talked with many intelligent negroes, and finds much feeling in the matter, all taking his view.

COLORED VOTERS FOR CLEVELAND. Ex-Congress General Astwood Tells Why He Will Vote for Harrison. New York World. Henry C. Astwood, an active Republican all his life, for eight years Consul General to San Domingo, and one of the best known and most prominent colored men in the country, has come to New York to stump the State for Cleveland. He is a forcible and eloquent speaker and gives many excellent reasons why he has deserted the Republican party and joined issues with the Democrats.

"I was born and educated in the West Indies," he said yesterday, "and never was a slave. I came to this country after the war and settled in Louisiana, where I taught school. In 1876 Mr. Leonard, of Lake Providence, undertook to run for Congress, and we had the Force bill in vogue then.

On the face of the returns the Democrats carried the district, but I suggested to the Republican a plan by which Ochsuta might be counted out. This was adopted and the parishes were counted for Hayes. I begged the committee then to do something for my race. They informed me that the Government had decided to withdraw the troops from the South, and advised that the colored people make friends with the whites and get along as peaceably as possible. Since then I have continued to think that the best thing the black man could possibly do was to make friends with the white folk.

"Cleveland came in and we had fewer conflicts or harassments. It was the best Administration for the colored race we have ever known. Harrison got into his head an ambition for re-election, and he began to placate the negro voters by giving them offices and making them delegates to the National Convention. I refused to have anything to do with his machine schemes, and favored the nomination of Blaine.

"I firmly believe that Cleveland will be elected, and I look upon his election as the salvation of the colored race. Looking at it from a commercial and business standpoint, I think Mr. Cleveland's views on the tariff best for this country. The Force bill is the most dangerous thing that can be put in this country."

"If Cleveland is elected his election will go further towards solving the difficult problems we have to contend with in the South. My colored friends are discussing this matter and I feel certain that Democrats will this year get from the colored race a vote that will surprise and dismay the Republican party."

STOOD BY THE GUNS.

DESPERATE FIGHT OF THE ELEVENTH OHIO BATTERY AT IUKA. Stationed in a Front Post It Repelled Several Charges and Subsequently Only Killed the Confederates Were Nearly All Killed or Wounded and the Cause Empty.

IT WILL BE remembered when you read of the fight at Iuka, Miss., Sept. 19, 1862, when you read of the death of General Sherman's army, that the Eleventh Ohio Battery, commanded by Major J. H. Caldwell, was the only battery that stood by the guns of the Federal army at Iuka, Miss., Sept. 19, 1862.

The Eleventh Ohio Battery, composed of men from the West Virginia and Maryland regiments, was the only battery that stood by the guns of the Federal army at Iuka, Miss., Sept. 19, 1862.

At the close of the day Sanborn's battery was marching along a high road leading to the right and left oblique and along the whole front. Regiments of infantry were placed on each flank of the battery and in rear of it as it went the line of battle was perfect.

The question comes to us, what is our duty in casting our vote for him? For Mr. Cleveland or for the person who has no pro-nounced opinion for the colored man only on election day? It is not so equal equality we ask for, but we do ask that we be treated fairly.

EX-PRESIDENT CLEVELAND.

He Will Not Attend the World's Fair. President in Chicago this week. By Telegram to the Morning Star.

CHICAGO, October 17.—Grover Cleveland, Mrs. Cleveland and baby Ruth will not come to Chicago after all. In a letter received to-day by Secretary Culp of the Committee on Ceremonies, Mr. Cleveland declined the invitation which the Exposition officials sent him, to take part in the various festivities of the week. He had been expected to participate in all the official and social events, and his coming was awaited by thousands of friends. Mr. Cleveland's refusal to come to Chicago at this time was not at all the result of political business engagements. He is not coming simply because he does not wish to gain any political advantage over an opponent who is detained by so sad a circumstance as that which keeps President Harrison from attending the national exercises. "I may be over sensitive and even morbid on the subject," reads the letter, "but I cannot allow myself to take political advantage of the opportunity afforded in the sickness that keeps President Harrison away from Chicago."

AN ABORTION CASE. Col. Morrow, convicted at Columbia, S. C., by a Federal Court. By Telegram to the Morning Star.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 19.—Judge Wallace to-day refused a motion for a new trial of Col. Morrow, the horse-trainer, recently convicted of abortion. In doing so he said he believed Morrow guilty and the verdict just one. Bail was fixed at $3,000, and it is generally believed Morrow will give this bail and leave the country.

A VIRGINIA SENSATION. The Republican Nominee for Congress in the Second Congressional District. By Telegram to the Morning Star.

NORFOLK, Va., October 17.—A tremendous sensation was created in the Second Congressional district of Virginia this evening, by the announcement that George E. Bowden, who had served the district for two terms in Congress, and who had been regularly nominated by the Republican party convention, had withdrawn from the contest. The action of Bowden was the result of an arduous campaign by the National Republican Congressional Committee through the efforts of Mahone. The regular responsible Re-electing of the district respecting this interference is an unusual case for the committee, and it is believed that no satisfactory nomination can be made, and that the election of the Democratic candidate, D. Gardner Tyler, is therefore assured.

THE BORDEN TRAGEDY. A Young Man Arrested in Richmond. His Statement. RICHMOND, Va., October 17.—A young man giving the name of John Wood, who came here about two weeks ago and has been vending pop-corn on the exposition grounds, has been arrested on suspicion of having been implicated in the Borden murder case.

THE HORNET TRAPGAP. The feathers of the crest, the chin and the back of the neck are black; the upper part of the breast, the neck and shoulders are light cinnamon, with a dash of carmine and purple, variegated by the white and black of the feathers; the wings and part of the back are rich amber, mottled with brown and also decorated with white spots. The throat is a rich cinnamon. The feet are black and the claws are strong legs and round wings it is thought that they do not fly very much, but depend more on their swiftness of foot than on any power of flight they may possess.

THE PEOPLE'S PARTY. In Tennessee Have Thrown Off Disgrace and Acknowledge Themselves Black Republicans. By Telegram to the Morning Star.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 17.—J. F. McDowell, one of the electors for the State at large of the People's party, in joint discussion with Congressman Engloe, at Paris, yesterday openly admitted that the Republican leaders in Tennessee are, he repeats, in constant conference with the Democrats in some way to ally themselves with the white party, and he made a combine and agreement by which, in county and Congressional districts where the Republicans have a majority, the People's party candidates shall not run, and where the Democratic party has a majority the Republican candidates will not run, but the People's party will run. He said this in reply to a question as to why Congressmen Taylor and Houk, in East Tennessee, had People's party opposition, by all Democratic candidates for Congress had.

FLORIDA ALLIANCE.

Annual State Grand Council-A Very Small Attendance-A Dislike Against the Re-Election of President Baskins. By Telegram to the Morning Star.

PENSACOLA, Fla., October 19.—The annual State Grand Council of the Florida Alliance is in session here. Only thirteen counties out of forty-five are represented. There is a bitter contest against the re-election of A. P. Baskins, President. Baskins was defeated at Third party candidate for Governor two weeks ago. As the small number present are largely Third party men they will most likely re-elect Baskins, which the minority say will ruin the Alliance in Florida.

COLORED VOTERS FOR CLEVELAND. Ex-Congress General Astwood Tells Why He Will Vote for Harrison. New York World. Henry C. Astwood, an active Republican all his life, for eight years Consul General to San Domingo, and one of the best known and most prominent colored men in the country, has come to New York to stump the State for Cleveland.

"I was born and educated in the West Indies," he said yesterday, "and never was a slave. I came to this country after the war and settled in Louisiana, where I taught school. In 1876 Mr. Leonard, of Lake Providence, undertook to run for Congress, and we had the Force bill in vogue then.

On the face of the returns the Democrats carried the district, but I suggested to the Republican a plan by which Ochsuta might be counted out. This was adopted and the parishes were counted for Hayes. I begged the committee then to do something for my race. They informed me that the Government had decided to withdraw the troops from the South, and advised that the colored people make friends with the whites and get along as peaceably as possible.

"Cleveland came in and we had fewer conflicts or harassments. It was the best Administration for the colored race we have ever known. Harrison got into his head an ambition for re-election, and he began to placate the negro voters by giving them offices and making them delegates to the National Convention. I refused to have anything to do with his machine schemes, and favored the nomination of Blaine.

"I firmly believe that Cleveland will be elected, and I look upon his election as the salvation of the colored race. Looking at it from a commercial and business standpoint, I think Mr. Cleveland's views on the tariff best for this country. The Force bill is the most dangerous thing that can be put in this country."

"If Cleveland is elected his election will go further towards solving the difficult problems we have to contend with in the South. My colored friends are discussing this matter and I feel certain that Democrats will this year get from the colored race a vote that will surprise and dismay the Republican party."

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—The decline in the price of wheat to the lowest point yet reached on the crop, and lower than known for many years, was partly the result to-day of the World's Fair dedication.
