

DEMOCRATIC DISSENSIONS IN NEW YORK.

The New York Democratic State convention will meet at Albany next Monday, and from now till then political affairs in that State will be watched with interest keener than ever.

We are prepared, however, for a protest from a large proportion of New York city Democrats against the action of leader McCarren, of Brooklyn, in carrying out his plan for the Kings county delegates to go up to Albany instructed for Judge Parker.

The cantankerous Scott, the Republican Congressman from Kansas, repeated his slander against ex-President Cleveland in the House debates on Tuesday, and one Congressman Bartholdi, of Missouri, disturbed the repose of Thomas Jefferson by declaring that he had "honored a negro with a formal invitation to dinner at his family table."

In view of the dissensions in New York, which appear to hurt the chances of Judge Parker as the Democratic nominee for President, it is refreshing to note that the fight between the State Republican bosses and local factional quarrels in that party are very bitter.

The action of the Kings county caucus makes the endorsement of Judge Parker inevitable next Monday or Tuesday at Albany, but if the fight by Tammany against Judge Parker's endorsement is bitter enough to endanger his carrying Kings and Queens counties next November, the St. Louis convention may be called upon to reject New York's selection.

Previous to the McCarren caucus on Tuesday night Senator McCarren had announced himself in favor of the old Democratic plan of sending up an uninstructed delegation.

Senator McCarren has changed his mind in respect to the instruction of the local delegates to the Democratic State Convention.

Another, and upon the whole better, explanation is furnished from Albany, in the form of a dispatch to the effect that the Senator is selling under orders from ex-Senator Hill, who is managing the Parker forces throughout the State.

Aggregation Proceeded After Trial Before Mayor Springer Yesterday at Noon. One Member Disappeared and Policemen Suspended.

NEWBERN, N. C., April 13.—Clark's Female Minstrels played to a good-sized house here to-night, but received no applause.

The story of the arrest of Clark's minstrels here as they were about to leave for Newbern and the subsequent arrangement of their bond Tuesday afternoon, provided they remain aboard their car under the strict surveillance of detailed officers of the police department until they could appear before the Mayor for preliminary trial at noon the day following, was fully told in these columns yesterday morning with a reference to the sensation the incident had caused.

In the New York Republican State convention on Tuesday Roosevelt was endorsed, the platform approved his Panama canal policy, the principle of the tariff was upheld, legislation for the development of American shipping was favored, and the freedom of the ballot without discrimination as to race was demanded.

In New York city early Sunday morning a dozen police reserves raided a cooking main and captured 36 sports, who had taken possession of the barn of Detective Pinkerton for the purpose of drinking wine and having a cook fight.
