Not, however, any of those quack nostrums that pretend to cure consumption, liver affections, or rheumatism, by one remedy, but such combinations as are adapted to the nature and character of the Encourage the old North State.

If proving invaluable by experience, a remedy is to be confided in, here is one that will not fail to materially benefit or cure any case of indigestion or dyspepsia.

The Rev. James Perryman, a Baptist clergyman, who is extensively known in Georgia, states thus:

Talbot county, June 1848. Dr. Little—Dear Sir: Having been so much benefited by your medicines, I will cheerfully state the case. For years past I have been bad-LARGE assortment of every description, ly dyspeptic, such as tightness and oppression after meals, acidity of the stemach, debility, embracing Medium, Deni, and Cap Records, Ledgers, Journals and Day Books; Haif want of digestion, &c. It was about under these circumstances, I began using your Antacid Vegetable Pills and Tonic Bitters; very soon I found much relief, with quite an improvement of health. The medicines I continued with the greatest advantage, particularly the Antacid. finding it always to give quick relief, and to promote digestion. I had not taken them long, before I could use any kind of food I chose with impunity, even cabbage, and other things here-tofore inadmissible. For many months past (since taking the medicine) I have enjoyed good health, which has not been the case for years before. Those of my friends and acquaintances similarly afflicted, I would advise to try these Dyspeptic medicines. Yours, truly,

This system is rapidly growing into favor, all over the civilized world. It is one by which a family, for a small sum annually, may be provided for, after the death of its head, on whose exertions they may have been dependent for a support. It is a good investment of money, even if one should live long after taking out a Life Policy. Explanatory pamphlets, and the necessary Blanks, furnished on application. Fayetteville, June 1850. E.
