This institution offers to the Student every facility for the acquisition of a thorough medical education.
Through the liberality of the Legislature, at its last session, in appropriating the sum of Thirty Thousand Dollars in aid of the College, these facilities will be greatly extended. A new flospital is now in course of erection, in immediate proximity to the College, which tions for the Lectures in every department.

Ample facilities will be afforded for the prosecution of Practical Anatomy.

Instead of the "Warren Prize," of One Hundred Dollars, heretofore offered to the graduating class, Two Prizes, of Fifty dollars each, are now offered—one for the best Essay on any surgical subject, and the other for the best Essay on any subject pertaining to the Theory or Practice of Medicine.

A New Study for Girls .- Archbishop Hughes W. Horne announce him as a candidate for the office of Major of the 33d Regidays since to the young ladies of the Mount Saint Vincent Academy, a Catholic school for girls in New York. After complimenting the young girls as angels, in a style rather exuberant for a man who, ex-officio, has no right to know much about the angels of this world, the good Bishop said he intended before another year to arrange with the sisters teaching the school for the introduction of a new branch of study into the academy; he was going to have the young ladies taught the science of cuisine. He said every young lady though she be a queen's daughter, ought to know the art of housekeeping; even if she does not need to practice it she should understand it, for it may By that time those having Pictures at the Gallery will happen some day that her cook will dismiss her, please call and pay for them and take them away, and and what a predicament she would be in then. oblige, C. Childhood's Prayer.—Very singular and very pleasing to me is the remembrance of that simple piety of childhood, of that prayer which was said so punctually, night and morning, kneeling by the bedside. What did I think of, guiltless then of metaphysics, what image did I bring before my mind as I repeated my learned petition with such scrupulous fidelity? Did I see some venerable form bending down to listen? Did He cease to look and listen when I had said it all? Half prayer, half lesson, how difficult it is now to summon it back again? But this I know, that the 125 " Sperm, Adamantine & Tallow Candles; bedside where I knelt to this morning and evening devotion became sacred to me as an altar. I smile as I recall the innocent superstition that grew up in me, that the prayer must be said kneeling just there. If some cold winter's night I had crept into bed, thinking to repeat the petition from the warm nest itself, it would not do! it was felt in this court of conscience to be "an insufficient performance;" there was no sleep to be had till I had risen, and bed-gowned as I was, knelt at the accustomed place, and said it all over again from the beginning to the end. To this day I never see the little clean white bed in which a child is to sleep but I see also the figure of a child kneeling in prayer at its side. And I, for the moment, am that child. No high altar in the most sumptuous church in Christendom could prompt my knee to bend like that snow-white Cotton, Manilla and Jute Rope, (all kinds and coverlet, tucked for a child's slumber.
