

THE NORTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE.

(Vol. 6.) Saturday, September 24, 1791. (No. 298.)

UNITED STATES of AMERICA.
NORTH-CAROLINA DISTRICT.

WHEREAS Wm. H. Hill, Esq; Attorney of the United States, in and for the district of North-Carolina, this 22d day of September, in the year of American independence, the XVIth, exhibited his libel before the Hon. John Sitgreaves, Judge of the court of the United States, in the North-Carolina district, against two puncheons, containing two hundred and fifty gallons of rum, and the rum contained therein, seized by the deputy Collector of the port of Edenton, within said district, for having been found within the said port landed, and not having been duly entered in the proper office, and inspected according to law; no duties having been paid thereon, according to the statutes of the Congress of the United States; and the said Attorney praying in his said libel, that the Judge aforesaid, should appoint a time and place for holding a court when and where he should condemn the same, and decree thereon according to law. This is therefore to notice all persons whom the same may concern, that the Hon. John Sitgreaves, Esq; Judge of the district court of the United States, for the district of North-Carolina, has directed a court to be held at Newbern, on Saturday the eighth day of October next; when the consideration of the libel exhibited as aforesaid will be had, and all persons having claim to the articles libelled, or concerned therein, are hereby cited and admonished to appear on the 8th day of October aforesaid, at the court aforesaid, and shew cause, if any they have, why the prayer of the libellant may not be granted, and the articles condemned. Witness, Abner Neale; Clerk of the said court, at Newbern, the 22d day of September, 1791.

EXPLANATION.

The Lottery consists of 7000 tickets, of which are drawn in the first class 1523 prizes, in the second class, 2573 do.

Consequently only 4096 prizes. 2904 blanks makes the above 7000 tickets. Which calculation and regulation, is to the greatest advantage of every adventurer in the Lottery, as its blanks are very few; and every drawer of a low prize receives a new ticket, by which he gains the advantage to obtain a new chance for a higher prize with his first $1. paid for his ticket. The whole regulation and the obtained grant for this Lottery, is to be seen in all the towns of this state; where also tickets may be had by different persons.

The Lottery will commence drawing at Newbern, where the General Assembly sits, in December next. The Treasurer to the Lottery, has given sufficient security to his Excellency the Governor, for his faithful performance.

Five Pounds Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber on the 17th of August last, a likely young negro man named JAMES, about 21 years of age, five feet 7, or 8 inches high, of a yellowish complexion, by trade a blacksmith; most used to making axes, he stoops forward in his knees and body as if he had a burthen on his back—his back is marked with the whip, he has a scar on one of his elbows occasioned by a burn; has small legs and very large feet—has a bold look, speaks good English and can tell a smooth tale—born on Trent river.—He had on and took with him the following clothes, viz. one blue great coat dyed in the cloth and turned whitish where it is worn, middling fine cloth, also a tight bodied coat, with holes at the elbows and under the arms, and a rent in one shoulder; also a sky blue homespun do. and a jacket of nearly the same—also a homespun white linen jacket, a pair of corduroy, and a pair of buckskin breeches, new last fall, but worn in the crotch, two pair of tow trowsers, two shirts and a fine new white shirt (6s. linen) stock and stock buckle, a pair of old shoes and a pair of sky coloured stockings—a new wool hat with a purple ribbon round it and an old ragoon one.

Whoever will take up said negro and return him to me, or secure him in any gaol so that I get him again, shall have the above reward and all reasonable charges paid by.

AARON LAMBERT.

N. B. All masters of vessels and others are forwarned of harbouring, or carrying him off at their peril.
Jones County, September 20.

THE subscriber has on hand a few hoghheads of choice West-India RUM, which he will dispose of by the barrel, or retail, for ready money only.

WILLIAM HAWLEY.

Sept. 24.

RAN away from the subscriber, a negro fellow named LUKE; he is about twenty-six years old, nearly six feet high, spare made. He had on when he went away a homespun shirt and trowsers, and coarse green cloth jacket. He is country born, and had once been let free, but the manumission being illegal, he was sold anew. It is supposed he will endeavour to pass for a freeman and go towards Beaufort.

A reward of five pounds will be paid to any person who will secure said fellow so that I get him again, or on his being delivered to me on Trent river, near Newbern.
