

THE NORTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE.

(Vol. 6.) Saturday, November 26, 1791. (No. 307.)

RAN away from the subscriber, the 2d ult. a negro woman named Patty - she is about thirty years of age, of a yellow complexion and incline to be fat. - Said wench is well known almost every where in Newbern, where it is presumed she is now lurking. A reward of three pounds will be paid to any person that will secure said wench in goal, or deliver her to the subscriber, at his plantation, one mile above Mr. Well's ferry.

Masters of vessels and others are warned harboring or carrying on board any slave out of the state, under the penalty imposed by law.

W. J. STANTIN.

Craven, November 19.

THE subscriber requests that no goods be delivered to any person, on his account, without a written order from him.

DE ST. LUCER.

November 19.

THE partnership of Thompkins & Veillard being dissolved, by the death of Mr. Veillard - all persons indebted to that concern, either in Newbern or Swanborough, are requested to settle their accounts immediately, as they will otherwise be lodged in the hands of an attorney.

THE surviving partner intending to return to Europe in the course of next spring, will sell on the very lowest prices, for immediate payment the goods he has now on hand, which with a supply he is shortly expecting, will form an elegant assortment of GOODS, suitable to the approaching season. He has on hand a quantity of fine hats and cardinals, which he will sell reasonably low.

PIERRE THOMEGUSA.

November 19.

THE subscriber will sell, for cash only, a part of the lot No. 14, lying from thirty to sixty feet front on Craven-street, and running back seventy five feet. - Also from thirty to sixty feet front of the lot No. 13, adjoining Richard Ellis, Esq; and running back one hundred feet. The residue of the above two lots will be letted for a term of years: likewise such part of the front of the lot No. 14 as remains at present unleased. - Any person intending to purchase or rent the above property, may know the terms by applying to

RICHARD D. SPAIGHT.

November 12.

HENRION & STANTIN

HENRION & STANTIN, Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Foreign and Domestic Goods, have lately received an assortment of DRY GOODS, suitable to the approaching season.

They request that persons indebted to them, should settle their accounts, as they are desirous of their affairs requiring their attention, which they were restrained from doing, while circumstances did not admit of it absolutely necessary.

FRESH GOODS.

Just imported, and lying for sale at ISAAC TAYLOR'S SHARP STORE, in WILMINGTON, between Mr. JOHN POLYMER and the City.

A GENERAL Assortment of DRY GOODS, such as Woolens, Cottons, Linens, Silks, Ribbons, &c. also Metals, Pewter, Glass, &c. and a variety of Country Produce, cheap for the Country.

November 4.

TO be rented on the premises the first day of December next, for five years, that well known plantation, situate on Tran-River, in Jones county, the property of James Blackshear, deceased, on said plantation is a new dwelling house with a brick chimney, and other necessary out houses. At the same time and place will be sold, between forty and fifty head of cattle, among which are several large steers and many sows with young calves in high order suitable for milk cows in the winter season.

Also a large flock of hogs of every kind - some sheep and household furniture, &c. &c. Twelve months credit will be given, the purchasers giving notes with approved security to EDWARD BLACKSHEAR, Esq.

The sale to continue from day to day till the business is completed.

November 12.

JUST PUBLISHED

And for sale at the Printing-Office:

THE NORTH-CAROLINA

ALPHABETICAL

For the Year

A 7 9 2.
(By the dozen or single ones.)
Nov. 6.

Territory of the United States of America, South of the River Ohio, Washington District, August Term 1791.

John Williams, Esq; of Granville county, James Hogg, of Orange county, Charlesman, Thomas Hart of - county, in the State of Maryland, merchant, and David Hart of Caswell county, gentleman, complainants.

The heirs and devisees of Richard Henderson, late of Craven county, deceased, of - county, in Virginia, gentleman, deceased, of William Tompkins, late of Orange county, merchant, deceased, of John Luttrell, of Chatham county, gentleman, deceased, and Leonard the heirs.

Some of the said heirs and devisees having failed to enter their appearance according to the rules of this court, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court, that they reside without the limits of this territory: On the motion of the said complainants by their attorneys, it is ordered that unless the said heirs and devisees shall appear here on the first day of - as the bill of the complainants, that then it shall be taken for confessed. And it is ordered that a copy of this order be forthwith inserted in the Cape Fear, Kentucky and Knoxville gazettes, and the Newspaper regularly published in Hargettstown, for three weeks successively, and at the door of the Court House in the town of Jonesborough.

Attest,
ANDREW RUSSELL, C. J.

LETT at the Printing-Office for sale, a book entitled A General Treatise of the Dominion of the Sea and a Complete Body of the Sea Laws.

THE subscriber has on hand a parcel of good West-India rum, sugar, coffee and molasses, &c. which he will sell as low as he can afford them.

NATHAN SMITH.

Nov. 12.

A STORE ROOM and CELLAR No. 24 b. eighteen, to be let, for terms apply to

Nov. 19. ROBERT HENRY.

The distribution of this Gazette having lately been entrusted to a new printer, it is possible that he may have omitted some of our customers: if that is the case, it is requisite that notice be sent to the Office, so that the mistake may be rectified.