The above articles will be sold on the most reasonable terms, either wholesale or retail. As the above store will be constantly supplied with the best Medicines, Henry Tooley hopes to gain the attention of the public, especially the Gentlemen of the Faculty; for they may be assured that they shall be supplied as cheap as can be had in this state.
June 27.

RAN-AWAY from the ferry, living on Tar river, Pitt county, a negro man by the name of PRINCE, about 21 years old, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, he's a black Negro, spare made, Guinea born, speaks the English tongue, so that he may be understood very well; he has been branded with W. G. on both cheeks, but part of some of the letters scarcely can be seen. Any person that will take up the said negro, and put him in any gaol in this state, so that I get him, or will fetch him to me, shall have Ten Dollars Reward. As he has attempted to get aboard of a vessel I am induced to forwarn all Masters of Vessels from carrying him out of the state, or any other person from employing him, under the penalty of the law.

WILLIAM GRIMES:
Pitt County, Tar River, }
June 24, 1795. }
N. B. He generally goes about in the day time, and depends upon his ingenuity to frame an artful tale, when suspected and questioned.

THE subscriber informs his friends and the public in general, that he has opened a House of Entertainment on Broad street, in the town of Newbern between the Court-House and Jail, for all genteel and well disposed people, who may choose to favor him with their custom:

He would also take a few genteel boarders on the most reasonable terms, and the best encouragement will be given for a Journeyman Taylor, that understands the business, by applying to their humble servant,
THOMAS CURTIS.
June 27.

THE Clerks of the several county courts within this district, on application at my office, will receive the Acts of the last General Assembly for their respective counties.
SILAS COOKE.
June 27.

General Post-Office,
Philadelphia, May 1, 1795.
WHEREAS at various times from the 1st day of June, 1792, to the 10th day of May, 1794, sundry letters transmitted by the public mails were fraudulently opened, and bank notes of several denominations taken out: And whereas a part of the notes so taken have been since recovered and secured by the Post-master General. In order therefore, that the owners of those which shall be identified may have them again, and that an equitable distribution may be made of the remainder, and of the cash found with them.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,
That all persons having suffered any loss by the robbing of the mails as aforesaid during the period above mentioned, will receive their bank notes which shall be identified as aforesaid, by application at the General Post Office on or before the 31st day of August next; and that the residue of the notes and cash recovered as aforesaid will then be divided among the claimants in proportion to their losses, which are to be ascertained by reasonable proofs, which on or before that day shall be produced to the General Post Office.
CHAS. BURRALL,
Asst. Post-m'r. Genl.

P. S. Claimants are desired forthwith to exhibit their claims and proofs, that if these should appear insufficient, information thereof may be given to the claimants in time to furnish such others as may be attainable.

B L A N K S
OF all kinds for sale at the Printing Office.

WILLIAM P. HOWELL,
HARNESS MAKER, PADDLER, AND SHOE-MAKER.

HAS lately opened a shop, at the house of HENRY PURSE's, where he intends carrying on the above businesses, with neatness and dispatch, and on the very lowest terms.

Any person that may employ him, will he flatters himself, receive ample satisfaction.
June 13.

TAKEN up, near the subscriber's ferry; about ten miles above Newbern, a petty-auger built boat, about twenty-five feet long, five feet wide, a cypress bottom with two masts, cable, anchors, and foremast: Whoever owns her is desired to come, prove his property, pay the costs of this advertisement, and take her away.

JOHN S. WEST.
It is supposed she was brought there by runaway negroes.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
NORTH-CAROLINA DISTRICT,

WHEREAS Benjamin Woods, Esquire, Attorney for the United States, within the District aforesaid, has this 21st day of May, 1795, exhibited his Libel before the Honourable John S. West, Esquire, Judge of the District court for the District aforesaid, against 8 barrels of sugar and five barrels and 2 bags of coffee, for having been unladen from on board the vessel or sloop Lucinda within the port of Newbern, without a permit from the Collector thereof, contrary to the act of Congress in such case made and provided, and the said attorney praying in his said Libel, that the said Judge should appoint a time and place when and where he should condemn the same and decree thereon according to law. This is therefore to notify all persons whom the same may concern, that the Honourable John S. West, Judge as aforesaid, has directed a Court to be held at Newbern, on Thursday the 7th day of July next, when the consideration of the Libel exhibited as aforesaid will be had: And all persons having claims to the articles Libeled or concerned therein, are hereby cited and admonished, to appear on the 7th day of July aforesaid, at the Court aforesaid and shew cause (if any they have) wherefore the prayer of the Libellant may not be granted, and the articles condemned.

Witness, ABNER NEALE, Clerk of the said court, the 21st of May 1795.
Attest. ABNER NEALE, Clerk.
May 23. 30. June 6. 13. 20.

THE NOTED HORSE
HYDER ALI

IS now in high order, and will stand at the subscriber's stable, on Neuse river, 10 miles above Newbern, in order to cover mares, at eight dollars the season, if paid in the season; or ten, if paid the first of January next; five dollars the leap, and sixteen dollars to ensure. The season will begin the first of March, and end the 10th of August. In case of mares coming for the leap, it is expected the money will be sent with them, as otherwise the charge will be made for the whole season.

HYDER ALI is a beautiful dark bay, upwards of 15 hands high. He was got by Old Mark Anthony; his dam by the imported horse Bojazyet, his grandam by Crawford. Good pasturage for mares gratis, and the greatest care taken of them, but the subscriber will not be answerable for accidents or escapes of any kind.

JOHN S. WEST.
January 10.
N. B. Half a dollar to be paid to the Groom at the stable door.
