PARIS, April 10.

AFFLICTING news has been received Ifom the department of Cher. The ailemblages of Royalits which have been foamed there are become more numerous, and have already conmitted maxy acts of viohence. The town of Sancerre is faid to be alrealy in their hands, where they have deAtroyed all the Republican fymbols, and ho fted the White flar. It is a Monf. Bonthit. liers, an ex.conitituent, who is at the head of this infurection. Our government has ordered troops to march shither ; and is tak. ing the moit a aive mesfures to put a itop to this rebellion and to 1 cover the authors. If the Ami des Loix in $y$ be eirdited, the Directory thave perceived the folly of the treaty concluded with the Elector of Hano. ver, and has juit given orvers to invace his dorainions. We did not thon that the eno gagemants, contrated ander the tailh of reaties, could be confidered as foolifh. Wa are equally at a lofs to know wiether ihis po? icy which was doubtiefs invented by Cirries lacy which was is well catculated to fecure the at tachment of the Court of Berlia, under whole mediation that neutrality was agreed upoin.
It is acknowledged that the negociations with the Court of Turin ars broken off. We are aflured, that the Sardinain Miniter refufed to receive two Frenchmen, who were charged with propoitions for peace, beciufe it was known, beforehand, that terins were inadmiffible. There arc fome who afir be their conduct, in this inftance, to the in. ti:gues of the Englifh and Einigrants.
In oi der toavert the dingers which threaten him, Freron, has married the filter of Ceceral Bonapa te.

- Le Eckair of the $13^{\text {th }}$ fays, for fome days crowls have re-appeared in the Thuilieries, neas the Councii of Five Hundred. It is the dery of the infpectors of the Hall to prevent in good time the evil effects of thofe mobs. It is that piace which has always been the theatre of the crimes of the fictious, and the phace of the ce:ol:- l'ad fuccefively by dif. freme pattes to fupport their views, they now refame the :one of meaace and profription. They have there fipoken with culo giam of Robefpicrre-of the guillotine with lendernefs-of the maximum with tranfport -of the expulition of the newly admitted Chird with hope--of the Decemviral Codeof 1793 withenthufiafm- of the conft tution of 1795 wich contempt-of the Legillative Body with infolence, and of the Directory with indignation. They boaft of the 3 It May, and complaia of the re-adnuifion of the 73 deputies. The number of the feditious ha. ving inereafed, they begin to infult the de. paties coming out of the hall, who had not roted according to their wihhes. Paftoret, Eoiify d'Anglas, and many others, were outraged the day before yefterday. Among the principal reproaches againft Boilfy, was that of being a member of the celebrated cotimif. fion of cieven, and of having zealoufly approved boch of the connlitution of 1795 , and the gecesided pariotio ef 17 ig. L'Eclair of the $14^{\text {th }}$ of April fays, the terrcritts, who have for 2 long time been overawed in Paris, have within thele few days difplayed a boldnefs that calls for all the attention of the Legiflaturosiad government. They no longer conceal their pilan of again laying violent hands on the Repreientatives of the people, and again purging the two Councils, as was done on the 3 IIt of May.

They attempt to terrify them by theie mobs in the Thuilleries, difperfed in the public places, and flouting the eries of vengeance and death. The evil fymptoms manifilited laft year at th stime llew themielves. They appear to wifh, by their new rege, to celebrate the anniverfary of the 12 h $h$ germinal: they no longer conceal that dey im againt the Confitution and againt thi D rectorv.
Gegeral PICHEGRU having detintely declined the Embaly to Sweden, and being willing to enjoy the charms of repofe in the botön of his fanily at Aibois, the place of his nativity, the Government is to fend to Siochatm a timple Charge edAffiars, who is not kacwa in a Diplomatic character. He is otieced to depart in two days.
Ge.. MOREAU lets off tomorrow to ake the colnmand of the army of the Rhine.

L'Eciair contains the letter of the Spanifh Niniter, the Prince of Peace, announcing the reltoration of all the property of French fubjects in Spain, which had been fequeftered during the war
"The reports of approaching Peace," fays a Pariiian Journalitt, "are confiderably weakened;" and Tailien obferved, in the Council of Five Hundred, on the 14 th iuft. " that there was a party which wifhed to prevent the conclulion of a peace, becaule peace was necellary to reftore pienty and hap. pincfs to the Kepublic.'
