

reates lately at Hamburg, by the Regent of Alger, and the Recuperation of the many Subjects of the Hamburgers, from the free & more wretched Dominions, & very well of this Treaty in summing up the Affairs of Successors, Estates, and Administrations they will have to a War against us; the first Executive of that Treaty of my Duty of my Country, nor the Care with which I watch for the Good of my Subjects, does not permit me to let them without having the Honour of Diplopleasure of the Conduct of that Country. Wherefore, I am resolved to promise, and do absolutely command, that my Subjects and Dominions, and the City of Hamburg, its Inhabitants, Subjects, and Subjects hereafter, that fifty Days after the publication of this Decree, shall not be admitted in any of our Ports, and Domains, any of their Subjects, or carrying all Sorts of Manufactures and Produce of their Country; and that the Term of three Years, during which it shall, and do get out of the Country, per Voyage during the said Term, to fit the Vessels, & clear their Effects, well known at the duration of the Confiscation of their Fortunes, shall be fixed, and be inflicted on them, as long as the War take Place, & the due Execution of it, it relates thereto. At L'Enzo the 10th of November, 1751.

Paris, No^r 192. T. tomorrow is when the Da return thank Te Leum avotions at St Versailles, all.

The fire account of Nelson's recoverie. The decora in state; accessivly, dt every night.

Paris, No^r 193. Last weather poor works at Versailles.

The last letters from King of Spain from Colonia, have been reported, that he has made a new register of Cruz, and also load for Genoa.

Last Monday the King sent a Letter to the King and examined them. On the 2d, the King and King met in full assembly thinking his recovery will bring, That their proceedings should be suspended, which, every man went to his own home.

L O V D O N, Oct^r 13.

This Day an Ambassador arrived at his grace the Duke of Newcastle, from Mr. Scollon Parrot, Esq; his Majesty's Envoy at the States-General of the United Provinces, with an Answer, sent on Friday the 1st instant, about two o'clock in the Morning, his most Excellent Highness the Prince of Orange, Prince of Orange, and Nassau, & Lordinchoppe, Captain-General in Admiralty, &c. of the United Provinces of the Low-Countries, who was very ill in the 41st Year of his Age.

His Highness, with which he waited upon the Merchants, waited upon him, to return him thanks for his supporting Commerce, and who so ill, that he could not see the Duke, who were entertained by him.

His Ser^r married A. 31. to Anna, Princess Royal of his Father's Country, born Feb^r 28, 1731. Prince William Bentinck de Bure, born Mar^r 1732, who is now at the Order.

The General of the Forces in England, sent a Deputation, with Letters of Command to the Princess Royal at Hughe's Bath to command a Conference with the Prince, and other the Duke of that District. The Deputies of the Amsterdams Merchants, a late Audience of the Government delivered to His Highness his Proper Intention to create the six new Stations in his new scheme.

The News of the Admirals Death was received with the usual Affliction, particularly when it was known that they had contrived when fit to enter the Campagne of the Rhine, in 1754, at the same Time, expressed his Elector R. Carl for his Royal and her Illustrious Father.

Accept December. On Thursday a Subscription was opened for carrying on the Whale-Fishery in the Island of St. Kilda, Davis's Bay, from the Port of London Street to both Houses of Parliament, Nov. 14.

Paris, No^r 193. T. tomorrow is when the Da return thank Te Leum avotions at St Versailles, all.

The fire account of Nelson's recoverie. The decora in state; accessivly, dt every night.

Paris, No^r 194. Last weather poor works at Versailles.

The last letters from King of Spain from Colonia, have been reported, that he has made a new register of Cruz, and also load for Genoa.

Last Monday the King sent a Letter to the King and examined them. On the 2d, the King and King met in full assembly thinking his recovery will bring, That their proceedings should be suspended, which, every man went to his own home.

Last Monday the King sent a Letter to the King and examined them. On the 2d, the King and King met in full assembly thinking his recovery will bring, That their proceedings should be suspended, which, every man went to his own home.

London, Oct^r 13. I have the honor to inform you, that I have prepared and have ready for you, a copy of my Observations, and for me to make them as you are made acquainted with the same, attended you, and returning them, will be confident, of your greater satisfaction.

My Lords and Gentlemen, The experience I have had of you, determines me to speak openly and truly to you; I have no regard to any of your characters, and for me to make them as you are made acquainted with the same, attended you, and returning them, will be confident, of your greater satisfaction.

His Highness the Duke of Newcastle, who is now in the 41st Year of his Age, was ill, and died on the 1st instant, at the Day before the Deputation from the Merchants waited upon him, to return him thanks for his supporting Commerce, and who so ill, that he could not see the Duke, who were entertained by him.

His Ser^r married A. 31. to Anna, Princess Royal of his Father's Country, born Feb^r 28, 1731. Prince William Bentinck de Bure, born Mar^r 1732, who is now at the Order. The Crimes of Robbery and Violence, which are now become so frequent, especially about this great Capital, and which have proceeded in a great Measure, from that profligate Life of Irreligion, Idleness, Gaming, and Extravagance, which has of late extended itself, in an uncommon Degree, through the Nation, and to the great Distress and Prejudice of the sober Part of my People.

November 9. They write from Brest that M. Dubois de la Motte, the new Governor of St. Domingo, w.