

Wit

All Persons may be supplied at the Printing Office in Number...

Proclamation Money, per Quarter, B. JAMES DAVIS, and Book-Binding, is done reasonably...

HISTOR

A General Description of POLAND.

The Kingdom of Poland is situated between 46 and 57 degrees being bounded by the Baltic Sea, Livonia, N. by Russia, Tartary on the E. by Belarussia, Transylvania, and Hungary, on the S. by the Danube, and Brandenburg, and Silesia...

...who, by their constitution, to all their own design... every province... independent cities... Duke, and in 1526 by their Mediators...

...the Lutherans, Calvinists, and Anabaptists... they maintain a... on one side, and... They are said to be... of Poland, but if they had not been protected...

A General Description of Danzick, Capital City of Regal Prussia, and of the Kingdom of Poland.

Danzick is a town in the Kingdom of Poland, situated on the western shore of the Vistula, which a little below falls into the Baltic Sea. It is an excellent harbor, and has the best foreign trade of any port within the Baltic...

A Description of the City of NAPLES.

NAPLES City, E. 10 miles from the capital of the Kingdom of Naples, is a large plain, on the western shore of the Bay of Naples, and is a large plain, on the western shore of the Bay of Naples...