

...not unwrought: And duce of this rich shipping, they ha indeed merchant-felling the produ foreigners. The natives being of Spanish extraction, they follow the Spanish modes, and cloth themselves in black, which makes the silk manufacture the less. They have a numerous militia, the nobility and gentry holding their lands by military tenures; but these are little depended on, and seldom call'd out, the King usually maintaining 15,000 regular troops in time of peace, and can raise twice that number in time of war: They had no men of war late, but are beginning to build some; and the have a fleet of armed galleys. The revenue of the crown are computed to amount to one million sterl. per annum, which arise from a portion with the nobility and gentry for personal service almost a general which the commafion'd the im it seems fruit by taxes are the whose estate lie pretty numerous Spanish, or the King of S the throne by Spain, and Sa prince obtain'd force he must can obtain the wife and gent claims a power and raising wha ry; but ti d tives too high, erful a co The cle gift, wh is l. y or let s

...ize and pro road in foreign their own, or of the land pective estates to shall be living, ar un years, to pay the untill he shall attain pay the principal money, o ties for the time to living at the Deceale of the Father or shall afterwards Years, in either of the principal Sum of Four hundred Pounds of the Personal Estate, and be...
...two Servants Marianne Tricon and Rina commonly called Picard, each One hundred Pounds, and every other...
...at the Time of Deceale... shall have lived... Years... One Year...
...And, who... the Author of the... Books or Tracts...
...Remarks on the History of England, from the Minutes of Henry... In twelve four Letters...
...A Dissertation upon Parties. In nineteen Letters, to Colin Danvers, Esq;...
...The occasional Writer. Number 1, 2, 3...
...The Vision of Caroline...
...An Answer to the London-Journal of December 21, 1734... by John Trot...
...An Answer to the Defence of the Enquiry into the Reigens of...
...A final Answer to the Remarks on the Craftsman's Vindication...
...All which Books or Tracts have been printed and published, and I am also the Author of Four Letters on History, &c. Which have been privately printed and not published; but I have not assigned to any Person or Persons whatsoever the Copy, or the Liberty of Printing, or Reprinting, any of the said Books, or Tracts, or Letters. Now I do hereby, as in the Law I can give and assign to David Mallet of Putney in the County of Surrey, His Copy and Copies of all and each of the mentioned Books or Tracts or Letters, with Liberty of reprinting the same, in all the said...
...the said David Mallet, the Copy and... of all the said... Books, Paper, and...
...wh I have written or composed, or shall write or compose, and leave... of my Deceale. And I further...
...David Mallet, all my Books which are in the... of my Deceale, shall be in the Room called my Library.
...All the rest and Residue of my Personal Estate, whatsoever and wheresoever, I give to my said Executors, and hereby revoking all my former Wills, I declare... to be my last Will and Testament. In Witness whereof, I have hereunto set my Hand and seal the 22d of November, in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty One.
...Henry Saint John, Bolingbroke.

...cert... ad repeated... e-in the Seci... was taken b... oute, to n...
...ment of a new Alliance; nor could... Security after it had once... from Abroad, and resolved on... it was necessary to cut me off... on the least Reason to hope for a... Trial, after having been already... heard, by the two Houses of Par... and not have declined the strictest... I challenge the most inveterate... to produce any one Instance of... pudence, or the least... of the Administration in which... my Zeal for the Honour... 7 Royal Missions, and the... my Country, has any here... let slip a war or unguarded... the most favourable Inter... upon it. It is a Comfort... me in all Misfortunes... faithfully and dutifully... the hat most at Heart... from a bloody and expen... I have always been too... to sacrifice the Interest of... foreign Ally whatsoever... ne only, that I am now...
...at large from me short-
...Yours, &c

The Last Will and Testament of the late Rt. Hon. Henry St. John, or Bolingbroke,

Extracted from: Prerogative

I N THE NAME OF GOD, I adore to... Thank... d to... vidence... ear, ally... Last Will... an nt... John, in the Sign of Q... her Grace and favour Vi... ter more than... his... after the imm... I... s I have sustained by un... expecte... event... i... t... the Ne...
...I humbly... perpetually... whose Pro... This is the... y Saint... and by... s... ke, at... s... rscription, and... after the imm... I... s I have sustained by un... expecte... event... i... t... the Ne...
...I have sustained by un... expecte... event... i... t... the Ne...

...I humbly... perpetually... whose Pro... This is the... y Saint... and by... s... ke, at... s... rscription, and... after the imm... I... s I have sustained by un... expecte... event... i... t... the Ne...
...I have sustained by un... expecte... event... i... t... the Ne...
...I have sustained by un... expecte... event... i... t... the Ne...

L O N D O N NEWS

On Thursday Morning of our Anniversary, Richard Edward M'Cauley, Morgan, and Patrick (four Irishmen) who Robbery at the House... (as mentioned in our... he up to the Bar, and... What they had to say... death should not be pro... m P". When the same was... joyde, he threw into... immediately handed up... the following is a true Copy:
...Being unable to resist a verbal Interrogatory, which is now put to... terrible Interrogatory, which is now put to... hamoly beg Leave, this Meth... to throw myself at your Lordship's Feet, and imploring your Compassionate regard, towards an unhappy wretch, whose Want of Consideration, and due Reflection, together with the Miseries of extreme Poverty, have caused him to be far drawn aside by others, as to become consenting unto Thieves, and to be a Partaker with the Malefactor.

After I had been... ed into this iniquitous Combination, I was, by sort of Compulsion, detained in it; being continually watched by my suspicious Companions, lest I should escape from them, before the Prosecution... for which we now stand before the Judgment Seat.
But, O, M... let me represent to you, that even in the... of our Violence, when I saw Outrage... be done to Mr. Porter, fatal to him; I, with... decided for him, and with... of my Companions, not... any Injury to his Person. I appeal

...therefore Expenses Manner at last Wife lies... Diam Chetwyne Taylor of the two assured Hundred Guineas to them shall seem Legacy of... tute them... Diamond Ring I give to my Marquis...
...always intended, I content follows: My Debts, and the in a decent and private the Vault where my...
...I give to William Ford, Esq; and Joseph Esq; my... One Hundred...
...as the...
...of this my... The I wear upon my Finger, long approved Friend the and after his Deceale,

Signed, Sealed, Published, and Declared by the said Testator, as and for his Last Will and Testament, and in the Presence of...
...Proved at London, the 11th of May 1752, before the Worshipful Recorder of Laws and Sir...
...William Chetwynd and...
...The Adm... was granted...
...duly to...
...William...
...March 1752. Peter Henry

...I appeal...
...March 1752. Peter Henry