of a cold Evening (almost starved even in the fore part of the Night, and must have inevitably perished before Morning) and Strayed to the Subscriber's Kitchen, who wishes the proper Owner had them, but cannot send them any more into Confinement to starve and freeze to Death according to Law: For the Great Law-Giver Moses, had in Command, that we should do no Murder.

THIS Work will contain about Thirty Sheets, in large Octavo, and will be printed on an elegant Type, and fine AMERICAN Paper; and delivered to the Subscribers, well bound in Law Binding, at Two Dollars.

Proposals for this Book were some Time ago published, but the Revival of the Provincial Laws, which has been some Time on Hand, impeded the Publication of it. If these Proposals meet with the Countenance of the Public, it will very soon be ready to be laid before them.

Subscriptions are taken in at the Printing Office in Newbern.
