

A Warning!

The Raleigh Sentinel notices our remarks on the Virginia election thus:

The Radicals of New Hanover county seem to be getting alarmed at the prospect of a split in the ranks down there, and are trying to frighten the colored voters by telling them if they don't stick to their leaders their liberties are gone.

The leading organ of copperhead conservatism in this State then proceeds to ridicule any fears our colored voters may have of democratic success by instancing the Democrats of Virginia voting for colored candidates.

We do not take the Chinaman from choice, but from necessity. We are aware that important results must follow in the wake of the new laborer, but nothing can occur worse than the condition of affairs under which we now live.

Republicans of New Hanover and of the State of North Carolina have confidence in your intelligence, and we have this confidence renewed each time we gaze upon such men as the manly Galloway or the promising Mabson.

Muscle and Brain.

The old saying "this is the age of Brain and Muscle," finds ample proof in the progress made by our people in the knowledge of this fact and the fruits we see in the splendid Athletes who train over the country.

We have seen parents carefully nurture a child into early decline, and talk about "the Lord taking away," when it was only the shameless folly of the wretched insulters of death that was answerable for the decay and deity of their offspring.

The Southern section of our country is far behind the North and West in the matter of physical culture, and we hope that our suggestion of a practical use of College Hill will give us our first great school of muscle (and health) as well as brain culture.

Now, the students, who want something of the new ideas and sinews, treat their whole organization with the most delicate respect. They are temperate, chaste, industrious, active, cleanly, serene, simple.

The Harvard Club has found out that it is a palace, and has not only fallen to beautifying it, but has shown itself kingly in the discovery.

There may be better things to do with a free soul in a noble body than to row boats. But we are much obliged to the boat-race which developed the noble body for

What it Means.

The party mis-called democratic resolved in California:

That the Democracy of California now and always confide in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the white people of the country to administer and control their government, without the aid of either negroes or Chinese.

The organ of the sham republicans in Virginia likewise joins in the cry that "negroes" must be kept back, and the copperhead "conservative" republican journal of Mississippi adds its mite to feed the old flame of intolerance, ignorance and prejudice.

We do not take the Chinaman from choice, but from necessity. We are aware that important results must follow in the wake of the new laborer, but nothing can occur worse than the condition of affairs under which we now live.

It (the sham democracy) means then that all men of African descent shall be refused employment should they—the shams—succeed in obtaining enough coolies—bound out as laborers—to supply the places of freedmen on the farm.

Late news from Mississippi brings us the agreeable intelligence that the true Republicans of that State are not to be found napping or regardless of the depth and power of their adversary's policy and skill.

The Situation Political.

Late news from Mississippi brings us the agreeable intelligence that the true Republicans of that State are not to be found napping or regardless of the depth and power of their adversary's policy and skill.

A convention must have a constituency at home, by which its members are authorized. These individuals have no constituency and no authority. But on the contrary, they and their meeting are expressly repudiated and denounced by the press and masses of party throughout the State.

Among the lively, true blue Republican sheets is our cotemporary the "Greensboro Register." Thus doth the Register make its mark:

The Patriot of last week terms the Republicans "the true or ruin party." Don't be too fast neighbor. Who wears the cast off clothes of the secessionists and inherits the animus and name of the old Democracy?

We were greatly touched at the feeling manifested by our freed people on the subject of education at a recent Fourth of July meeting. The editor of this journal considered it his duty to follow the advice of our worthy superintendent of education, and dropping the style of self glorification adopted by orators generally; he touched lightly on the "hope of the country"—her educated children—and the deepest attention, and intelligent appreciation of the subject seemed to fill each listener who had left his toil and taken his wife and little ones to celebrate "the day of days."

The Journal has discovered a strange lack of morals in the "carpet-baggers." We would tell that organ and its supporters that a comparison will show among this misnamed class of our fellow-citizens superior in intellect, religion and manly spirit to any similar body of their political opponents even as the editor of the Journal is superior to the least among his Asiatic ancestors.

Hence the "patriotism" for you! The La-Grange (Democratic) Register declares "fifteen republicans" have disappeared from the face of the American continent, and our own will soon follow. The great American Republic is only equal to a petty South American State!

The Power of Music.

One of the first pleasant pictures we can recollect was Mount's celebrated "Power of Music" being a representation of a Long Island barn on an autumn day where several farm hands are collected to hear fiddling by one whose earnest face betokens love of his art and total absorption in the tragic air of "Ole Zip Coon," or the melodious strains of the "Arkansas Traveler."

The establishment of new schools goes bravely on, but we suffer for good teachers. Should any of our cotemporaries wish to advance the cause of education, let them give the world of young school masters—who are still abroad—out of North Carolina—notice of the fact that the Post will post them as to chances for teaching the "young ideas."

It is the will and pleasure of the editor of the Journal to frequently refer to lack of every "good and perfect gift" on the part of its political opponents and especially to gloat over assumed superiority that has no foundation in fact.

THE Missouri Democratic papers have "suffered a sea change" surely when advocating impartial suffrage and woman's right to vote.

HELMHOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is used by persons from the ages of 15 to 25, and from 35 to 55, or in the decline or change of life; after Containment, or Labor Pains; Bed-Wetting in children.

It has been submitted to many prominent friends of music from all parts of the country, who have given it their warm approval.

Since the first dawn of that spirit of disaffection, which nearly forty years ago, stained American history with Nullification doctrines and doings, "Rule or Ruin" has been the basis of democratic policy and conduct—the meridian by which have been determined the reckonings of the course and bearings of the democratic party, and by which have been measured its system of deception, its practices of verality.

The Canadian papers continue to chronicle the movement of the people towards the United States. The movement has really assumed alarming proportions, and in spite of reasoning on its causes, continues without any signs of abatement.

THE New Bedford (Mass.) Mercury, of the 7th instant, in an article on the munificent bequests of the noble-hearted philanthropist, George Peabody, says:

Mr. Peabody, we learn, designs to administer upon his own estate. Death will find him possessed of onyx means sufficient for a becoming burial. He will leave nothing for heirs to quarrel about. His vast estate will not be tied up in gancery, at the investigation of some avaricious heir-at-law, to the sore disappointment and suffering of needy beneficiaries. He will finish his good work.

THE French cable not almost completed deserves special mention as uniting the Paris of the old world with her New York sister and resemblance. We have long felt the need of close connection with our French friends; had the great hearted Oglethorpe's views been carried out Georgia and the Carolinas would have been fully colonized by emigrants from the South of France, and this may be possible.

A carpenter's association of Washington, in the face of the government determination not to acknowledge color distinctions, have resolved that only "white" men be admitted into their association. Men so resolving should be discharged from government employ.

OUR public men can attend to no more important business than the matter of how our young people shall be educated. In the country districts we know of many hundreds of children whose parents feel the deep importance of education, but "the laborers are few." Will not our noble North send us of their abundance of good teachers? Who will come over and help us?

SPAIN is progressing crab-fashion at a good gait. The Government has introduced a measure to confiscate the property of those who refuse to take the test oath to support the new constitution which establishes a monarchy.

THE Journal declares the late war not one of the politicians, but one of the people's own choosing and desire. What "monstrous mendacity!"

THE Missouri Democratic papers have "suffered a sea change" surely when advocating impartial suffrage and woman's right to vote.

The plan of drawing shall be as follows: there shall be two wheels, one a prize wheel and one a number wheel, arranged in some public place in the city, where any one holding a ticket may be present on the day of drawing. In the number wheel there shall be 73,347 tickets corresponding in number to the tickets which have been drawn, and the number wheel there shall be 3,000 tickets. These tickets will be deposited in the wheels by a board of supervisors, who shall be appointed by the Directors, after which the wheels shall be sealed and placed in the bank in a safe, until the time of drawing, when the supervisors shall bring them to the place of drawing, break the seals and the drawing shall be disposed of by taking a ticket from each wheel at the same time, and the prize ticket taken from the prize wheel shall designate the prize drawn by the ticket corresponding in number to the one taken from the wheel at the same time. The wheel shall be well shaken after each ticket is drawn.

The supervisors will be gentlemen well known and noted for honesty and integrity, who will not be allowed to purchase tickets or use any stock in the Company. The numbers and prizes will be drawn and placed in the hands of boys and a full report of all numbers drawing prizes will be published in some prominent newspaper immediately after the drawing.
