It is the simplest and cheapest thing we have yet seen for the purpose. They can be put on any window without cutting or fitting, and as not more than one-fifth of the windows have fasteners of any kind on them, we do not see why an energetic man could not make money putting them on in this vicinity. Agents are wanted. Samples will be sent by mail for 10 cents, by addressing as above.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

MR. EDITOR: While for the past few days, or weeks, our city has been kept alive with reports and rumors of street fights, has it ever occurred to the business men and property owners of the city that these rumors and reports going abroad are likely to impair the prosperity of our city, and create the impression that we are a turbulent, boisterous people, and that life, limb and property are unsafe in our midst?

It is not time that the old fashioned ideas of "chivalry" were forgotten, and we now awake to a realization of the fact that this "bread and butter" world, and that in order to make our property valuable, and increase the business of our city, we must give the outside world to understand that we are a law abiding people, and that efforts of people to "lug" before the public their private grievances to the detriment of, and in many cases the interruption of business will be discouraged.

We are asking Northern men to come here with their capital. We are asking the skilled labor of the North and Europe to settle among us, and within four weeks for real or fancied wrongs, four men of Northern birth have been laid in wait for or attacked in the street or their office by men of Southern birth.

Now as there is redress provided for any and every gentleman in the laws, would it not be better for the community if such law-breakers as Messrs. James, Smaw, Engelhard and Larkins were given to understand that they must appeal to the laws of the country for redress, and the whole people not be made sufferers in the way of depreciation of property and loss of business as will be the case if matters go on as they have for the past few weeks.

This article is written without any feeling for or against any of the parties mentioned, but simply with the hope that it will suggest to the minds of those wishing for the prosperity of the city the necessity of putting a stop to the disgraceful proceedings of the past few weeks.

MR. EDITOR: The committee of arrangements for the Promenade and Ball at City Hall, October 7th, at their meeting Monday completed the list to whom invitations will be extended. They may have omitted a great many names that they would be glad to invite, but this can be remedied when it is known by the parties interested informing Mr. Prince Larrington, Chairman of the Committee on Invitations.

Great care has been taken to secure the attendance of the very best class of people, who will no doubt appreciate the labor of these gentlemen, and the worthy object they have in view, and give them a fine audience.

The courtroom has been secured for the ladies' dressing room, and the ante-room, up stairs, for gentlemen. The refreshment table will be in the basement of the building. Under no consideration will any liquor be allowed in the Hall or in any part of the building where the Committee have jurisdiction.

The Committee have not asked the city authorities for any assistance in the shape of police, knowing too well that the people who will favor this entertainment will require no such restrictions as are generally placed over Balls and public gatherings.

Henry N. Jones, Esq., has been appointed Treasurer, to him all the funds will be turned over, and by him to the general fund for the use specified.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Sept. 8, 1869.
EDITOR OF THE POST:

DEAR SIR:—As Editors are supposed to know everything, I write to ask if you can give us any information as to the "how" and "wherefore" of the nice little arrangement by which the office of Register of the county was transferred from the person elected on the Republican ticket to a Democrat. The whole affair presents a very "queer appearance" to us Republicans who are outside of the "County Commissioner's Ring," and we would like to know how the late Register and the Commissioners can justify the transfer of the office to a Democrat who could not have received a nomination on the Republican ticket, when there are hundreds of competent Republicans out in the cold. It certainly appears to us outside Republicans, as if the majority of the County Commissioners had thrown off the last slender disguise of belonging to the Republican party, and had gone over body and bones to the sham Democracy, and if this last act, made in defiance of the entire body of Republicans of the county, is allowed to pass unnoticed we cannot tell what they will do next.

Yours in the cause,
TRUE BLUE.

The American Stock Journal for September, contains the usual variety of interesting articles, also a new Premium List for 1870, offering a large variety of useful articles to all who get up clubs. Specimen Copies, Show Bills, &c., sent free. Address, N. P. BOYER & Co., Parkersburg, Chester Co., Pa.

We learn that Bishop Gibbon has secured the services of a number of the Sisters of Mercy, from Charleston and Sumter, S. C., who will arrive here about the 20th of this month, and will open a school for young ladies early in October. Their object is to engage in acts of benevolence towards humanity as well as to impart education to youths. Our people will recollect the kindness of the Sisters during the epidemic of 1862, and we feel certain their advent here in a permanent capacity will be hailed with pleasure by all. It is the first time in the history of the State that an attempt to establish an institution of the kind has taken place.

OUR FAMILY PHYSICIAN.—Here is a book that really seems to meet every requirement of a thoroughly reliable family physician, and is sold at so low a price ($2.50) that all can afford to buy it, and none can afford to do without it. It has one entirely new and, it seems to us, invaluable feature: it gives the several modes of treatment as practiced by the different schools of physicians—the Allopathic, Homeopathic, Hydropathic, Eclectic and Herbal—so that choice can be made of the method that may be the best suit one's taste or convenience, or a combination of two or three different modes may be resorted to if desirable. It is written in plain language that any one can understand.

To thus have always at hand a reliable family physician, ready at all times to be consulted and to give the best advice, "free of charge," is certainly worth the small sum charged for this work. We are informed that over two thousand copies have been sold already in the city of Chicago, where the author resides, and that it is having an unprecedented sale everywhere. It is published by New York and Cincinnati, by C. S. GARDNER, and in Chicago by J. S. Goodman for Custom House Place, and is sold by subscription.

The New Bern Times states: Another man named Daniel Bryan who took to the swamps in 1862 to avoid the draft which was going on during the war and has since been living on such food as he was able to forage has learned from some colored men (who found him in the woods) that the war was over. He therefore resolved to again enter the civilized world, came to our city but learning of the terrible murders committed by the Ku Klux Klan he again started for the swamps.

Tennessee is improving.

STATE.

The people of the State are deeply interested in the trial and expose made in New Bern of the Ku Klux who still live for the purpose of driving Republicanism out of the State and reinstating the old Bourbon dynasty of hate, proscription and general barbarism.

The following extracts from the testimony offered by the ignorant dupes of such respectable "Conservative" Democrats as this State has been cursed for the last thirty years, is well worth perusal:

G. W. Tillou, witness for the State, was sworn and deposed as follows:

My name is George W. Tillou. I am thirty-four years old. I am late a resident of Lenoir county. I have lived here ever since the close of the war. I have been engaged in bridge-building and butchering during that period. I have been connected with an organization of which the defendants were members. The organization was formed in Lenoir county, in the latter part of March or the first of April, 1869. I became a member about that time—and was one of the first ten that assisted in forming the organization. Ruth Temple came to Lenoir to form this organization. He came from near Raleigh. The organization was called the "C. U. G. Society," which means the Constitutional Union Guard, popularly known as the Ku Klux Klan. I was among the ten that founded the organization. Those that I knew were William Hines, Bright Harper and Henry Croom. Those are all that I can positively say were present when the organization was formed. The first officers were Jesse C. Kennedy, A. Munroe, Ash Devane and Jack Harper, were the Commandants. They were South Commander (the leading officer) North Commander, East Commander and West Commander. George W. Tillou was Conductor; David Smith was Treasurer; Henry Croom Secretary; James Hines, Inside Guard; Daniel Davis Outside Guard. I was a member of this organization about two months. When I left the organization numbered about seventy-five members. Frank Hill, Egbert Hill, Everett Hill, Benj. Jones, J. P. Parker, Alex. Dawson, Jefferson Perry and A. Munro, were members before I abandoned the organization. I knew they were members because I introduced them—it was the duty of the Conductor to introduce members for initiation. I was Conductor when these men were initiated. They were initiated some of them, at Henry Croom's still house in the rear of his house, in Lenoir county; others at Wm. White's store at Kinston, and one on the river bank near Mr. Hunter's residence. They were all active members of the organization at the time I abandoned the organization. I administered the following oath to all members previous to their initiation: "I solemnly swear that I will never reveal anything that has transpired or may transpire, in the order that I am about to join, even should I not connect myself therewith. The questions asked before the oath is put is, 'Do you believe in a white man's government?' 'Do you promise to labor faithfully for the overthrow of the blank party?' (the Conductor fills up the blank—he inserts the word "Republican.") The members take a solemn oath to resist, by force of arms if necessary, any aggression on our legal rights. We swear faithfully to obey all officers in everything pertaining to the good of the organization. The Commandants administer the oaths—each oath is peculiar to their division. The South Commander administers the initiatory oath. The other Commandants give the candidate the several signs, but cannot give the dates. They met twice at Wm. White's store in Kinston, secretly, and at other times at Henry Croom's still house. We met at Henry Croom's still house in April and May last. They were nearly all armed with pistols and guns. We met both day and night. The particular meeting in April was in the afternoon at White's store in Kinston. When we met the first thing done was to station a guard of armed men to halt all persons not having the password. Resolutions were adopted for the killing of Colgrove and Wilkie. Colgrove was sentenced to death in consequence of his act in the arrest of Joel Hines. Joel Hines was a member of the organization at the adoption of the resolution. The reason for marking out Wilkie, was because he was a detective and was supposed to be ferreting out the perpetrators of the bridge murder.

The commanders present were Jesse Kennedy, Ash Devane, and Jack Harper. The instructions of the Commandants were that we were to get in the way of the Sheriff, in case any members of the organization should come to trial for alleged offense, and acquit him, no matter what the testimony was, and to go to the assistance of a comrade giving a signal of distress, at the risk of our lives. We were compelled under oath to go to the relief of a comrade giving a signal of distress. What I mean by being in distress was when any member was in jail or was on trial. This was the general understanding. I have been called upon by a lawyer belonging to the organization to get on the jury for his benefit. That lawyer is on trial—Mr. Munroe. He expected me to acquit prisoners without regard to my oath. Devane and Hines were imprisoned in Lenoir county jail. They were imprisoned for stealing a mule. It was stated in meeting that we were to go to the relief of a comrade in distress—being on trial or imprisoned, constituting distress. Each member took a solemn oath to go to the relief of a comrade in distress. The general understanding in these cases was that we were to get on the jury or break open the jail, resisting every officer who opposed us. Devane and Hines were imprisoned on the night of the first of May. They were released on the morning of the third. The persons who released them were all members of the organization—they were Frank Hill, Everett Hill, Egbert Hill, J. L. Parker, Benj. Jones, Redding Hines, Henry Croom, Daniel Davis, Samuel Perry, James Perry, Joseph Parrott, George W. Tillou and others. Mr. Munroe and Mr. Jefferson Perry were not present—the other prisoners were. The party were armed and released the prisoners in jail were armed—they had three revolvers. Devane had two and Hines had one. No business was transacted at this meeting other than the initiation of members and the appointment of a committee to watch out for Sheriff Colgrove and Wilkie, and also Stephen Lassiter. If they arrested any one the committee were to kill them. If they brought force we were to oppose them with force. Any member was instructed to kill them. Tom Uzzell and Joe Parrott; that I know, and some that I did not know, were on the committee. It consisted of five or six. No lengthy disclosures were made. Mr. Kennedy made a speech urging us to assist white men. No other speech was made. The meeting was held at three o'clock in the day, and in a very private place. No one stayed about the place. No public or private road ran by. Alex. Dawson, Mr. Munroe and Jefferson Perry, were present at the meeting. I did not know the breaking of the jail and the release of Hines and Devane. I have not been instructed by the counsel for the State what evidence to give nor have any other witness, to my knowledge. No suggestions have been made to me by said counsel. No promises have been made by the counsel for the State, only so far as that the evidence I shall give shall not be used against me.

Cross examined by Hon. C. C. Clark:
When I joined I was given the following signs: "When I met a man and desired to know whether he was a member I placed my right hand on my breast. If he was a member he made the same sign. If I was in distress I was to join my hands over, and in the rear of my head. The grip was to bend the forefinger and shake hands, letting the forefinger lie in the palm of the person whose hand was shaken. In these ways a member could make himself known to another."

Questioned by Judge Thomas:
If an officer gave me an order to kill a man I felt compelled to do so—even my own father or brother. This appeared to be the common sentiment among the members. I do not recollect that any punishment in case of disobedience was spoken of; but believed that if I told the secrets of the organization I would be killed. I believe that I will be killed by some one when I go home. I do not believe that any of the prisoners would kill me, nor do I know who will—but believe that some one will kill me.

Still another Ku Klux. One Lassiter being sworn stated:
My age is twenty-five years, the 23d of last April. I live in Greene county, and am a farmer. I belong to a secret organization in Lenoir county. I joined it in April, 1869. The name of the organization was the "Union Guards," or the "Ku Klux Klan." It was generally called the Ku Klux. The existence of the organization was publicly acknowledged by the members, but were not known to each other. The place of meeting was not known to the public. We met secretly. The members attended armed. I never was at but one meeting. They then went armed. The object of the organization was to overthrow the radical party. We had officers. They were called South Commander, North Commander, East Commander and West Commander. It had a Conductor and Treasurer. I do not recollect of any others. The South Commander was the head officer. Jesse C. Kennedy was the South commander at the time I joined. I do not recollect who were the other Commandants. George Tillou was Conductor. Members were from eighteen years old and upwards. The organization met at Mr. Croom's still house at the time I was made a member. About twenty-five, or thirty members were present. Joseph P. Parrott, Joshua Suggs, Thomas Uzzell and Clay Huggins joined at the same time that I did. I do not recollect that any more did. Mr. Tillou came behind the still house and asked us "if we believed in a white man's government?" I told him I did. I was then blindfolded and taken into the stillhouse. When we got in we were caused to kneel down. An oath was administered to us. We put our hands on the Bible. I cannot give the words of the oath. They were substantially that we would labor to overthrow the radical party, and restore the government to the hands of white men, and to strive for our legal rights by force of arms if necessary. We were to obey all orders of the officers in or out of the meeting. We were to keep everything transacted in a meeting secret. I did not take any other oath. I understood that there was another oath to be taken but never attended another meeting. We were instructed to make it known if any one was looking for any of the members—that is, if the sheriff or any one else were trying to arrest. We were to make it known to the officers of the Klan or any brother member. Then we were to assist the member whom the officers of the law were hunting for. If we could keep him lawfully we were to do so; if not we were to help him otherwise. If a member got in jail we were to bail him, and if bail was not taken we were to break open the jail and take him out. I mean by distress if I got in jail, or if otherwise needed help.
