

Party Fealty.

With some minds the most sacred obligations are as naught. The Unfathomable has not given to all beings the sense called "moral," and the words "obligation," "honor," "faith" and "fealty" are but dimly comprehended, and never fully understood.

We would dismiss this donkey right here, but we have a little story appropos this subject related to the writer by the present Secretary of State.

It seems "Holmbold," that mighty advertising friend of sinners and Journal editors, travelled near the spot where the editor of the Journal was "fetched up."

We hope all good Republicans read carefully the Journal article before subscribing to the University. As we know of several hundred dollars lost through the intemperate advocacy of the Journal friend; would it not be well to reprint the article?

ROCHEFORT, the journalist who dared defy Napoleon the Little: thus replies to those people who stated that the "Emperor had been magnanimous in sparing the brave Republican writer."

PARIS, November 6. MY DEAR FRIENDS:—The journals of the Court are absolutely bent on persuading me that I am under an obligation to the Emperor, because, having me arrested at the frontier, he ordered my release eight hours after. I should prefer the public to the Constitution for my judge.

Let men who vote against the party, upon issues affecting the party, be marked men. Let them be refused the confidence of Republicans, or admittance to the councils of the party. Let them be treated as Judases, who seek to betray those who have trusted them.

Let these things be done and the plans of the mongrel Democracy are defeated and their last feeble chance of success in the August elections utterly destroyed.

Is the article published in the Journal Sunday last, and entitled "Southern University" there appears amid other twaddle the following "curiosity of Southern literature":

SOMETIMES democratic writers tell the truth. Thus a correspondent of a New York paper publishes a letter on South Carolina affairs in which he says:

"This state of affairs is not caused so much by what some people call Radical rule, as by the haughty, domineering, aristocratic conduct of most of the planters in that State, who have for a lifetime believed, or rather endeavored to make others believe, that they had certain hereditary, chartered rights, which common mortals dare not question."

BARON DO NOTHING and the Lord Knows Who, were the titled chaps we have abolished. Let them stay abolished!

"Butler," or Grant, or as talented as Mrs. Stowe. Our readers may think with us that there's precious little danger, but then to relieve his horror struck soul we tell him there can be no danger.

We would dismiss this donkey right here, but we have a little story appropos this subject related to the writer by the present Secretary of State.

It seems "Holmbold," that mighty advertising friend of sinners and Journal editors, travelled near the spot where the editor of the Journal was "fetched up."

We hope all good Republicans read carefully the Journal article before subscribing to the University. As we know of several hundred dollars lost through the intemperate advocacy of the Journal friend; would it not be well to reprint the article?

ROCHEFORT, the journalist who dared defy Napoleon the Little: thus replies to those people who stated that the "Emperor had been magnanimous in sparing the brave Republican writer."

PARIS, November 6. MY DEAR FRIENDS:—The journals of the Court are absolutely bent on persuading me that I am under an obligation to the Emperor, because, having me arrested at the frontier, he ordered my release eight hours after.

Let men who vote against the party, upon issues affecting the party, be marked men. Let them be refused the confidence of Republicans, or admittance to the councils of the party. Let them be treated as Judases, who seek to betray those who have trusted them.

Let these things be done and the plans of the mongrel Democracy are defeated and their last feeble chance of success in the August elections utterly destroyed.

Is the article published in the Journal Sunday last, and entitled "Southern University" there appears amid other twaddle the following "curiosity of Southern literature":

SOMETIMES democratic writers tell the truth. Thus a correspondent of a New York paper publishes a letter on South Carolina affairs in which he says:

"This state of affairs is not caused so much by what some people call Radical rule, as by the haughty, domineering, aristocratic conduct of most of the planters in that State, who have for a lifetime believed, or rather endeavored to make others believe, that they had certain hereditary, chartered rights, which common mortals dare not question."

BARON DO NOTHING and the Lord Knows Who, were the titled chaps we have abolished. Let them stay abolished!

A PENNSYLVANIA Bachelor "thus getteth after a lovely woman:" "I impeach her in the name of the great whale of the ocean, whose bones are torn asunder to enable her to keep straight."

FAR OFF Wyoming sends greeting to the Post in the shape of a good Republican paper called the Wyoming Tribune. We welcome our young brother to a place among the friends of freedom, and sincerely pray that the good motto under the territorial seal of arms may ever guide and strengthen the first paper in Cheyenne.

Ignoring issues that have passed into history, striving to grasp those that are present, and looking forward toward those which are to come, it will stand upon the skirting line of civilization, and seek to aid the progressive element of the nineteenth century, in its efforts to attain to a better civilization and a nobler national life.

We have received a pamphlet of twelve badly printed pages entitled "An Appeal to the People." This "appeal" is nothing more than an attempt to rouse feelings in Ku Klux breasts against the legislature.

The New York Tribune of Saturday has the following from its Washington correspondent: "The subject of persons holding two offices at the same time is again under consideration by the Departments, and it is not improbable that the heads of bureaus will unite in asking Congress for the passage of a law prohibiting United State civil officers from holding official positions under State or municipal laws."

THE EXCEEDING inconsistent conduct of the demon-ocracy is seen every day in the conduct of its leaders in the legislature. They scream and howl over "radical" barbarity in not petitioning Congress to remove the disabilities of men too proud and rebellious to ask a favor of the government.

THE NEW BERNE Times pays us the following pretty compliment: "The Wilmington, N. C. Post is one of our most spicy exchanges. The editor evidently understands his business. We hope he will soon make it a Daily."

It is related by an exchange that three gentlemen, a Frenchman, Englishman and a Yankee, were in conversation on the New Jersey Southern railroad cars. From their tone, the two former were great blowers.

MISSISSIPPI journalism may be said to be in a remarkably healthy condition; so healthy in fact that the terms "bummer," "miscreant," "sponger," "chief," "satrap," "dastardly," are freely bestowed by the conservatives, and the Vicksburg Times (conservative) winds up by calling Gen. Ames and the rest of Grants friends "evil minded scoundrels."

A SPECIAL dispatch from Chicago, received Friday, announces the arrival at that place of Vincent Colyer, from Sitka in twenty-three days. He reports that the Alaska Indians, numbering over seventy thousand, are superior to other tribes. They live in villages of well constructed houses, possess cattle, and raise grain to some extent. They are very peaceable, and especially partial to Americans. He considers the Alaska purchase very judicious.

THE DEMON-OCRATS pause to press their examination of alleged Railroad frauds. Dost know the reason why? Some leading lights in the Demon-ocratic wigwag have received large amounts of the said "illegally issued bonds." The Treasurer of the State declares he gave Col. Robert Cowan, ex-president of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad ONE MILLION of the one million five hundred thousand issued.

Tax project for a Southern Labor Association for the purpose of supplying land to the landless in the Southern States; is a good one, and we hope that offers will be made to emigrants from Europe so that the tide may be turned South. It is time the legislature did something. Where are your wide awake Solons? Drop squabbling gentlemen and seek to develop your State.

VERY many young ladies appear to think that because they can perform well upon the piano, chatter French and Italian, or waltz gracefully, that these accomplishments more than counterbalance any display of ill-temper, rudeness to parents or friends in which they may see proper to indulge.

How much better a "dinner of herbs" with contentment, than a wrangling corn-fed-eracy such as Mr. Davis has escaped! He now pockets fifteen thousand a year as the peaceable president of a life insurance company, and therefore has no further interest in people's dying.

A FRENCH author has translated a passage from one of Cooper's novels as follows: "He dismounted from his horse in front of the chateau, and tied him to a large grass-hopper." The original reads, "a large locust" (tree).

A CINCINNATI editor having his attention called to the "Bible" by the recent discussion whether it is a fit book for public schools, declares it to be "one of the best books he has read recently."

A FEAT of pedestrianism. Ex Senator Foote announcing himself "a full fledged radical." From the St. Paul Pioneer. Singular Chapter in Real Life. About fifteen years ago, a young English merchant who had acquired a snug fortune at Rio Janeiro, married, during one of his periodical visits to England, a beautiful orphan girl, whom he took with him to his Brazilian home.

THE BRIDE OF DEATH. In that unequalled unique family Journal THE GEM OF LITERATURE. ONE OF THE NEATEST, MOST ELEGANT, tasteful and attractive literary journals in the world. The ladies adore it. The gentlemen are frantic with delight over it.

THE CIRCLE OF BRILLIANTS, or THE BRIDE OF DEATH. By a popular author. This will be one of the most remarkable, vivid and absorbingly thrilling, soul-stirring, sensational stories that ever from the pen of living mortal. Written in glowing language, with a pen of fire.

THE CIRCLE OF BRILLIANTS, or THE BRIDE OF DEATH. By a popular author. This will be one of the most remarkable, vivid and absorbingly thrilling, soul-stirring, sensational stories that ever from the pen of living mortal.

THE CIRCLE OF BRILLIANTS, or THE BRIDE OF DEATH. By a popular author. This will be one of the most remarkable, vivid and absorbingly thrilling, soul-stirring, sensational stories that ever from the pen of living mortal.

THE CIRCLE OF BRILLIANTS, or THE BRIDE OF DEATH. By a popular author. This will be one of the most remarkable, vivid and absorbingly thrilling, soul-stirring, sensational stories that ever from the pen of living mortal.

THE CIRCLE OF BRILLIANTS, or THE BRIDE OF DEATH. By a popular author. This will be one of the most remarkable, vivid and absorbingly thrilling, soul-stirring, sensational stories that ever from the pen of living mortal.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT. A meeting of the Officers and Employees of the W. & W. R. Co. held in Wilmington, N. C., Nov. 27th, 1893. Capt. John F. Divine was chosen as Chairman and Edw. F. Cason was requested to act as Secretary.

WARRANT OF ATTACHMENT RETURNABLE before E. H. McQuigg, Esq., a Justice of the Peace for New Hanover County, at his office on the 27th day of December, 1893, when and where the defendant is required to appear and answer the complaint.

SHERIFF'S NOTICE. J. W. SCHENCK, JR., SHERIFF OF NEW Hanover County, gives notice that he will prosecute before a Justice of the Peace for the County aforesaid, all Hotel and Lodging House Keepers, Notaries Public, Merchants, Liquor Dealers, Livery Stable, Stand Horse and Jackass Owners, and Commission Merchants, etc., who do not comply with Schedule B of the Act to Raise Revenue for 1893, by the 4th day of December, 1893.

SCHOOL BOOKS. SPELLERS, READERS, GEOGRAPHIES, ARITHMETICS, GRAMMERS, HISTORIES, BEERS SYSTEM OF PENMANSHIP. For sale at HEINBERGERS Live Book Store.

Pianos Pianos. KNABE'S Stein's & Groventein's Pianos for sale at HEINBERGERS, 59 Market Street, 329-30.

"The Great Triumph." NORTH CAROLINA AND MASSACHUSETTS sets produce the best Woolen Goods for Men wear made on the continent. YOUNG OF NORTH CAROLINA and HARRIS OF MASSACHUSETTS can join hands in their great success.

KID GLOVES. ALEXANDERS KID GLOVES at $1 25 per pair. JNO. J. HEDRICK, Agent, Corner Market & 2d St. 328-29.

Collector's Office. CITY OF WILMINGTON, N. C. November 28th, 1893.

IN ACCORDANCE WITH EXISTING LAWS, and by direction of the Board of Aldermen of this city, I shall call at public auction, on the 17th day of December, 1893, at 12 o'clock, M., in front of the City Hall, the following described property situated in this city unless the tax and expenses due on said property are paid:

Table with columns: Name of owner or supposed owner, No. of lots, and Amount of tax. Includes entries for J. F. Casou, Mrs. M. M. Conroy, E. D. Hall, etc.

FREE FOR TWO MONTHS. 1870 1870 1870 1870. STARTLING ANNOUNCEMENT! FREE, A SUPERB JOURNAL FREE. Intense Excitement! Extraordinary Attraction. THE CIRCLE OF BRILLIANTS, OR THE BRIDE OF DEATH.

THE CIRCLE OF BRILLIANTS, or THE BRIDE OF DEATH. By a popular author. This will be one of the most remarkable, vivid and absorbingly thrilling, soul-stirring, sensational stories that ever from the pen of living mortal.

THE CIRCLE OF BRILLIANTS, or THE BRIDE OF DEATH. By a popular author. This will be one of the most remarkable, vivid and absorbingly thrilling, soul-stirring, sensational stories that ever from the pen of living mortal.

THE CIRCLE OF BRILLIANTS, or THE BRIDE OF DEATH. By a popular author. This will be one of the most remarkable, vivid and absorbingly thrilling, soul-stirring, sensational stories that ever from the pen of living mortal.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. E. G. Fike, L. G. Wagner, Attachment.

SCHOOL BOOKS. SPELLERS, READERS, GEOGRAPHIES, ARITHMETICS, GRAMMERS, HISTORIES, BEERS SYSTEM OF PENMANSHIP. For sale at HEINBERGERS Live Book Store.

Pianos Pianos. KNABE'S Stein's & Groventein's Pianos for sale at HEINBERGERS, 59 Market Street, 329-30.

"The Great Triumph." NORTH CAROLINA AND MASSACHUSETTS sets produce the best Woolen Goods for Men wear made on the continent.

KID GLOVES. ALEXANDERS KID GLOVES at $1 25 per pair. JNO. J. HEDRICK, Agent, Corner Market & 2d St. 328-29.

Collector's Office. CITY OF WILMINGTON, N. C. November 28th, 1893.

IN ACCORDANCE WITH EXISTING LAWS, and by direction of the Board of Aldermen of this city, I shall call at public auction, on the 17th day of December, 1893, at 12 o'clock, M., in front of the City Hall, the following described property situated in this city unless the tax and expenses due on said property are paid:

Table with columns: Name of owner or supposed owner, No. of lots, and Amount of tax. Includes entries for J. F. Casou, Mrs. M. M. Conroy, E. D. Hall, etc.

FREE FOR TWO MONTHS. 1870 1870 1870 1870. STARTLING ANNOUNCEMENT! FREE, A SUPERB JOURNAL FREE. Intense Excitement! Extraordinary Attraction. THE CIRCLE OF BRILLIANTS, OR THE BRIDE OF DEATH.

THE CIRCLE OF BRILLIANTS, or THE BRIDE OF DEATH. By a popular author. This will be one of the most remarkable, vivid and absorbingly thrilling, soul-stirring, sensational stories that ever from the pen of living mortal.

THE CIRCLE OF BRILLIANTS, or THE BRIDE OF DEATH. By a popular author. This will be one of the most remarkable, vivid and absorbingly thrilling, soul-stirring, sensational stories that ever from the pen of living mortal.

THE CIRCLE OF BRILLIANTS, or THE BRIDE OF DEATH. By a popular author. This will be one of the most remarkable, vivid and absorbingly thrilling, soul-stirring, sensational stories that ever from the pen of living mortal.

THE CIRCLE OF BRILLIANTS, or THE BRIDE OF DEATH. By a popular author. This will be one of the most remarkable, vivid and absorbingly thrilling, soul-stirring, sensational stories that ever from the pen of living mortal.