THE ACKLIN SCANDAL.

We published last week the then current version of the conduct of J. H. Acklin, Democratic member of Congress from Louisiana, In justice to that gentlemen we now give below Mr. Acklin's card which denies in scandalous reports against him. To whom it may Concern :

The infamous attack upon my character lately, published in several papers, I denounce as an unmitgated and willtal lie-a fabrication from beginning to end having not one scintilla of truth from its foundation. It has now been publicly denied by all who could have had any knowledge of it -by Gen. Rosser, who, in St. Paul, distinctly stated that he had "made no mention of the affair" to any one, and to me by telegraph from Minneapolis, in answer to my telegram stating, "when transpired," says, "that he had made no such statements," and referring to the article in the National Republican, says: 'Am not responsible for what it has published," and that the slanders referred to therein "must surely be false, After such denials I cannot further look to Gen. Rosser as the author of the vile attack. Further denials have been made by the lady through her brother and friends in published statements. their sworn affidavits to which attention is called. I knew nothing of this slander until I reached Louisiana, but on seeing it, returned at once to Washington, and though as yet unable to trace its sorce, I have proved and shown it to be a vile calumny, without any foundation in fact.

The figures I have quoted The only topic of even languid interest is the Potter investigation. The first poin that may be mentioned is that the Minister to France, Mr. Noyes, is most completely exonerated from any knowledge of the Florida frauds whatever. The Florida case may be considered settled, no new point having been made, that state being now out the question, and Gen. B. F. Butler having been given complete control of the management of the Louisiana ca e, such attention as any one now gives the sublect is centered there. The first move under the new programme was to refuse to call any witnesses for the Reblicans who would show Democratic Cincinnati ballot box stuffing, with frauds and terrorism in that state.
