

The Wilmington Post.

VOLUME X.

WILMINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA, SUNDAY, SEPT. 21, 1879.

Single Copies 5 Cents

NUMBER 38

WILMINGTON POST

ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT WILMINGTON, N. C., AS SECOND CLASS MATTER

LATE GENERAL NEWS.

President Hayes and party have been received in Detroit.
General Grant is highly expected in San Francisco on the steamer City of Tokio from Japan. Great preparations are making for his reception.
Mr. Curtis, the correspondent of the Liverpool, was at the Stratton convention, and says of Mr. Conkling's reception there: "No man ever received a more gratifying reception. Never was admiration more plainly expressed. From the moment he stepped from the steamer, he was surrounded by a throng of admirers. Mr. Conkling's visit at Stratton was as continuous ovation, and under the circumstances, it made Mr. Conkling feel very proud."

The Grand Lodge of the I. O. O. F. in session at Baltimore.

King Cetywayo of the Zulus has been captured, and all the principal Zulu chiefs have surrendered.
The surrender of Lord Cornwallis at Yorktown on the 18th of October 1881, is to be celebrated on the 19th of the coming month. The occasion is worthy a splendid demonstration.
Our Senator Vance has been interviewed on his way to Kansas, and says: "A Republican administration means for us four years of suffering and tyranny." We should like to know who has experienced any "suffering and tyranny," or what Vance means.

Goldsmith the Comptroller of Georgia, was found guilty on every count of the impeachment, and is forever disqualified from holding office in the state of Georgia. There are still other cases on hand for chopping off official heads in Georgia.

The murderer, Buck Walker, who some time ago (only) killed a negro, by the name of Frank Bell, was a few days ago caught (so called) by his cousin.

The facts are about as follows: About two months ago Buck Walker, a Democrat, took a fine and killed a colored republican, and then stepped out in the woods; the Sheriff gives him full time to prepare all preliminaries, and then he gets the Democratic Governor to offer a reward of $200. Whereupon Walker is brought in by his cousin and is carried before a leading Democratic Justice of the Peace, and is released on a straw bond of $500.

Walker was a fool to put himself to the inconvenience of going in the woods. Should a Democratic Solicitor make an attempt to convict him he will fail. There never has been, and we feel very safe in saying there never will be, a white Democrat convicted for murdering a colored man. The value of a colored man's life is shown by the amount of the straw bond Mr. Justice Bloodworth put the murderer under—only five hundred dollars, and that amount we are informed is not secured as the bondsmen are not worth the amount.

If the colored people should punish the murderers of their color when the law fails to do it their lives would be considered more sacred by the present officers of the state. We do not advise them to take the law in their own hands, but the question should be carefully considered by them, what course should be pursued from the fact that there are murders daily and no one ever punished for the crime. Not a single white Democrat in the south has been hung, since the war, for the murder of a colored man. We say it is a matter for the colored people to well consider, and the sooner they take steps to see that the law is properly enforced against the murderers of colored people, as well as the murderers of white, the better it will for them, and the more secure will be their lives.

Since writing the above, we understand from a perfectly reliable source, that the friends of Walker sent from Burgaw down to Mr. French's rock quarry, some twelve miles, after this Bloodworth to examine the case, notwithstanding that there were two other Justices at Burgaw. Besides, we understand that the trial of the case was hastened without any of the important state witnesses being present. Dr. Emmet, the physician who made the post-mortem examination of the murdered man Bell, was not at the trial. So the affair was a grand farce, in the shape of justice—Bloodworth should be indicted for the manner in which he has acted in the matter. We intend to investigate the outrage further for our next issue.

We understand that as soon as the farce was over at Burgaw, the cousin who brought Walker in, started for Raleigh after the reward.

As a matter of information for our readers we publish below the electoral vote of the states:

Alabama	10	Minnesota	5
Arkansas	6	Missouri	11
California	8	Nebraska	3
Colorado	8	Nevada	3
Connecticut	5	New Hampshire	3
Delaware	4	New Jersey	9
Florida	11	North Carolina	15
Georgia	11	Ohio	20
Illinois	21	Oregon	3
Indiana	13	Pennsylvania	29
Iowa	11	Rhode Island	2
Kansas	5	South Carolina	7
Kentucky	12	Texas	12
Louisiana	8	Tennessee	12
Maine	7	Vermont	5
Massachusetts	13	Virginia	11
Michigan	11	West Virginia	5
Maryland	8	Wisconsin	10
Mississippi	8

Total 369

Necessary for a choice 187

The Republicans now have a majority representation in Congress of 19 of the 38 states, with Indiana doubtful. Had it not been for Democratic frauds and rascalities the Republicans would have, and are rightfully entitled to, 21 of the 38 states.

The reported capture in South Africa, of the Zulu King Cetywayo, August 23rd is announced by telegraph dispatch from Capetown.

THE PRESIDENT.

Mr. Hayes has been having a good time at Youngstown, Ohio, in a reunion of his old Regiment, the 23rd Ohio, Artillery, and music, and flags, and banners, and processions and speeches saluted him at every station from Cleveland to Youngstown, where an immense assemblage greeted him.
He made an address, nearly the first words of which will account of their significance arrest the attention of the nation. He said:
There is a subject interesting to every citizen, and especially to those who served in the Union Army, in regard to which I wish to say a few words:
"Since our last reunion, in several of the states and in Congress events have occurred which have revived the discussion of the question as to the object for which we fought in the great conflict from 1861 to 1865, and as to what was accomplished by the loyal triumph of the Union cause. The question is, what was settled by the war? What was that for which we fought? The Union justly claim; and what ought those who fought for secession, faithfully to accept as the legitimate results of the war?"
An eminent citizen of our state, Mr. Grosbeck, said, some years ago, that "war legislation" is the grand old constitutional amendments as part of the legislation of the war for the Union, and said with significant emphasis, "and they will stand." The equal rights amendments are the legislation of the war for the Union, and they ought to stand. Great wars always legislate.
He then sketched briefly Mr. Lincoln's declarations as to the results of the war, at Gettysburg. He quotes his language as follows:
"Four score and seven years ago" said Mr. Lincoln, "our fathers brought forth on this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any other nation so conceived, and so dedicated, can long endure."
And again, in closing he said: "It is rather for us to be here highly resolved that the dead shall not have died in vain; that the nation shall, under God, have a new birth of freedom; and that government of the people, for the people, and for the people, shall not perish from the earth."
No statement of the true objects of the war more complete than this has ever been made. It includes them all—Nationality, Liberty, Equal Rights, and Self Government. These are the principles for which the Union suffered, and which it was his duty to maintain and to perpetuate.
Mr. Hayes then quotes another Mr. Lincoln concerning the sophism of states rights and secession, and adds that:
Mr. Lincoln held that the United States is a nation, and that its Government possesses ample power under the Constitution to maintain its authority, and enforce its laws in every part of its territory. The denial of this principle by those who asserted the doctrine of state rights, and who rightly claimed that it was inconsistent with state sovereignty, made an insupportable basis for the leading controversies which led to the civil war decided that controversy in favor of nationality, and in favor of the supremacy of the National Government.
After extended observations on the present aspect of public affairs, and the true policy of the Nation the President closed by saying:
To establish now the state rights doctrine of the supremacy of the states, and an oligarchy of race, is deliberately to throw away an essential part of the Constitution, to maintain its authority, and enforce its laws in every part of its territory. The denial of this principle by those who asserted the doctrine of state rights, and who rightly claimed that it was inconsistent with state sovereignty, made an insupportable basis for the leading controversies which led to the civil war decided that controversy in favor of nationality, and in favor of the supremacy of the National Government.

After extended observations on the present aspect of public affairs, and the true policy of the Nation the President closed by saying:
To establish now the state rights doctrine of the supremacy of the states, and an oligarchy of race, is deliberately to throw away an essential part of the Constitution, to maintain its authority, and enforce its laws in every part of its territory. The denial of this principle by those who asserted the doctrine of state rights, and who rightly claimed that it was inconsistent with state sovereignty, made an insupportable basis for the leading controversies which led to the civil war decided that controversy in favor of nationality, and in favor of the supremacy of the National Government.

After extended observations on the present aspect of public affairs, and the true policy of the Nation the President closed by saying:
To establish now the state rights doctrine of the supremacy of the states, and an oligarchy of race, is deliberately to throw away an essential part of the Constitution, to maintain its authority, and enforce its laws in every part of its territory. The denial of this principle by those who asserted the doctrine of state rights, and who rightly claimed that it was inconsistent with state sovereignty, made an insupportable basis for the leading controversies which led to the civil war decided that controversy in favor of nationality, and in favor of the supremacy of the National Government.

After extended observations on the present aspect of public affairs, and the true policy of the Nation the President closed by saying:
To establish now the state rights doctrine of the supremacy of the states, and an oligarchy of race, is deliberately to throw away an essential part of the Constitution, to maintain its authority, and enforce its laws in every part of its territory. The denial of this principle by those who asserted the doctrine of state rights, and who rightly claimed that it was inconsistent with state sovereignty, made an insupportable basis for the leading controversies which led to the civil war decided that controversy in favor of nationality, and in favor of the supremacy of the National Government.

After extended observations on the present aspect of public affairs, and the true policy of the Nation the President closed by saying:
To establish now the state rights doctrine of the supremacy of the states, and an oligarchy of race, is deliberately to throw away an essential part of the Constitution, to maintain its authority, and enforce its laws in every part of its territory. The denial of this principle by those who asserted the doctrine of state rights, and who rightly claimed that it was inconsistent with state sovereignty, made an insupportable basis for the leading controversies which led to the civil war decided that controversy in favor of nationality, and in favor of the supremacy of the National Government.

After extended observations on the present aspect of public affairs, and the true policy of the Nation the President closed by saying:
To establish now the state rights doctrine of the supremacy of the states, and an oligarchy of race, is deliberately to throw away an essential part of the Constitution, to maintain its authority, and enforce its laws in every part of its territory. The denial of this principle by those who asserted the doctrine of state rights, and who rightly claimed that it was inconsistent with state sovereignty, made an insupportable basis for the leading controversies which led to the civil war decided that controversy in favor of nationality, and in favor of the supremacy of the National Government.

After extended observations on the present aspect of public affairs, and the true policy of the Nation the President closed by saying:
To establish now the state rights doctrine of the supremacy of the states, and an oligarchy of race, is deliberately to throw away an essential part of the Constitution, to maintain its authority, and enforce its laws in every part of its territory. The denial of this principle by those who asserted the doctrine of state rights, and who rightly claimed that it was inconsistent with state sovereignty, made an insupportable basis for the leading controversies which led to the civil war decided that controversy in favor of nationality, and in favor of the supremacy of the National Government.

After extended observations on the present aspect of public affairs, and the true policy of the Nation the President closed by saying:
To establish now the state rights doctrine of the supremacy of the states, and an oligarchy of race, is deliberately to throw away an essential part of the Constitution, to maintain its authority, and enforce its laws in every part of its territory. The denial of this principle by those who asserted the doctrine of state rights, and who rightly claimed that it was inconsistent with state sovereignty, made an insupportable basis for the leading controversies which led to the civil war decided that controversy in favor of nationality, and in favor of the supremacy of the National Government.

After extended observations on the present aspect of public affairs, and the true policy of the Nation the President closed by saying:
To establish now the state rights doctrine of the supremacy of the states, and an oligarchy of race, is deliberately to throw away an essential part of the Constitution, to maintain its authority, and enforce its laws in every part of its territory. The denial of this principle by those who asserted the doctrine of state rights, and who rightly claimed that it was inconsistent with state sovereignty, made an insupportable basis for the leading controversies which led to the civil war decided that controversy in favor of nationality, and in favor of the supremacy of the National Government.

After extended observations on the present aspect of public affairs, and the true policy of the Nation the President closed by saying:
To establish now the state rights doctrine of the supremacy of the states, and an oligarchy of race, is deliberately to throw away an essential part of the Constitution, to maintain its authority, and enforce its laws in every part of its territory. The denial of this principle by those who asserted the doctrine of state rights, and who rightly claimed that it was inconsistent with state sovereignty, made an insupportable basis for the leading controversies which led to the civil war decided that controversy in favor of nationality, and in favor of the supremacy of the National Government.

CITY ITEMS.

Chew Jackson's Best Sweet Navy Tobacco.

H. E. Scott, Esq., has returned from an extended visit to Chicago and the west.

The water on the shoals near Fayetteville is reported to be lower than it has been since 1871.

Col. D. K. McKee of this city is to deliver the address at the Charlotte Fair on the 6th of November.

An ice factory is to be established in this city by Northern Capitalists in the Clarendon Iron Works building.

Coroner Hewitt held an inquest over the body of a newly born infant on Sunday last, verdict death from natural causes.

The meetings at the Fifth Street M. E. Church are held in the afternoon and at night, instead of morning and evening.

The eighth annual session of the colored Baptist Sunday School Convention meets in Goldsboro on Wednesday next.

The Rev. Jas. B. Taylor, Pastor of the First Baptist Church, returned to this city Friday evening. He will fill his pulpit to-day.

Col. L. E. Rice, who has been north "to see his Uncle," returned on Monday last. He is much improved. Further comments unnecessary.

"Uno," the blonde, is traveling. The last we heard of the celebrated correspondent "Uno," he was in Washington, being interviewed as usual.

The attention of those interested is called to the advertisement of the City Attorney in this issue, in regard to the paying of city taxes.

Rev. J. E. King, a native of this city has been recently elected Pastor of the Baptist church in Monroe, N. C., for the ensuing year, a position he has acceptably filled for the past year.

Mr. Edward L. Hall, son of Col. E. D. Hall of this city, died in Atlanta Georgia Sunday last. His remains were brought to this city, and interred in Oakdale on Wednesday last.

Oliver Hargett colored was brought to this city Thursday night, in the custody of Officer Hand, charged with committing a nameless outrage upon a white woman in Pender county about a month since.

"Uno" should again visit Johnson, and hear the music of the sweet singers of that celebrated county, and while under the influence proceed at once to write one more communication from Goldsboro.

Major J. C. Winder, formerly of this city, Superintendent of the Raleigh & Gaston and Augusta Air Line Rail Roads, has been appointed Consulting Engineer for the Oxford and Henderson Railroad.

SALE OF VALUABLE PROPERTY.—The large two story brick dwelling house, situated on corner of Front and Mulberry streets, was sold on the 17th inst., at public auction. Mr. Wm. Calder became the purchaser for $5,250. Terms one-third cash, deferred payments at one and two years.

ROAD CASES.—Solicitor Moore's opinion is that Magistrates do not have jurisdiction in cases which grow out of a refusal to work the public roads. He says there is no doubt but that the legislature intended to invest Magistrates with authority to try such cases but owing to the phraseology of the bill they were debarred the right to assume final action.

The Jewish New Year commenced on 18th inst, from the creation of the world, 5649. The day of atonement, Yom Kippur, falls on 27th inst.

Under the ministrations of the Pastor Rev. B. R. Hall assisted by Mr. McPherson and wife, the revival at the Fifth Street Methodist Church, continues—great interest is manifested at their meetings. Over 100 persons have professed conversion.

RAILROAD MILITARY.—The Oak City Blues, Oberlin Vance Guards and East Raleigh Guards, command of Lieut. Col. A. J. Hayward, arrived in this city last Monday night. These three companies compose the 4th Battalion (colored) of the North Carolina State Guards and hail from Raleigh. They, together with the colored companies of this city were inspected and received by Col. Mabson on Wednesday last. The visiting military left for their home Thursday morning. While here they conducted themselves in such a manner as to receive the commendation of all our people.

Father Gross is a native of Baltimore Md, and a brother of Bishop Gross, of Savannah, and is about 35 years of age. He was educated at St. Mary's College, a Catholic institution in Baltimore, where he fitted for the priesthood. He came to this city in 1868, which shortly after his ordination with Archbishop, then Bishop Gibbons, and has been the pastor of St. Thomas' Church ever since. He is held in the highest esteem by our citizens generally.

Special Agent Chamberlin, of the Post Office Department, arrested the Post Master and his Deputy, at Cameron, Moore county, N. C., last week, charged with robbing the mails. They were carried before the U. S. Commissioner and bound over to the U. S. Circuit Court. The Post Master and his Deputy are both Democrats; Chamberlin is a brick, looking after these fellows. He is the same person who had one of our citizens arrested some weeks ago, here.

THE NEW VIRGIL APOSTOLIC.—Rev. Mark S. Gross, pastor of St. Thomas' Catholic Church, of this city, has been designated Vicar Apostolic of North Carolina, by His Holiness, the Pope. The position is that of a Bishop of the Catholic Church, of equal power, dignity and authority with any Bishop of the Church, the only difference being that the field of labor is not elevated to that of a Diocese, there being but a sufficient number of Roman Catholics within the limits of North Carolina to cause it to be made a Diocese.

THOMAS DABBY, Esq.—Our young friend, Mr. Thomas Dabby, was on a visit to his family and friends in this city last week. Mr. Dabby is now residing in Florida, where he is in the lumber and naval store business, and we are glad to learn he is doing splendidly. Tom has a way of making everybody he comes in contact with his friend. He is one of those young men who works because he likes it, understanding business at 15 years of age far better than many men do at 50.

Whatever he undertakes prospers. He returned some two years ago and took one of Wilmington's beautiful young ladies south with him, and he don't appear to regret that investment either. We know we speak the sentiments of the people of this place when we wish him and his a long and happy life.

CITY COURT.—Toby Williams, a tramp, hailing from Charleston S. C. was found lurking about the Postoffice last Sunday morning before daylight, and was taken in by a policeman. His case was turned over to a U. S. Commissioner for investigation.

Thomas Foy, colored, arrested as a suspicious character, with a bag of cabbage, which he confessed to having stolen, was turned over to the Magistrate.

Wm. Walker, colored; arrested for drunkenness and disorderly conduct fined $5 or ten days in the city prison.

Three other parties were arraigned on the same charge, but on account of extenuating circumstances judgment was suspended in their cases.

Dink Holmes, colored, was arrested for assault and battery, but the prosecutor withdrawing the suit, the defendant was released upon payment of costs.

John Patton, colored, was found asleep on the street and conveyed to the guardhouse. He was admonished and discharged.

Mary Anderson, arraigned for disorderly conduct, was discharged.

Tilly Hall, alias Matilda French, charged with disorderly conduct, was discharged.

Jane Himes, charged with the same offense was sentenced to pay $5 fine or remain in custody ten days.

Mag McKoy, colored, for a like offence received a similar sentence.

A countryman arrested for drunkenness, was released after spending the night in a cell.

Four retail merchants who were brought up for failing to pay their license tax were fined $5 each.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

FINAL NOTICE TO DELINQUENT TAX-PAYERS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

SALE OF THE Wilmington, Columbia And Augusta Rail Road, Under Decree of Foreclosure

VIRTUE OF A DECREE OF THE Circuit Court of the United States, for the District of North Carolina, 4th Judicial District, made in the case of George S. Brown and Joseph Pratt, trustees complainants, against The Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta Rail Road Company, Defendants, the undersigned, Duncans, Devane, Commissioner appointed by said decree, will sell by public auction, under the highest bidder, at the Court House door in the City of Wilmington, in the state of North Carolina, on WEDNESDAY, THE 21ST DAY OF OCTOBER, A. D. 1879, at 12 o'clock M., the entire real estate, consisting of certain lands, tracts, bridges, and other lands, tracks, bridges, viaducts, Depots, Stations, Houses, Engine Houses, Car Houses, Freight Houses, Wood Houses, Machine Shops, and all other shops, Houses, Buildings and all appurtenances, together with all and singular the Corporate Rights, franchises and privileges of said above named defendant, as the same are set forth in the Indenture of Mortgage referred to in the Bill filed in said cause, and all the estate, rights, title, interest, property claim and demand of said defendant, in and to any and all real and personal property, or effects herein before referred to, or which is owned by said defendant.

TERMS OF SALE. The purchaser will be required to pay in cash, on the day of sale, or within thirty days thereafter, the sum of Twenty thousand Dollars, and the residue of the purchase money in three equal payments, at three, six and nine months, from the day of sale, with interest on each of the payments of six per centum per annum. The certificates of indebtedness mentioned in the Bill and decree in this cause, will be received in payment of any part of the purchase money not required to be paid in cash, in any of the outstanding notes, or the coupons thereon secured by the mortgage, or deed of trust, referred to in the Bill and decree in said cause, to the extent of the pro rata percentage of the purchase money which he is entitled to receive upon the distribution of the proceeds of the said sale under the said decree. The certificates of indebtedness mentioned in the Bill and decree in this cause, will be received in payment of any part of the purchase money except the sum of Twenty thousand Dollars above mentioned, at the same rate as coupons of the mortgage bonds, provided that the coupons pledged as collateral for said certificates, and to like amount thereof, shall accompany and be surrendered with the said certificates.

REASONS WHY PERRY DAVIS' PAIN-KILLER

Best Family Medicine of the Age.

And why it should be kept always near at hand:

1st. PAIN-KILLER is the most certain Cholera cure that medical science has produced.

2nd. PAIN-KILLER, as a Plaster and Dysentery remedy, seldom if ever fails.

3rd. PAIN-KILLER will cure Cramps or Pains of any part of the system. A single dose usually affords a cure.

4th. PAIN-KILLER will cure Dyspepsia and Indigestion, if used according to directions.

5th. PAIN-KILLER will relieve every form of Sudden Colds, Coughs, &c.

6th. PAIN-KILLER has proved a Sovereign Remedy for Fever and Ague, and Chills, &c. It has cured the most obstinate cases.

7th. PAIN-KILLER is a Remedy unexcelled for Head, Stomach, &c.

8th. PAIN-KILLER has cured cases of Rheumatism and Neuralgia after years standing.

9th. PAIN-KILLER will destroy Pains, Frenzy, Whirls, Old Sores, giving relief from pain after the first application.

10th. PAIN-KILLER cures Headache, and Toothache.

11th. PAIN-KILLER will save you days of sickness and misery if taken in time and before the bill.

12th. PAIN-KILLER has been before the public over thirty years and is a purely vegetable preparation, safe to keep and use in every family. The name and the make of the name, together with the great variety of diseases that may be cured by its use, together with the great amount of pain and suffering that can be alleviated through its use, will be found on the wrapper which is supplied to every bottle, and to supply themselves with this valuable remedy and to keep it always near at hand.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

READ.

We stood at an open window Leaning far over the sill; And if something hadn't happened We might have stood there still; But we reached for a hanging shutter In a blinding northeast breeze; So our friends will have to be invited To join in the obsequies.

IF WE COULD ONLY HAVE KNOWN what a storm was brewing (in a metaphorical sense) never have ventured our heads outside of that window; but it is too late for regrets now; we are "dead," completely squelched, have been set upon, and our friends and the public generally are respectfully invited to attend the obsequies.

SATURDAY NEXT

and we stake our reputation on its being the grandest funeral they ever witnessed.

As he slips the slides, and every eye on slides he slips up most wondrously. We leave out "we friends" find out the meaning of the above, and write the thing, so we will ask the following questions:

Hav'n't we the ugliest and dirtiest store in the State?

Hav'n't we the poorest stock of goods in Wilmington?

Hav'n't we made prices much higher than we commenced?

Hav'n't we been very unaccommodating and impolite to you?

Hav'n't we made a great many mistakes and refused to correct them when our utterance was called there?

All of our friends who answer "yes" to the above questions will please not buy from us any more. Respectfully and truly,

P. L. BRIDGERS & CO.

LARGEST RETAIL GROCERY BUSINESS

ever done in Wilmington, we will refuse to have our name put on a tender hearted, and CUT DOWN PRICES, without more.

THE BLOODY CHASM HAS BEEN BRIDGED OVER.

THE LITTLE JOKERS are not quite gone.

A fine line of TOILET SOAPS received to-day, very low down.

THE OLD CAPE FEAR is flourishing and MARTELLE swimming.

We have been over and underbid that "Clear of Peace" in fine Havens it was bid; but we think it would be best, policy on the part of the public to buy from the old firm, as they have the tendency to keep prices very low, which we are doing, with all other good grocers, steady only want enough left to pay for clerk's bare store rent and taxes.

NOT PURITANICAL.

Although opposed to the drinking of Liquors, P. L. BRIDGERS & CO. are not puritans, enough to refuse to sell it, as they think no FIRST CLASS FLY STORE can afford to be without, but they promise the ladies that they would never find out there was any on the premises, as it must be taken elsewhere to be drunk.

BUMGARDNER. STUARTS DEW and DURHAM OLD RYE received this week.

TRY OUR BUTTER AND LARD

The purest, oldest, and best CORN WHISKEY in the State, to be bought only at P. L. BRIDGERS & CO'S.

P. L.—We had highly flattered at the fine taken of our advertisements, especially by a fellow grower, who was not surprised at the exposure of our usual Sunday excursion, on account of one of our friends being gone to New York Saturday night, &c. P. L. B. & CO