THE CONVENTION OF THE REPUBLICANS OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, WILL MEET IN THE CITY OF RALEIGH, ON THE SEVENTH DAY OF JULY, 1880, FOR THE PURPOSE OF NOMINATING TWO ELECTORS AT LARGE, AND STATE OFFICERS, BY ORDER OF STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Late General News. There is an old man living in Orangeburg county, South Carolina, named William Spook, 97 years old, who is the progenitor of 10 living children, the eldest of whom is 75 and the youngest 50, 104 living grand children, 391 living great grand children, and 70 living great great grand children, making in all 575 living descendants, besides 116 who are dead. The old man was of German descent, was born in Orangeburg where he has always lived, and is hale and hearty.

SPLENDID SPEECH OF GENERAL GARFIELD.

In the course of the debate upon the Special Deficiency Bill in the House, after McMahon, Dem., of Ohio, had made a violent speech declaring that the Democratic party would not appropriate money to pay special deputies, notwithstanding the late decision of the Supreme Court to the effect that the election laws were constitutional, thus making them the supreme law of the land, Mr. Garfield nobly said:

"Mr. Chairman, when I took my seat as a Member of this House, I took it with all the responsibilities which the place brought upon me, and among others was my duty to keep the obligations of the law. Where the law speaks in mandatory terms to everybody else and then to me, I should deem it cowardly and dishonorable if I should skulk behind my legislative privileges for the purpose of disobeying and breaking the supreme law of the land. [Applause.]

THE KELLOGG CASE.

When Senator Kellogg was admitted to the Senate it was by a majority vote of 30 to 28 on the following resolution: Resolved, That William Pitt Kellogg be entitled to a seat in the Senate of the United States from the State of Louisiana for the term of six years, commencing on the 4th day of March, 1877, and that he be admitted thereupon upon taking the proper oath.

While this resolution was pending, after midnight of Nov. 30, Senator Edmunds made the following proposition: "I take the liberty to suggest once more the possibility of our coming to an understanding as to taking a vote upon these questions, and I ask that unanimous consent be given in the usual method—not that the Journal shall bind as an order, but the understanding of Senators does. I ask unanimous consent to come to this understanding among Senators: First, to vote on the Kellogg-Spofford case at or before 2:30 A. M. to-day. Second, to vote on the Butler-Corbin case at or before the expiration of one hour after the Kellogg-Spofford case is disposed of."

THE KELLOGG CASE.

After which a line of march was formed, the assembly falling in the rear of the Order, marched around the stone three times, each donating money for the benefit of the church. The stone was then laid, with proper ceremonies, by Past Grand Masters Jno. W. Moore, Geo. W. Price, Jr., and Jacob Johnson. The choir then sang a hymn suitable to the occasion. After which the Master of Ceremonies introduced Past Grand Master Geo. W. Price, Jr., the orator of the day.

The Register of Deeds has issued six marriage licenses this week—two of which were for white and four for colored couples. The Sixteenth Annual Fair of the Sampson County Agricultural Society will be held the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th of December next.

THE CASE OF M. C. BUTLER OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

The case of M. C. Butler of South Carolina, then lay in committee and had not been reported on, but it was understood that Senators Conover and Patterson, both Republicans, would, for reasons known to themselves vote for him, if his case came up. After the vote was taken on the Kellogg resolution, Mr. Thurman rose and said: "I move that M. C. Butler of South Carolina, be sworn in as Senator from that State." This motion passed 29 to 23, both Conover and Patterson, Republicans, voting for it. Both Kellogg and Butler were at once sworn in.

Anybody with half an eye can see from the above facts that this was done by an understanding between the two parties, that both should be admitted, to avoid further controversy. Butler, as well known, had no shadow of title to the seat which he now holds, not having been elected by even a semblance of a legal legislature. He had Wade Hampton's certificate who was himself illegally holding the office of Governor. Now, the Democrats, being in a majority in the Senate, propose to unseat Kellogg. This is a specimen of what the Democrats would do, if they had full power. And it is Democratic honor! We cannot believe that Senator Thurman will lend himself to this atrocious business.

MT. OLIVE CHURCH

Laying of the Corner Stone of Mt. Olive Church, Under the Auspices of the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows.

At 2 o'clock p. m. the procession formed in the Hall of Free Love Lodge and from thence marched to the corner of Dawson and Second streets, in the following order and line of march:

Brass Band, Officers and members of Golden Lyre Lodge No. 1608, Visiting Brothers of the Order, Officers and members of True Love Lodge No. 1469, Past Grand Master's Council No. 47.

LINE OF MARCH.

From Lodge Room corner Dock and Water streets, up Dock to Front, down Front to Wright street, up Wright to Second, up Second to Dawson, where, opening to the right and left, the procession marched in reversed order to the platform, where the ceremonies were performed.

A large number of people of both sexes, all ages and denominations, had previously assembled on the ground, and when the vast crowd followed the procession up to the building and swelled the number the ground was literally covered with the multitude.

On the platform were a number of elders and ministers of the different churches, among them were the Revs. J. G. Fry, G. B. Farmer, E. Robinson, Rev. Conway, Rev. Moten and Rev. R. Lucas. A choir, consisting of members of several church choirs of the city, under the leadership of Prof. Edward Henry, rendered music for the occasion. Rev. J. G. Fry of St. Stephen's church read the opening hymn, which was sung by the choir, after which Rev. G. B. Farmer of St. Luke's church addressed the Throne of Grace. Past Grand Master Jacob Johnson acting N. G.; Past Grand Master J. W. Moore, acting Chaplain, then proceeded to the performance of their respective ritualistic duties. The choir then sang the dedication ode to the tune of Cephas.

The following list of articles were presented for deposit in the corner stone: A sealed document from Dunham Smith; a copy of discipline of Mt. Olive A. M. E. Church, from the church; a copy of the city directory, presented by P. Heinsberger; a sealed letter by J. J. Jones; a copy of the Wilmington Post, by Hon. W. P. Can-
