Gives, in that paper, the following unsolicited testimonial, which speaks for itself:

Office of the Inter-Ocean, Chicago, Jan. 10th, 1880.

Drs. Starkey & Palen—Gentlemen:—It is contrary to my rules to give certificates to the many healing remedies that are advertised, but my experience with Compound Oxygen has been such that I feel it my duty to recommend it to all my acquaintances suffering from overwork and a tendency to pulmonary trouble. In October, 1878, I was in very poor health. My system had been much overtaxed, and a cold contracted in the spring seem to have taken permanent hold on my lungs. I had had several slight hemorrhages, was troubled with a cough, and was much reduced in flesh. I was discouraged and my family alarmed at my condition. A friend in Boston sent my wife one of your little books, strongly recommending your remedy. I was besought to order the Home Treatment, and did so. I followed instructions faithfully, and in three months was a new man. My troubles had almost entirely disappeared. The improvement had been quiet, but certain and sure from the time I first began its use. I feel very grateful to you for it, and wish that I could persuade all suffering in a similar way to perseveringly use your very simple and effective remedy. Business is very confining and exacting, and when I take cold and feel myself running down, I resort to Compound Oxygen, and it is always prompt in its results. I feel like commending it to all. It is not a kill-or-cure remedy. If it does not cure it surely does not injure.

Yours truly, WM. PENN NIXON

Our Treatise on Compound Oxygen, its Action and Results, sent free. Address Drs Starkey & Palen, 1109 and 1111 Girard Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

A New Book Read It.

"Nana," by Emile Zola, has been translated by John Stirling, and is now in full complete and unabridged by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia. The story is a sequel and continuation of "L'Assommoir," but deals with other scenes than those portrayed in its predecessor. "Nana" has a terrible intensity about it. The heroine, is a variety actress, whose charming face and magnificent figure create a furore amongst the fashion of Paris, and the work is a recital of her daily life, on and off the boards—a life of perpetual excitement and of uninterrupted intrigue. Both behind the scenes [illegible] and at her rooms she is [illegible] by a [illegible] occasion, in [illegible] constantly surrounded by a [illegible] of attendents, which counts among its number not only the ordinary men about town, but also members of the nobility, and even a scion of royalty itself—old and young, the rich and the impecunious, are dragged along at her chariot wheels, as though she were a veritable queen of the olden time. The book is a wonderful performance. "Nana" has created a great sensation abroad, and has been hailed by the Press, both of London and Paris, as the literary event of the year, over two hundred thousand copies of "Nana," and "L'Assommoir," having been sold in France. It is complete in one volume, price 75 cents, and will be found for sale by all Booksellers and News Agents, and on all Railroad Trains, or copies of it will be sent to any one, to any place, at once, on remitting 75 cts. in a letter to the Publishers, T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, Pa. For sale at F. Heinsberger's Live Book and Music Store.

SMITHVILLE, N. C., April 15, 1880.

EDITOR OF THE POST:

DEAR SIR.—As the time is now drawing near, when the party authorities will be called upon to do their part of the party's work for which they are intended, and it appearing that the party managers in our county are not properly organized for the usual success of [illegible] that usually in the due course of [illegible] before them. I, as one among many interested for the good management and success of our county, particularly in the county of Brunswick, would suggest that the Executive Committee of the county, at their earliest convenience, call a meeting of the [illegible] and ascertain what they have to do, so you the Committee in working order and whatever may fail, deficient or imperfect in the organization, in the county be at once supplied. I notice see that one of the defects is, the Committee is without a chairman, and it is not very clear to me how a committee of this kind can operate without a chairman. This I regard as a matter of no little consequence just at this time, and ought to be, and I hope will be, attended to now. I suppose the proper plan to supply this defect is for the Executive Committee to meet and appoint one of their number chairman then they will be prepared for the transaction of business, and all communications intended for the chairman will then reach their proper destination.

The Republican party is strong and day-by-day as time goes on, is increasing in strength and numbers, and we have never since the organization of the party, had more to encourage us or more to hope for; but we must not trust too much to strength of numbers and thereby neglect the work part of the business, but rather let us depend more upon a thorough organization as this is the ground dog, the corner stone to our success, now and for all time. It is the easiest matter of all things to throw away an election within our reach, while we rely wholly upon the number of votes we ought to poll and neglect that arrangement necessary to be made to get them polled. So I would, here again, impress the necessity of thorough organization, and let it begin with the Executive Committee, and go on until a thorough and perfect organization is made complete.

Well, Mr. Editor, as far as I see and can hear, the farming interest in Brunswick this season, is not by any means ent.rely neglected, and with the farming interest of the county so greatly advancing as it is, the county out of debt, and the Republican party so largely in the ascendency, with its growing strength, why should we not be a happy and contented people.

BRUNSWICK.

The National Republican thus hits the southern Bourbons who are beginning to go over to Tilden:

The fine hand of Tilden is being shown in the south. The south—the section in which all the high-toned and honorable gentlemen of this country reside—is coming up gradually to the support of Samuel J. Tilden for the Presidency. The press of that locality have at times been fearful in its anathemas against him; it has denounced him, his bar'l his cipher telegrams, and, above all, his lack of pluck in not stealing the office to which he was not elected. All this has been done in the most unmeasured terms and without qualification. Yet the influential papers are beginning already to eat crow. They will support him if nominated, but they do not desire his nomination. Pshaw! That bar'l is irresistible.

Preachers should encourage fashionable dressing. If women were compelled to go to church with a sun bonnet and a plain calico dress on, the congregations wouldn't be as large as they now are by about three-fourths.

Watches, often buying at as low as one-tenth their value, and in no instance have we paid over one-sixth the manufacturers' price. Since starting we have always been able to dispose of these goods in Chicago and through our regular customers throughout the country at nearly regular prices, as fast as we could procure them, but owing to the large number of failures among the heaviest dealers and manufacturers throughout this and other countries during the months of June, July and August (the time when the Jewelry business is stagnant), we have now on hand an immense stock of the most desirable goods we have ever handled, and which we have bought at lower prices than ever before. In order to dispose of this entire stock in the most speedy manner possible, and make room for new ones which we shall continue to buy, we have hit upon the following novel plan:

We propose to give you a list of the most desirable of these goods, giving opposite each article its regular retail value, and sell to you at the rate of Five Dollars' worth for $1.00. Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

It is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use thin hair is thickened, and baldness often though not always cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to brashy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The Vigor cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff; and, by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair,

The Vigor is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.
