THE CONVENTION OF THE REPUBLICANS OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, WILL MEET IN THE CITY OF RALEIGH, ON THE SEVENTH DAY OF JULY, 1880, FOR THE PURPOSE OF NOMINATING TWO ELECTORS AT-LARGE, AND STATE OFFICERS.

BY ORDER OF STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Late General News.

The London Times urges that steps be taken to open English domestic life, the real homes of England, to American visitors. It says that while when an Englishman visits America, houses are opened to him so that he goes back delighted with the country and its people, the average American sees nothing but the streets, parks, hotels, theatres and races. It adds that the more direct the intercourse between English and American homes the brighter will be the prospect of permanent international good will, and that if the legion of travellers can study their blood relations of the mother country they will learn something more than from a ride in Hyde Park and a view of the Epsom races. This is cousinly.

The N. Y. Herald in its financial article, which is authority, says that a remarkable feature of the stock market was the strength with which it faced the Reading suspension. There has been no serious decline outside the coal stocks, and no failures. This may be taken as an evidence that the hard pan in values has been nearly reached, and that, though prices may wear away somewhat more under the attrition of a summer's dullness, no great decline is to be feared.

The Demos, Iowa, State Register complains that English houses are cutting all the black walnut of the west and exporting it to England, that Ohio and Louisiana are now stripped of it, that the raid is now being made on Iowa; and if the price is not put up this valuable wood will soon be as scarce as mahogany.

They had a meeting of Irish men and women at Jones' Wood in New York the other day, at which were present Mrs. Parrell and her daughter, Miss Fannie Parrell, and at which the speakers were Mr. Michael Davitt, the Irish Fishman, John Dillon and James K. O'Connell.

Thomas M. Holt and John Gating, Esq., have purchased the Raleigh News and edited it with Hale's Weekly with Mr. Hale as editor, and with Edwards, Broughton & Co., as publishers.

John Spellman quotes Latin at Best. Of the Democratic papers of the state 20 are for Jarvis, 17 for Fowler, 16 on the fence and 17 non-committal.

Mr. Nichol, the Secretary of the National Hard Money League has been interviewed by the Inter-Ocean, and says that Sherman likes Grant's ideas on the currency better than he does Blaine's, and that if Grant is not nominated on the first ballot Sherman will certainly get the nomination.

Dr. James Freeman Clarke of Boston, preached at the Church of the Messiah, New York, the other Sunday, from the text, "and my feet shall stand in a large place." He said true liberty was self-direction. The law of Jesus teaches perfect freedom, with God there is perfect freedom. Christianity each year casts away some of its errors. Bigotry fades away and humanity is lifted up. The Gospel, as Jesus lived it and taught it, can be compared to nothing so much as to the coming summer, which is rushing up everywhere, filling the brooks with gladness and the air with a great advancing flood of fragrance.

Mr. W. W. Story has just finished the clay model of his statue of Prescott, the Revolutionary General. "In one hand," says the Courier Journal, "he holds a naked sword; the other is extended behind him as if to stay his impatient men, and he is just saying, 'Don't shoot until you can see the whites of their eyes! The firm, resolute mouth, the light in the clear eyes—for it does seem to shine from the very clay—affect one like martial music."

Mrs. Mary Bayard Clarke of the Signal, writes from Kingston that they have a nice circulating library of the International Scientific Series, and some of the works of Darwin and Huxley, and other solid reading, as well as the usual amount of novels. In this respect they are ahead of Newberne, which only has a library of novels, and that but a small one, kept by Mrs. Susan Stanly at her book store.

LATEST NEWS.

That pure patriot "H. C." of the Times, it will have been noticed, has not become angry over the conduct of Mr. A. M. Jones, a collector of Internal Revenue, and one of the most influential Grant men around Chicago. Why doesn't "H. C." howl at this "official tool" of Sherman working for Grant? If Jones had been working for Sherman the conscientious and pure minded "H. C." would have trotted him out as a "political trickster." It makes a difference whose ox is gored.

Ex-Governor Chamberlain of South Carolina, attorney for the complainants in the South Carolina Railroad suit, won a victory before Chief Justice Waite and Judge Bond, holding Circuit Court at Charleston, and where the Chief Justice having decided in favor of the sale of the road in accordance with Gov. Chamberlain's argument, whereupon Chief Justice Waite remarked, at the close, that he never heard a case which had been better prepared and more ably argued, and that it afforded him genuine gratification to preside over it.

Forty-five white persons have emigrated from Haywood and Henderson counties to Montana. They are said to be influential citizens. Senator Vance ought to get Voorhees' smelling committee to investigate them. What business have they to leave North Carolina?

Senator Matt. Ransom has secured $30,000 more to the Cape Fear improvement, making $70,000 in all. Good.

These two Senators, Beck and Voorhees, both of whom did all they could to aid the rebellion, objected to Horace Maynard in executive session because he was, as they say, partisan in reconstruction. But Senator Bailey of Tennessee, a Democrat, vouched for his high character and integrity, and advocated his confirmation. Things have come to a pretty pass when a patriot like Maynard is objected to as unfitted for office by two ex-rebels like Beck and Voorhees.

FROM WASHINGTON.

HOW THE DEMOCRATS ARE TRYING TO ADJOURN—WHAT A DEMOCRAT THINKS OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY—AN INDIVIDUAL OPINION ON NATIONAL POLITICS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 26, 1880.

A PROMISE MADE ONLY TO BE BROKEN.

The Democrats not only promised an early adjournment, but they went so far as to name the day. Like all of their recent promises it was only made to be broken. The business of Congress is not much further advanced than it was ten days ago. Many of the members of both parties have gone home within the last ten days to attend to political matters, and the approaching Chicago convention will add to the number of absentees. A House officer said last Tuesday that over seventy members had left orders to have their mail sent to their respective homes for the remainder of the session. That means that they do not expect to return this session. At this rate the House will soon be without a quorum. The real work of the session will be prevented, and July 1st, sergeant-at-arms hunting up absentees to make a quorum to adjourn. The way the Democratic majority has dandled and fiddled along in almost everything it has attempted to do is most clearly shown in the attempt made to adjourn to June 1st.

NO PLACE TO STORE THE SILVER DOLLARS.

The government is, by law, compelled to coin about 20,000,000 silver dollars each month. The people don't want them, and the pile has grown so great that the Treasury Department has no place in which to store them safely. Recently the Secretary of the Treasury asked for an appropriation to provide for the safe keeping of this mass of silver. The Democrats who passed the law compelling its coinage, who fixed the rate so that the dollar should contain only about 83 cents worth of silver and who have failed to provide any means to put their cheat of a dollar in circulation all voted solid against providing for the safe keeping of this money.

OUR LAST BOAT RACE.

Wilmington people are interested in boating matters, for, if my memory serves, you have some good amateur oarsmen. In my last letter I noticed the miserable farce we were treated to, in the Hanlan-Courteney race. That we might see some real skill at sculling our citizens raised a purse of $2,000 in order that Hanlan might be induced to stay and row with Riley, who is almost a first class sculler. The race came off yesterday afternoon. The same game was played a second time. In other words, "there was no race at all." Riley's excuse is that he broke the spring of the foot-board of his boat at the end of the first mile, and so he was not able to make Hanlan row for even a good practice pull.

MY OWN OPINION IN POLITICS.

By the time this letter meets the eyes of the readers of the Post, the clans of the Republican party will have gathered at Chicago. To tell what the real result will be beyond the power of any living person. My own opinion is that General Grant will be nominated. That is to say, if General Grant is not nominated, it seems to me that the Grant men will unite on Secretary Sherman.

I have heard a good ticket mentioned. It is Edmunds for President and Windom of Maine for Vice-President. It is a strong combination. But all this is mere speculation. We shall see what we shall see.

CRAVEN COUNTY REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The Republicans of Craven county met in convention at the court house in Newberne, on Thursday, the 20th inst., to elect two delegates to attend the Congressional Convention to be held at Goldsboro on the 1st day of July next, and also to elect delegates to attend the State Convention.

The Convention was temporarily organized by calling Col. Thomas Powers to the chair, and appointing John B. Willis, Secretary.

The entire roll of delegates (33) were present, every township and ward being fully represented.

E. R. Dudley was elected by acclamation permanent chairman, and on taking the chair delivered an able and eloquent address.

Edmund Bill was elected permanent Secretary.

The following persons were selected as delegates to the Congressional Convention for the 2nd District:—Robert Hancock, Jr., and John B. Willis; alternates, John S. Maix and P. J. Lee.

For the State Convention, Col. Theo. Powers, L. J. Moore, George H. White and E. B. Dudley; alternates, W. M. Draney, Henry James, William Pettiphar and Joseph Mumford.

Resolutions were adopted reaffirming Republican principles; endorsing Gen. Grant for President, and Senator Blaine as the second choice; endorsing Judge Mettelle for Vice-President; W. P. Bynum for Governor; Orlando Hubbs as a candidate for Congress of the 2nd District, and they also adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the present system of county government in North Carolina, is utterly subversive of the rights of the people, is the greatest political robbery ever practiced in this or any country, is the most damnable fraud ever devised or sanctioned by any political party, and calls for the unqualified condemnation of all who would bear the name of freemen, without regard to affiliation.

The Convention then adjourned amid great enthusiasm and a determination to do their part to carry the state and the 2nd district for the Republicans.

The contract was awarded to Brown, notwithstanding McQuigg's bid was $45 less than Brown's. Nobody doubts McQuigg's capacity to do the work.

ATTEMPT TO BREAK JAIL.—Wednesday morning last an attempt was made to break jail by George Myers and Joseph Campbell, the former now charged with burglary, and the latter with larceny. The men had broken out of the cell and attempted to gain their liberty by tearing up the floor. After getting up two or three planks they discovered that it was a double floor. They then decided to call jailer Howard and strike him down as he entered the door. As soon as he reached the door "Crazy Nathan" who was in the jail for safe keeping warned the jailer to look out as there was some one in the galleries. Howard saw some one standing behind the heater and fired in that direction, when the men ran. The door was then opened, and with the assistance of two policemen the men were captured and ironed.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

ROOMS NATIONAL MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION, WILMINGTON, N. C., May 30, 1880.

At a meeting of the National Memorial Association, it was decided not to have a formal procession and parade on the occasion of decorating the graves of the Union Dead at the National Cemetery this year. This course was determined upon for several reasons, among which are, that the Committee deem the occasion too sacred to warrant the indulgence of a noisy and boisterous demonstration, such as are usual in general parades, and that it is not an appropriate way of paying that respect and honor to the memory of the Nation's Dead for which these services were inaugurated.

The public are respectfully invited and requested to assemble, in such a manner as they may choose, at the National Cemetery, on east Market street, at 4 o'clock on Monday, the 31st day of May, where the following services will take place, which will be introduced by

A RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.—Mr. Ezra Thomas, a well-known and respected citizen, and a staunch Republican of Brunswick county, accompanied by his daughter, started Tuesday morning last, with a horse and buggy to come to this city, and when on the causeway near Eagle Island, between the two ferries, the horse took fright and becoming unmanageable, ran away. Mr. Thomas managed to keep the animal in the road for some time, but at last the horse got the better of the driver and sheered off from the road, by which both occupants of the buggy were thrown into the ditch with considerable force. Miss Thomas, we are pleased to state, escaped without any injury further than an excessive fright, but Mr. Thomas received a severe bruise upon the arm, and a laceration of the forehead. Dr. F. W. Potter of this city, was called upon and rendered such professional assistance as the nature of the case required. Our information is to the effect that the injuries to Mr. Thomas, although very painful for the present, are not of a serious nature. We regret to have to chronicle this frightful accident, and congratulate Mr. Thomas and his fair daughter, on their lucky escape without any serious injury which might have proven fatal to one or both of them. We hope soon to hear of his entire recovery.

THE NORTH AMERICAN.—We own up and apologise for a neglect in not noticing the two last numbers of this great and progressing monthly. It is an intellectual work that is so full of the best brain-work of America, that we always desire to keep the public informed as to what matter it contains. The May number contains the following articles:—Gen. Grant and a Strong Government, by Hon. Juny S. Black; the Religion of all Sensible men, by Leslie Stephen; McLellan's Last Service to the Republic, by Geo. T. Curtis; Ralph Waldo Emerson, by F. H. Underwood; the Monroe Doctrine and the Isthmian Canal; and Recent Aistory and Biography, by A. Gustafson.

The June number contains:—Popular Fallacies about Russia, E. W. Stoughton; Divorces in New England, Dr. Nathan Allen; McLellan's Last Service to the Republic, third article; Has the Southern Pulpit failed, Rev. Dr. F. Shoup; Gaste at West Point, Prof. P. S. Michie; Some Interesting Publications, M. W. Hazeltine.

We commend especially Dr. Allen's article Don't divorce in New England as startling. Dr. Shoup's article on the Southern Pulpit, and Prof. Michie's article on Gaste at West Point, in the June number; and Judge Black's article on Grant, Mr. Stephen's article on Religion, and Fred. Underwood's article on Emerson in the May number.

"Lucie Rodey" is the name of the New Society Novel, written by Henry Greville, author of "Dosis," "Savell's Expiation," and "Senia," which has been admirably translated into English, from the French, by Mary Neal Sherwood, and as Edmond About has just written a novel to prove the existence of domestic virtues in France, Americans who, as a rule, know little of France outside of Paris, are apt to deny the possibility of such. Let them therefore, read "Lucie Rodey," Madame Greville's new romance, in which they will find the wife and mother "faithful unto death," though exposed to trials and temptations. "Lucie Rodey" teaches a great lesson, which will be felt even by those who read it with breathless interest merely for the sake of the story. It will be issued in a few days by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, in uniform style with "Dosis," and "Senia," "Savell's Expiation," and other works by Henry Greville, published by this firm.
