NOTICE.
Rooms District Executive Committee
Fayetteville, N. C., July 5, 1880.
There will be a Convention of the Republicans of the Third Congressional District on the 20th day of July, 1880, at Smithville, N. C., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress and a Presidential elector.
O. H. BLOCKER, Chairman.
J. S. S. LEARY, Secretary.

LATELY.
Penton, "the nephew of his uncle" is dead.
Senator Mahone of Virginia has passed a Resolvent Hancock and English tickets to be nominated in Virginia.

The rooms of the National Republican Committee are established at No.
24, Fifth Avenue, New York.
There is rumor that Gen. Arthur will resign as chairman of the N. C.
State Committee.

The Republican of the Fourth (Raleigh) District have put in nomination Hon. Moses A. Hildesoe of Raleigh for member of Congress of that District. He was a few years ago chairman of the Democratic State Committee, but accepts the Republican nomination now, and they all shake their heads around Raleigh, and say that he will give Gen. W. R. Cox a close run.

There are a good many sick Democrats around here since the nomination of Hoxton and the rest of the ticket at Raleigh.

It was a little curious that Gov.
Jarriss should come down to Burgaw within 20 miles of Wilmington and not give his friends in this city a call.
Was he not invited?

The reason Col. Dockery did not get only 17 votes for Governor in the Convention was that Mr. Badger, who nominated him had withdrawn his name. This is stated in justice to Col.
Dockery.

The Notre Dame has a bee in its bonnet on the subject of Gen. Hancock's anxiety when it says that he is a grandson of John Hancock who was president of the Continental Congress in 1776 and signed the Declaration of Independence, in big letters. He died without issue and gave nearly all his property to Harvard College.

GARFIELD AND ARTHUR CLUB IN PENDER.
Our correspondent sends us a communication from Burgaw, which we regret is crowded out.

The Republicans are alive in Pender and are getting ready to form a GAR-FIELD and ARTHUR club. They have already held one meeting. The get-togoer continues "I never witnessed more harmony, good feeling and determination to make our great cause victorious on Nov. 3d, 1880."

Monday, the great "Lion" as called by themselves, the Democrats made a desperate effort to get a crowd together, to raise a Hancock and English flag and to follow after and pull the coat tail of the great Railroad King, Gov.
Jarriss, but with all this not a sound was heard, except a mighty heaving, to get rid of some of the bad whiskey, that was administered quite freely to try to get up a little enthusiasm in honor of the address of H. A. E. flag and the King.
The "Lion" is all in all, and it was the target of the so extensively advertised, it has ever been my misfortune to witness, and can well be termed a fastidiot. Had the right spirit been manifested, to make it a gala day—a day to pay reverence and respect to deeds done by our forefathers, it would have doubtless been a grand success. But the good people of our noble little Pender are determined not to be fooled into giving countenance or aid to a political trick.

He adds moreover that the nominations at Raleigh by the Republicans creates the greatest enthusiasm in Pender. Everybody says it is the strongest state ticket in twenty years. Victory, victory.

Our State Convention was a wise one; it nominated the ticket that gives the "Democrats" the bilious colic.

THE REPUBLICAN STATE CON-VENTION.

Last Day.
JUNE 8th.
The Convention met at about 10
A. M.
The first business was the consideration of the new plan of organization.
We have not had a full copy of the report of the committee but will publish it next week. The changes were not very material from the old plan except in minor details, such as the appointment of the state committee by the Congressional Districts, instead of by the chairman of the State Convention, as has heretofore been the practice. The new plan adopted is the same in principle as is usually adopted by the National Republican Conventions.

During the discussion on this subject some member introduced a resolution censuring the committee of the 3d.
Congressional District, and the county committee of New Hanover for appointing delegates to Chicago, and to the State Convention. Inasmuch as this had been done by the State Executive Committee nomine contra- dicti, in selecting the delegates at large, and by the several Congressional Committees without exception, excepting the 2nd, Congressional District, the Hon. R. C. Badger moved to lay the resolution on the table, which was done unanimously.

The Convention then elected Dr. J.
J. Mott of Fredell and Col. I. J. Young of Wake, members of the State Committee at large.

They also confirmed the election by Districts of the following:

- 1st Congressional District—A. H. Hicks of Beaufort.
- 2nd Congressional District—Mar- field Thornton of Warren.
- 3rd Congressional District—W. P. Canaday of New Hanover.
- 4th Congressional District—C. M. Rogers of Crayville.
- 5th Congressional District—T. B. Keogh of Guilford.
- 6th Congressional District—D. A. Jenkins of Gaston.
- 7th Congressional District—T. N. Cooper of Fredell.
- 8th Congressional District—J. B. Eares of Rutherford.

The Hon. William A. Moore of Chowan becomes a member of the State Committee ex-officio.
There was considerable discussion during the session, but finally at about 3 P. M., on motion of Hon. W. P. Canaday of New Hanover, three rousing cheers were given for the National tickets, GARFIELD and ARTHUR; three for the state ticket of North Carolina; and three for the invincible and glorious Republican party. And thus ended the most intelligent, enthusiastic and harmonious convention ever held in North Carolina, by any party. Everybody went away confident and determined that the ticket would be carried to triumph and victory in November, and the rights of the people and the interests and honor of the Old North State be vindicated, by the Buxtons, the Barringtons, the Normants, the Moores, the Duckeries and the Eerrits, and hosts of other champions of her honor and glory.

We ought to mention that where we said, in our "Notes on the Convention," on the inside column, "40,000 to 50,000 whites," our western friends claim that it should read "50,000 to 60,000 whites," and where we said "70,000 to 80,000 colored," it is claimed there are not more than 65,000. This calculation is based on the statistics showing the large emigration of colored people to the Gulf States, Texas, the north and places south of here, and the great number of whites, especially young men who have come over to the Republicans, as the only hope for future for North Carolina.

IN MEMORIAM.
In this city, on the 8th inst., after a long and painful illness, Mary Love, daughter of Sylvester and Lucie A.
Petteway, aged 9 years, 6 months and 3 days.

Death has robbed us of a loved one.
None knew little Mary, but to love her.
Sweet, gentle and kind, she won as it were, "love at first sight." She was too pure for this world, heaven was her home. Weep not widows and father, sorrow not find friends, though the Dark Robed Angel of Death has hovered around your fireside, and clashed in his cold grasp our little darling. Let us remember that she has reached that sphere for which we "must fight if we would win." She has gone to that home where sickness, sorrow, pain and death are unknown, and that "our loss is her everlasting gain." Then let us prepare ourselves so that when death's cold, icy hand is placed upon us, we may go to her she cannot come to us.

EN QUAD.

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.
ADOPTED AT RALEIGH JULY 7th.

The Hon. R. C. Badger, chairman of the Committee on Platform and Resolutions, reported from that committee the following:
The Republicans of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, renew the pledges made in all their former platforms. And they declare as follows:
1. That they cordially approve the resolutions, recently made at Chicago, of James A. Garfield for President, and Chester A. Arthur for Vice-President; and that they will most cheerfully and actively devote themselves to their election, as indispensable to the preservation of the Republican party, and of our liberties, in this country. And that they fully endorse the principles set forth in the platform, adopted by the Republican convention, which convened in the city of Chicago, on the 2nd day of June 1880.

2. That they have seen, with great apprehension and alarm, the rapid consolidation and extension of our railroad systems, by and under the control and ownership of foreign monopolists—that such consolidation of capital gives power to the monopolists to oppress the labor of the country by unreasonable and unjust local tariffs and rates, and to use their power to control the legislative branch of government, in the passage of laws in their interest, and injurious to those of the people; and that they have seen with regret, that these monopolists are making an insidious invasion among the leaders of the Democratic party, which culminated on the 17th day of June, in the engulfing and swallowing up of the whole Democratic State convention; and that while they have no desire or intention to make an artificial war upon these monopolies, they do demand that the Legislature shall pass laws to govern and control them, so that they shall not be permitted to oppress against our own people, and place a reasonable limit on local tariffs and rates.

3. That they view with anxiety the condition of the Western North Carolina Railroad, which, through the hot haste and ill-considered contracts of the Democratic State administration, is surrounded by legal troubles, which afford a pretext for taxation, and threaten to delay for a long time, if not altogether defeat, the completion of that work so necessary for the welfare and development of the state, and especially the western counties.

4. That the Republican party has always been the friend of education, and now again renews its pledge to the people of North Carolina, to continue its efforts with increased vigor, until there shall be a complete and perfect system of public instruction.
5. That they recognize the medicine and science as the bone and sinew of the land, and pledge themselves to protect their rights and promote their physical, educational, and material interests.

6. That the recent constitutional amendments were passed by a convention which was not composed of a majority of elected delegates, and the central of which was stolen, from the Republican majority, by an infamous and admitted fraud on the votes of Robeson county. This corrupt and illegal part of the Democratic administration the fact that their party will scrupulously maintain the law in the interest of party supremacy; and that the Democratic party is not the friend of representative government or of the people.

7. That the present system of county government in North Carolina is utterly adverse to the rights of the citizen; is the greatest political robbery ever practiced in this, or any civilized country; is the most damnable fraud ever devised or executed by any political party, and calls for the indignation and condemnation of all who have the name of freemen, without regard to party affiliation. We claim the right of the people to elect every officer in the state, from the Chief Executive down to the humblest official; and demand that this right shall not be denied on the pretext that an honest count shall follow a free ballot, and the majority shall determine who shall enact and administer its laws.

8. They denounce the Democratic party as an oligarchy, controlled by railroad corporations and speculative interests, and if not arrested in its course, it will overthrow the most cherished rights of the people. The tendency to the concentration of dangerous powers, for private and corrupt ends, in the hands of a few, has recently manifested itself in a vital part of our State government, and in a way to excite the greatest apprehension.
The Superintendent of Public Instruction, now endorsed by his party nomination, and without regard to the popular wish, has demanded to have vested in his hands, that is in the hands of a central board of which he should be the life, the absolute right of dictating what text books our children shall use, whereby he can mould the opinions of the rising generation; can strangle, for the benefit of personal or sectional favorites, all competition in local text-books, and open up for his office, so intimately connected with the popular life and purity, a faithful and profitable source of corrupt jobbery.
That they denounce the laws known as the landlord and tenant acts, as devised for the benefit of a few, to oppress the humble and defenceless citizen. That they denounce the present road laws of the state, as oppressive to the laborer, and demand their amendment, so that burdens of building and repairing them shall be borne more equally by all classes of the people.
The report was adopted.

Herrick, Herrick, Herrick, and thirty-three thousand Herricks for Garfield and Arthur, Buxton and our wife of York Elkins, accidentally caught fire Thursday morning, about 1 o'clock, but the flames were extinguished without much damage.

DEATH OF A FAMOUS SCOUT.—News has reached here that "Texas Jack," whose real name was J. B. Omohundro, a famous scout of the plains, died at Leadville, Col., June 25th. He will be remembered by many of our readers as having accompanied Buffalo Bill on his first appearance here some years ago, and was his right-hand man on the stage. He also passed through here about a year ago in company with Dr.
Carver. He was an Englishman by birth, but came to this country when quite a youth, since which time he has been almost constantly on the frontier, where he gained great notoriety as an Indian scout. He was one of the best of scouts, and has rendered some valuable services during our late Indian troubles.
