DR. TANNER'S FAST. This now famous gentleman has today reached his 27th day without food or stimulants. He takes nothing but water, sometimes Croton and sometimes spring water, iced, to the amount of 16 to 30 cunces per day. The introduction into his system of nitrogen and oxygen contained in the water is his only nutriment. On Thursday morning last Dr. Tanner felt some indications of vertigo, but was better at noon. He entered upon his twenty-fifth day of fasting, in good spirits and feeling well. He drank a pint of water after midnight. This is not the only instance of ab staining from the use of food. It is re lated by F. J. Hale, Esq., writing from New York to the Baleigh News that a manin Wautauga county, of this state, fasted 38 days and then died. Also 90 years ago a man in or near Baltimore lived 10 days without food. There was another case, we think in Marblehead, Mass., where a man lived 40 days without food. We suppose that there may have been other instances which will come to light. Dr. W. B. Lee of Mar-. ion, Illinois, writes to Dr. Tanner that he has fasted 24 days.

GEN. ARTHUR'S ACCEPTANCE AN ABLE, MANLY, AND COM-PREHENSIVE LETTER.

THE MAIN POINTS OF THE CONTEST-HONESTY AND ORDER IN ELECTIONS -THE METHODS OF THE DEMOCRA-TIC PARTY SEVERELY CRITICISED-THE PUBLIC SERVICE PLANK IN THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM-FINAN-CIAL MATTERS.

Following is the letter of Gen. Chester A. Arthur, addressed to the Hon. G. F. Hoar, Chairman of the Republican National Convention, accepting the nomination for the Vice-Presidency:

'NNW YORK, July 15, 1880. DEAR SIR: I accept the position as igned me by the great party whose action you announce. This acceptance implies approval of the principles declared by the Convention, but recent usage permits me to add some expression of my own views. The right and duty to secure honesty and order in that it must stand in front. The cording to his own will and conscience, authority of the National Government to preserve from frand and force elections at which its own officers are chosen is a chief point on which the two parties are plainly and intensely opposed. Acts of Congress for ten ears have, in New York and elsewhere done much to curb the violence and wrong to which the ballot and the count have been again and again subjectedsometimes despoiling great cities, some times stifling the voice of a whole State, often seating, not only in Congress, but on the Bench and in Legislatures, numbers of men never chosen by the tion. Our paper currency is now as people. The Democratic Party, since good as gold, and silver is performing gaining possession of the two houses of its legitimate function for the purpose Coggress, has made these just laws the of change. The principles which direct of bitter, ceaseless assault, and, should govern the relations of these elwith restrictions cunningly contrived clear. There must be no deteriorated to battle and paralyse them. This ag- coin, no depreciated paper. And every gressive majority boldly attempted to extort from the Executive his approval f various enactments destructive of hese Election laws, by revolutionary threats that a constitutional exercise of the yeto power would be punished by withholding the appropriations neces ary to carry on the Government. And hese threats were actually carried out ov refusing the needed appropriations, and by foreing an extra session of Congress, lasting for months and resulting in concessions of this usurping demand, which are likely, in many States, to subject the majority to the lawless will of a minority. Ominous signs of pubhe disapproval alone subdued this arrogant power into a sallen sarrender for the time being of a part of its demands. The Republican party has strongly approved the stern refusal of its representatives to suffer the overthrow of statutes believed to be salutary and just. It has always insisted, and now insists, that the Government of the United States of America is jempowared and in duty bound to offcenally protect the elections denoted by the Constitution as national. More than this the Republican party holds as a cardinal point in its ereed, that the Government should, by every means known to the Constitution, protect all American citizens eveaywhere n the full enjoyment of their civil and political rights. As a great part of its work of reconstruction, the Republican party gave the ballot to the emancipaed slave as his right and defense. A arge increase in the number of mem bers of Congress, and as the Electoral College, from the former slave holding history of recent years abounds in evidence that in many ways and in many places-especially where their number has been great enough to endanger Democratic control - the very men b whose elevation to citizenship this in crease of representation was effected have been debarred and robbed of their voice and their vote. It is true that no State statute or Constitution in so many words denies or abridges the exercise of their political rights; but the modes effectual. It is a suggestive and start-ling thought that the increased power derived from the entranchisement of a employed to bar their way are no less race new denied its share in governing its present control of the national legie. the country-wielded by these who lately sought the overthrow of the Gevernment-is now the sole reliance to defeat the party which represented has in almost every southern state rethe sovereignty and nationality of the American people in the greatest crisis of our history. Republicans cherish none of the resentments which may have animated, them during the actual Resolved. That this convention on and real reconciliation between the sec-of thought, conscience, and action, and equality of opportunity shall be not merely cold formalities of statute, but living birthrights, which the humble may confidently claim and the power-

The resolution referring to the publie service seems to me deserving of approval. Surely, no man should be the incumbent of an office the duties of which he is for any cause unfit to perform, who is lacking in the ability fidelity, or integrity which a proper administration of such office demands. This sentiment would doubtless meet with general acquiescence, but opinion County Officers of Brunswick for the has been widely divided upon the wisdom and practicability of the various reformatory schemes which have been suggested, and of certain proposed reg-ulations giving appointments to publie office. The efficiency of such regulations has been distrusted, mainly because they have seemed to exalt mere educational and abstract tests above general business capacity, and even special fitness for the particular work in hand. It seems to me that the rules which should be applied to the management of the public service may properly conform, in the main, to such as regulate the conduct of successful private business. Original appointments should be based upon ascertained fitness. The tenure of office should be stable. Positions of responsibility should so far as practicable, be filled by the promotion of worthy and efficient officers. The investigation of all complaints, and the punishment of all official misconduct, should be prompt and thorough. These views, which I have long held, repeatedly declared, and uniformly applied when called upon to act, I find embodred in the resolution, which, of course, I approve. I will add that, by the acceptance of public office, whether high or low, one does not, in my judgment, escape any of his responsibilities as a citizen, or lose or impair any of his rights as a citizen, and that he should enjoy absolute liberty to think and popular elections is a matter, so vital speak and act in political matters ac-fully, and fully discharges all his offi-The resumption of specie payments -one of the fruits of Republican policy-has brought the return of abundant prosperity, and the settlement of many distracting questions. The re-storation of sound money, the large reduction of our public debt and of the burden of interest, the high advancement of the public credit, all attest the ability and courage of the Republican party to deal with such financial problems as may hereafter demand soludollar, whether of metal or paper should stand the test of the world's fixed standard The value of popular education can hardly be overstated. Although its interests must of necessity be chiefly confided to voluntary effort and the individual action of the several states, they should be encouraged, so far as the Constitution permits, by the generous co-operation of the National Government. The interests of the whole country demand that the advantages of our common school system should be brought within the reach of every citizen, and that no revenues of the Nation or of the states should be devoted to the support of sectarian schools. Such changes should be made in the present tariff and system of taxation as will relieve any overburdened industry or class, and enable our manufacturers and artisans to compete successfully with those of other lands, The Government should aid works of internal improvement national in their character, and should promote the derelopment of our water-courses and harbors wherever the general interests of commerce require. Four years ago, as now, the Nation stood at the threshold of a Presidential election, and the Republican Party, in soliciting a continuance of its ascendency, founded its hope of success, not tary, upon its promises, but upon its history. Its subsequent course has been such as to strengthen the claims which it then made to the confidence and support of the country. On the other hand, considerations more urgent than have ever before existed forbid the accession of its opponents to power. Their success if success attends them, must chiefly come from the nuited support of that section which sought the forcible disruption of the Union, and which, according to all the teachings of our past history, will demand ascendency in the councils of the party to whose triumph it will have made by far the largest contribution. There is the gravest reason for appre hension that exorbitant claims upon the public Treasury, by no means limited to the hundreds of millions already covered by bills introduced in Congress lature by electing the Executive also. There is danger in intrusting the control of the whole law-making power of the Government to a party which pediated obligations quite as sacred as those to which the faith of the Nation now stands pledged. I do not doubt that success awaits ization fully earried out. the Republican Party, and that its triumph will assure a just, economical, and patriotic Administration. I'am, MURDER,-Steven Richardson committed a most diabolical murder on Monday night. THUNDER STORMS-Ine thunder and lightning have been porticularly severe during the past week. The peals of thunder and flashes of lightning have been of so violent a nature as to inspire nearly every one with awe. The residence of Mr. A. D. Brown was struck and several rooms rained. His cook and housekeeper were stunned but have recovered from the effects. The fluid ran down the chimney and set the house on fire. The residence of Mr. R. S. Jones was also struck. The fluid ran in the house on the bell wire and the door post were Iset on fire. Mr. struck on Thursday, a portion of the front wall was knocked out and the furniture in the room badly shattered. His nurse was koncked down, though she was not hart to any lextent. A Miss Sheppard living at the corner of Fourth and Market streets was also struck. We are happy to state that so far as we have been able to ascertain there has been no loss of life from this cause in this city. During the prevalence of the storms the telephones were popping and and cracking and frequently sparks have been seen to jump from the wires.
