WILMINGTON POST

ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT WILMINGTON, N. C., AS SECOND CLASS MATTER.

Latest.

The President on account of the pressure of public business declines the invitation to be present at the Centennial of the battle of Cowpens at Spartanburg South Carolina.

The United States Supreme Court previous to adjournment made a new allotment as follows: First Circuit, Justice Harlan; Second Circuit, Justice Hunt; Third Circuit, Justice Bradley; Fourth Circuit, Chief Justice Waite; Fifth Circuit, Justice Woods; Sixth Circuit, Justice Bradley; Seventh Circuit, Justice Harlan; Eighth Circuit, Justice Miller; Ninth Circuit, Justice Field. It will be perceived that Justice Harlan had the double work of the First and Seventh Circuits, and Justice Bradley the double work of the Third and Sixth Circuits. This is in consequence of the resignation of Justice Swayne and the long illness of Justice Clifford, which threatens not to permit him to sit again on that august bench.

What is thought of the late speech in the Senate of Senator Vance out of the office may be known by the following from the Louisville Commercial:

Mr. Vance, of North Carolina, delivered the speech which he announced on the 7th. Mr. Vance's oratory, both in manner and matter, is unequalled to the Senate chamber, as he himself appeared to realize today.

His speech was such a one as would have created wild enthusiasm among an audience of Democrats if it had been delivered on the hustings in North Carolina. His state jokes, not to say his puns, stories and paraphrases would have been more keenly relished by such an audience than they were by those who heard them.

Commissioner Le Duc has received a number of packages of American teas from an experimental tea farm in South Carolina, and invited several tea dealers in this city and Baltimore to examine it. They pronounce it very good tea, and say it compares favorably with the East India teas.

Judge Thomas Settle opened the U. S. District Court at Pensacola, Florida, on Monday, but in the absence of the District Attorney all the criminal cases were continued until the next term in March 1882.

The second plenary sitting of the Monetary Conference was held on Wednesday. The discussion was opened by the German delegate declaring that he had changed his mind. Mr. Everett and his colleagues, on the part of the United States, stated their purpose to visit England and to confer with the authorities on the currency.

A GUSH IN THE SENATE.

In the Senate on Thursday four or five nominations were withdrawn, and three were confirmed. On the 4th Senator Dawes from his committee reported that they didn't yield an inch, and Mr. Conkling said the Senate could now adjourn in about ten days after he had disposed of about 300 nominations and some treaties.

Call then put in a word, and then, as soon as the Vice-President announced that unfinished business was in order, Dawes was again on his legs. He was in his very happiest mood. He saw revolution growing out of his request for an acceptance of his report. It was an occasion when the members could grip their loins and fiat on the pious anxiety, to the four quarters of the universe. The Capitol would be deserted and also both ends of the avenue.

When the 5th had arrived, the Senate in a fit of activity had confirmed about eighty-eight of the President's nominations, ratified the Chinese immigration treaty, then also the Commercial Treaty. The Senate next ratified in quick succession the extradition treaty with the United States of Colombia, the consular convention with Italy, the convention with Morocco, and the treaty with Japan relative to reciprocal duties of the United States and Japan in cases of shipwrecks upon their respective coasts.

And Dawes had telegraphed the following to the New England newspapers: "Please say to-morrow that all statements made by me or any committee of which I am or have been a member, in relation to the nomination of Robertson, or that I have recommended to him or to the caucus that action on the nomination be postponed to another session, are false. The fabrication of facts at this end of the wire and those at the other end who use the fabrication as true, beat themselves, not me."

THE SENATE SATURDAY.

On May 6th the excitement had not abated at all, over the dead-lock, Senator Conkling was jubilant that the nomination were sent to the rear, and was mustering his forces for sending to the rear the whole 300. The President fired his bomb-shell, and declared that Robertson must be confirmed. He takes the ground that there is no sufficient reason for withdrawing Robertson. There is some talk that the emergency of the situation now require another caucus, and it is not improbable that one will be held Saturday. A very interesting question is, what will the President do with the candidates withdrawn in case Judge Robertson is confirmed. The President's friends say that in such an event he will renominate them, because not to do so would be a tacit acknowledgment that they were unworthy to be nominated at all. The President's motives as construed by his friends, in making the withdrawals, was to prevent the New York Senator from making any discriminations touching New York appointments.

It is certain, however, that public feeling is largely with the President. Already he is in receipt of telegrams from all quarters and from Democrats as well as Republicans, endorsing his action. It is considered certain now that Robertson will be confirmed. A large proportion of the Democratic Senators will vote for him.

There may have been a Republican caucus on Saturday, which will put a different face on things, or prolong matters. In the meantime Conkling keeps a stiff upper lip.

At Albany among the Republicans the President's policy was the main question. They were comparing Garfield to a second Andrew Jackson.

SMITHVILLE ITEMS.

Thomas Morse, the son of Kit Morse, of Smithville, had a fight near the Methodist Church on last Sunday night with Edward Daniels. They were tried on Monday before Lewis Gallows, J. P., and found guilty and made to pay a small fine and costs. Such conduct ought to have been severely punished. We understand that this young man Morse is another of the Morse family who behaves very badly. Such men as Bryant Morse and Thos. Morse should be properly dealt with. Men who are in the habit of getting drunk, fighting, &c., are a public nuisance to any place. And the sooner the officers of the law find out that such men must be treated as other violators of the law the better it will be for Smithville. We suppose that the officers are afraid of the families of these fellows. If that is the case we hope the present Magistrate will be compelled by public opinion to do their duty. If public opinion will not have the desired effect, then an indictment by a Grand Jury might have. One good Justice of the peace would give Smithville the peace it ought to have. It is hoped by the citizens that the new Mayor will take hold of the matter and enforce the law.

The Senate has confirmed the nomination of Hon. Geo. B. Everett as Collector of Internal Revenue for the 6th District of North Carolina, in place of Dr. Wheeler, notwithstanding the assertion of certain papers that he would not be confirmed. Mr. Everett has made a very hard fight for the place and has at last succeeded, and we hope he will be able to perform his duty and enforce the law, which we have no doubt that he will do. He has many enemies, but he should recollect that a political enemy to-day may be a strong friend to-morrow, and act accordingly. A public officer is not private property, it is the property of the people. The office should be run, in the first place, for the benefit of the whole people, and in the second place for the success of the office-holders' party. The federal positions in North Carolina have been considered too long already the private property of the holder for himself and his friends, regardless of the rights and benefits of the Republican party. But we hope this will now be stopped. Mr. Everett will run the office of the 6th District in such a way as to all; but the patronage of the office will be certain will be distributed in such a manner as to benefit the party of the state, and not certain individuals or members of his family. We shall have more to say about this party matter, concerning certain office-holders in North Carolina, in the future.

Col. E. W. Mackey (Republican) says that he intends to press his claims to the seat in Congress as Representative from the Second District of South Carolina, and will not consent to a new election, but that if a new election is ordered and he is elected, in spite of his refusal to be a candidate, he will accept that election and relinquish the old claim.

A LIVELY TIME AT CHARLOTTE.

Things were lively at Charlotte the day the vote was taken on prohibition. R. Y. McAden, one of the most eminent of the citizens of that flourishing city had used a free tongue on election day against a man named Markley, to the effect that he was a scoundrel, and the fellow "laid for him." As McAden came along towards his Bank, with a borrowed pistol in his pocket, Markley stood in his way, and began to strip off his coat, clinched McAden, who pulled the trigger of the pistol and it did not go off. Then every body clinched, and it ended in putting the malcontents under bond, one the assaulter, for $500, and two McAdens for $250 each. There is no report of any more fighting.

The election does not seem to have had any result at all. One party said that the anti-prohibitionists had the Board of Aldermen, and that the Mayor was a tie, and the old last year Aldermen solemnly held sessions, and were still holding at last accounts, and prohibition had fizzled.

ARMY MATTERS.

The Col. Pennington, who commanded at Smithville once, commanded the Division of Infantry at the Farragut dedication. Major Graves who just left here was in the column. Most people here will remember Major-General Crook, who is in command here in '66 and '67—since very famous as an Indian fighter. He gave a brilliant battle to the officers of Fort Omaha and adjacent city. We quote from a correspondent in the Army and Navy Journal, which shows the General is still gallant. The elegant residence of Gen. Crook was brilliantly illuminated, the rooms set apart for dancing were prettily draped with battle flags, while throughout the entire house the gorgeous floral decorations lent beauty and fragrance to the scene. The porches on both sides and in front of the building were enclosed with canvas, lighted with Chinese lanterns; the main stairway to the entrance was a covered way, illuminated by Chinese lanterns and tastefully festooned with the National emblem. In short there was nothing left undone that could please the eye and contribute to the comfort and pleasure of the guests. Gen. Crook, in the gorgeous uniform of Brigadier-General, and Mrs. Crook in a faultless evening toilette of black silk, en train, with white lace, received their guests in the south parlor, who began arriving at 8:20 p. m., and continued coming till past ten. The officers were in full dress uniform, wearing a boutonniere, which added to the effect of their showy uniforms. Lieut. Robt. London is on a four months leave of absence.

ODDS AND ENDS.

The increase in the value of glass, made in the United States between 1870 and 1880, was $3,132,954. This account only embraces that made of the raw material of sand. The Berkshire is the best breed of swine or hogs to be kept in the pine woods. The estimated number of feet of lumber cut in the great pines of Minnesota, from one January to another, is 335,000,000. The value of the logs cut and in the water at the mill, is $1,842,500,000, at five dollars and fifty cents per thousand. The turkey is a native of America. It was not known to the ancients. Properly raised, fattened and served, it is the most palatable of any of the meats of fowls. William Neal, colored, in error from the state of Delaware, on appeal from Oyer and Terminer, to the United States Supreme Court for the reason that negroes were refused to sit on the jury which had convicted him of crime and therefore was not legally made up. Indictment quashed. Some of our Asheville friends who remember Mr. Geo. G. Sanborn will be pleased at the following which we clip from the St. Paul Pioneer-Press, who it says has been appointed local treasurer of the Northern Pacific, and that the "appointment is all the more complimentary to Mr. Sanborn in that it was made by direct vote of the directors of the company, who, it is understood, took this method to testify their high appreciation of his merits and abilities in another branch of the company's service, and their desire to retain so valuable an officer in its employ. His position is one of honor and responsibility, and the company could have made no more appropriate appointment or one more grateful to his friends."

We have received a copy of the "Facts, Advertising and Tourist's Guide," published at Savannah, which contains all the information about all the railroads centering in Savannah. Diplomatic court, is the latest on Blaine.

STATE NEWS.

Mr. F. D. Dancy, a colored lawyer of ability, is elected Mayor of Tarboro, Goldsboro Enterprise. Hon. V. P. Canaday, of Wilmington, is the champion, at least of the political equality of the negro in North Carolina, and may well be called "Carolina's Sumner."

The North Carolinian says they take in on the Albatross from 50,000 to 100,000 herrings at a haul. The U. S. shad factory at "Fish Hawk" turns out 300,000 eggs of an evening.

Fayetteville Examiner. A movement has been carried on lately by the R. & D. railroad, looking to the control of the C. C. Railroad in the interest of the former. It is felt that such control would be fatal to the interests of Wilmington, and the attempt of the Virginia corporation will be fought to the bitter end. A meeting of the Directors of the C. C. Railroad was to have been held in Wilmington yesterday. I have not heard from it. Should the R. & D. Railroad obtain control of the Carolina Central, the gauge of the road would be changed to correspond with the R. & D. road at Charlotte, (5 feet gauge) which would require a connection between the C. F. & Y. V. railroad and the C. C. railroad at Shog Heel impracticable. Judge Ralph P. Buxton is still in Washington.

William H. Vanderbilt has $67,000,000 of United States bonds in his own name, the interest on which is $2,680,000 per annum. We could manage to live on this small amount, in our opinion, or we would compromise with William for one year's interest.

The Confederate Decoration of their dead will take place on the afternoon of the 10th of May. There will be a salute by the Cape Fear Artillery, and a procession made up of ex-officers and soldiers of those forces who fought so long and with such bravery, and we suppose some civic organizations, and much floral display. Col. B. R. Moore will deliver the address.

THE GOOD SAMARITANS.—The Grand Lodge of the Good Samaritans, No. 2, met in this city on Tuesday last, and after a procession and an oration by U. S. Brown of Salisbury, elected their officers for the coming year. We have not been furnished with any information on which to base a report. But the delegation from Newbern under charge of Mr. I. B. Abbott, who is the head of the Order in this state, made a very imposing appearance on their march through town, and were very cordially received.

Dr. Josh. Walker, Health Officer of Wilmington, says that our informant in the matter charging him with neglect of duty, did him great injustice in stating that he had neglected John H. Wright, a poor sick man. Dr. Walker states that he found Wright in a destitute condition, furnished him with medicines, even paid himself for milk panes, and did everything that he could do for the man. We gave the statement as we received it, with the name of our informant. We are glad to hear from Dr. Walker that the statement that he had failed to do his duty, was not true. We have known Dr. Walker for many years, pleasantly, and take pleasure in setting the matter right.

If you want to be well advised, subscribe for the Post.

Senators Ransom will accept thanks for copy of Senatorial speeches.

I. B. Abbott, Esq., editor of "the Ledger," of New Bern, and the Chief Mogul of the "Good Samaritans" of the state, was in attendance on the Grand Lodge here, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday last. Mr. Abbott is an energetic worker, runs a very good paper and is very popular with his societies. We wish him success.

The funeral of the late Dr. Moses John DeRosset took place on the 2nd instant, at 5 o'clock p. m., at St. James' Church, and was attended by a large concourse of kindred and friends. Dr. DeRosset was eminent in his profession, and a genial, benevolent gentleman. He was at one time Professor of Chemistry in the School of Pharmacy in Baltimore, and adjunct Professor of Chemistry in the University of Maryland. For the past ten years Dr. DeRosset has devoted his talents to the treatment of diseases of the eye and ear, in which department of surgery he was eminently successful.

On Sunday last, as Mr. Hanke Volters, with a party of ladies and gentlemen in his carriage, were on their way to the Sound, and when about two miles from the city one of the horses attached to the carriage shied and ran off the embankment, taking with him the other horse, carriage and passengers all falling in a miscellaneous heap, with the passengers on top. They were extricated from their unpleasant and dangerous situation as speedily as possible, fortunately with no injury to persons or animals, although the vehicle was badly damaged by the horses in their struggles.

THE SCROFULA

CANCER REMEDY

Will be sent to any part of the country, by forwarding $3.50 to Prof. Wm. H. Moore, corner Front and Mulberry streets, Wilmington, N. C. I refer to the following endorsements:

Dawson's Landing. Bladen County, N. C., Jan. 7, 1881. I had been suffering with Dyspepsia and Kidney disease for the last 15 years, and it seemed impossible for me to get cured, but I tried a bottle of Prof. Wm. H. Moore's Liniment and Tree of Life, and it cured me entirely, and I feel it my duty to recommend it most highly to those complaining. DAVID PEARSON.

Wilmington, N. C., March 8, 1881. Prof. Moore—Dear Sir: The blood of Tree of Life, Salve and Liniment I bought of you, certainly has effected a great cure in my case. I have my life, I have recovered your medicine. I was helpless as an infant. Could not walk a step. My face and one foot was terribly swollen. By using a few bottles of your Tree of Life, Liniment and a few boxes of your Salve, it has returned to its normal condition. My face is a new woman, and my health has been entirely restored. My liver is in good condition for 23 years, and I never felt relieved until I got your medicine. I recommend it to all persons with like afflictions. MARY E. WHITE.

Witness: SALLY HENDERSON, PETER WHITE.

Cure of an ulcerated foot of seven years standing. Wilmington, N. C., April 1, 1881. Prof. Moore—Dear Sir: My foot with seven years was ulcerated, caused by an ulcerated sore foot. I was advised to try your medicine, and after taking six bottles of your Tree of Life, and five of your Salve, and using five boxes of your Salve, I found, to my great delight and surprise, that my health was rapidly returning, and I am fully satisfied of its virtue, and most cheerfully recommend it to all persons with like afflictions. My foot is entirely well, and I can walk on my foot as well as before I was afflicted. (Signed) MRS. MARY STEWART, Mulberry street.

Witness: T. C. MILES, Deputy Sheriff New Hanover Co.

Cure of a bad case of Scrofula on the face. Wilmington, N. C., Feb. 18, 1881. Prof. Moore—Dear Sir: I thank you very much for the medicine you have sent me, to make known the wonderful effects your medicine has done for me. Hoping all who are troubled with humor in their blood, will give it a trial, but I give it a fair trial, that it will cure one that has disease of like character. I suffered with Scrofula 25 years. The pain it gave me no mortal man could bear. The pain it gave me the skin. I used to think if I could not get relief, I would kill myself. I found that the medicine you sent me was the very one to cure me. But at the same time, I am very happy to state your medicine has done the work for me. It is a great blessing, and I am now as free from the disease as I was before I was taken with it. (Signed) MRS. MARY STEWART, Mulberry street.

I was troubled with the Pityriasis for a year or more, and who with pains in my arms, could get nothing that would cure me until I got a bottle of Prof. Wm. H. Moore's Liniment and Tree of Life, and it cured me entirely, and I feel it my duty to recommend it most highly to those complaining. REV. JOHN H. MURRAY.

Wilmington, N. C., Jan. 18, 1881. My face is a new woman, and my health has been entirely restored. My liver is in good condition for 23 years, and I never felt relieved until I got your medicine. I recommend it to all persons with like afflictions. MARY E. WHITE.
