THE WILMINGTON POST.

CANADAY, Proprietor. WILMINGTON, N. C.,

SUNDAY MORNING, DEC. 25, 1881.

Congressman Hubbs, from the Second North Carolina District, was called home on last Sunday by the sudden death of his child, Judge Houk, of Tennessee, is considered the leader of the southern Republicans in the House, and an able leader he is, too.

The new five cent postage stamp will be put in circulation about February 1st. It is called the Garfield stamp, as it bears his portrait on its face.

The Special Committee of the Senate Bokkelen outrageously insulting him to investigate irregularities of the contingent funnd of the Treasury Departcane to Mr. VanBokkelen's nose he did ment, appointed on the motion of Sennot repeat his cowardly conduct. Mr. ator Sherman, held its first session last Henry Nutt was a very modest and un-Monday. . assuming gentleman, but brave as a Thes. C. Acton, of New York, has been appointed sub-Treasurer of the United States in place of Hillhouse, resigned. Mr. Acton is a prominent man in New York politics, and is a pronounced Conkling man.

Revision of the tariff seems to be giving the members of Congress condriven from an active participation in siderable trouble, particularly the Democratic portion of them. They are it has been exceedingly disgraceful, badly split on the question, with no hope of an agreement.

snubbing him on all occasions, they We publish in another column an finally accomplished their great aim, editorial of Dr. J. J. Mott, chairman of and forced him to resign, and from that the State Republican Committee of day Mr. Nutt's health has been failing. North Carolina, by a reporter of the caused by the conduct of those who had National Republican, of Washington, charge of the work. He could see why D. C. The views of Dr. Mott are they had such antipathy to him and it pointedly expressed, and show the true mortified kim to think that the improvestate of affairs in the politics of the ment was made to serve such base purpostate. Dr. Mott is right in all he says, ses, until on Sunday last, in the ripe old and particularly so about the people age of 74, a beloved husband and fathbeing the Mahone's of North Carolina. | er, and a high toned, honorable, chrisATLANTA EXPOSITION.

menced improving. Then, for the first Will close on the 1st day of Jantime, the doubts were removed, and uary, so it is reported. From those who have been there we learn that it is a great success, and will certainthose who had sneered at Mr. Nutt now commenced claiming part of the credit, and from that day certain men result very greatly to the ber ly. began to show considerable jealousy of cfit of the country. It has brought the the honorable laurels worn so modestly people of the whole Union together by him, and finally they drove him from and they know each other better than the work. For three years the Chairthey did before. The northern farmer, man of the Chamber of Commerce remechanic and merchant has been south fused to allow his' reports to be published, or to call meetings of the Chamthe southern farmer, mechanic and ber so Mr. Nutt could make his written merchant, and they have learned that reports to that body. The writer of this their interests are mutual-what will being in personal consultation often benefit the one will the other; the same with him. could see the very great morsun shines on all, and the same laws tification with which he submitted to have got to be made for, and respected these official insults, saying but little by all. Such gatherings will do more concerning them, from the fear of into stop the south calling northern peojuring the work that he leved so dearly, ple Yankees and the north from calling And finally an open rupture took place between A. H. VanBokkelen, Chairman of the Chamber of Commerce, and them. It is the business men who are Mr. Nutt in our presence, Mr. Van-

force politicians to pass wholesome laws to protect all alike, and the sooner the southern business man finds that it is his duty to stop abusing the Yankee, and treat him as an associate and brother, the better it will be for him .--It is to the interest of the Democratic

Some time during the month of Ocpolitician to keep up the sectional feeltober Mr. Nutt tendered his resignation ing and hatred of the northern people of the chairmanship of the river and and the United States government; but bar improvement committee, a position not so with the business man, he wants he had held for eleven years, and for peace, harmony and the best of feeling eight years he was allowed to serve to the credit of himself and his commithe must vote for men who are in favor tee. From the time he was virtually of the government.

the work, the detailed management of The following resolutions wer adopted in the House of Representa-Bacon and VanBokkelen insulting and tives at Washington on Wednesday last:

> WHEREAS, The melancholy event of the violent and tragic death of James A. Garfield, late President of the United States, having occurred during the recess of Congress, and the two houses of Congress sharing in the general grief, and desiring to manifest their sensibility on the occasion of public bereavement.

Resolved. That the two houses Congress will assemble in the hall of the House of Representatives on a day and hour to be fixed and announced by | for his large circle of admiring friends.

on the 21st.

Mr. Brownlow, Doorkeeper of Home, was called home Monday b as in his family. Ex-Senator Blaine has abandone his expected southern tour this winter. and will reside in Washington, D. C. and entertain as usual.

The only law passed by this Congrees is the act giving Mrs. Garfield the and seen and talked face to face with franking privilege for life. It has passed both Houses and has been signed by the President.

The excitement in the different Departments at Washington is very great. owing to the many changes that have taken place and are about to take place in the heads of the Departments in the different Bureaus and in the Divisions. No one knows whose head is next. All southern people rebels than anything are looking for the fall of the axe which that can be done. We want more of will sever their official heads, yet hoping to excape it.

going to rule the world, and they will the Ex-Marshal Wallace, T. M. Johnson and Baldwin, the present incumbent. are all candidates for the Collectorship at Charleston, S. C., and all in Washington urging their claims. Mr. Johnson is a good man, a square Republican, and if appointed will make a good officer.

Ex-Secretary of State, James G. Blaine, gave a reception to his successor, Hon. Frederick T. Freling heuysen, on Monday evening last The National Republican says it was if he expects to succeed, and to do that one of the most brilliant affairs that ever took place in Washington. A larger number of distinguished persons were present than ever before attended a reception at the Capital, the Presi dent, Vice-President, members of the Cabinet, Senators and Representatives, high officers of the Army and Navy, distinguished citizens, and every for eign representative. The National Re publican, in closing a long and exceedingly complimentary description of the reception, says:

The guests in retiring felt a kindly regret at losing from public life a genleman who has always, even when official duties weighed heaviest, found opportunity to dispense generous hospi-ton, died on the 19th and was buried the conviction of his guilt that has just cause to have his head in shame in forced itself on public sentiment, swak-ened, as it was, by the several papers which followed in the wake of the Newbernian, has published a cripging article in the Raleigh News and Observer, his organ, attempting to justify his relations with the Richmond & Danville people. As Republicans we have nothing to do with the family fight between Messrs. Vance, Jarvis and Worth; but it is within our province, as a party, to and disgust, publish him as a bribe tatake advantage, in a legitimate way, of ker, as a man who has bargained and any facts that may have come to the surface in the melee. So in reviewing the history of this railroad business in the discussions from Democratic sources, we discover: 1. About the time for the meeting of the Democratic Convention to nominate a candidate for Governor, and other officers, in order to beat Judge Fowle, Gov. Jarvis made a barguin with the Richmond and Danville people by which that monopoly was to give him the nomination and in consideration therefor he was to turn over to them the office of Governor as to the railroad policy of the state. 2. Pending the election Best's syndjdate came to grief and the matter of the sale of the Western N. C. Railroad was about to end in disaster to the Democratic ticket. Jarvis hastens to Col. A. B. Andrews, the R. & D manipulator in North Carolina, with addi tional promises and guarantees. Andrews shelled out the cash, and the election (so called) was saved 3. After the election, Jarvis being duly installed, the monopoly, known as the Richmond and Danville Syndicate. feeling secure in its possession of the Executive, began measures to reap the harvest of the corrupt bargain made, which subsequently brought Vance to his feet; and Jarvis by way of covering his tracks wrote a saucy letter to the syndicate with dire threats as to what he should do should the R. & D. peo ple persist in their discriminations and extortions against the North Carolina cities and towns and the public at large, said letter being thoroughly understood by the syndicate and as well seen through by the people as the merest

ful, notwithstanding the politics of the 4. Then the irrepressible Best gets up Market between 3d and 3d stree paper, which are very mean, being another syndicate, this time in Boston, and probably by ways that were dark Democratic. and tricks that were vain, obtains from Coal and Wood! Charles N. Hunter, E q., of Raleigh vance, Jarvis and Worth, Commissioners, a written pledge to declare, upon has accepted the position of associate tality and afford social entertainment certain conditions, a forfeiture of the editor of the "Banner," of that city .--GRATE, STOVE AND CHEST contract under which the Raleigh and Mr. Hunter is an able writer, a cultiva-Dinville monopy v held the Western NUT SIZES ted gentleman, and the "Banner" is to happy flow of conversation, and ready | North Carolina Railroad. The contingency on which the forfeiture was to be | be complimented on being so fortunate made happened; Vance proposes to as to obtain his valuable services. Best Quality RED and WHITE ASH stand up to the rack, Andrews gets WOOD. Colongl O. H. Dockery, the wheel wind of the news, collars Jarvis, Jarvis horse of the sixth district, has paid At- OAK, flies the track, inviggles Worth into signing an agreement for an extension lanta a visit with his family. We hope of time to the Raleigh and Danville ASH, he had a pleasant trip, though we people; Worth afterwards hopes he hasn't played the devil, then Jarvis re- doubt it, from the fact that he certainly LIGHTWOOD, &c., fuses to deliver the goods to Best and had trouble in getting any North Car-Very low. Sawed for Stoves or in long laughs at-Vance! olina "pine top" in that city. Note that this was the straw that sticks, by broke editor Latham's back, who clear-The work of widening and deepen ly intimates that the consideration which J. A. SPRINGER ing of Harlow's caual, connecting New-Jarvis, after the election, received from nov, 20-1m port river with the Neuse river, has the Raleigh and Danville was a valuable one, his words being, "that the man commenced. One dredge boat is at GLOBE SALOON! (Jarvis) should stoop and bend himself work and it is the intention of the manto dollars and cents." agers to place another on soon. This Again: Gov. Jarvis, in the News and 16 Market St. is a very important work for Carteret Observer card above alluded to, says: "I, at the time of my inaugural adand Uraven counties, and we are much VAPT. JIM MCGOWAN WILL FURNISH dress, urged the creation of a railroad gratified at their good fortune. he best Whiskey for the Money in the City. commission, composed of three of our H. R. S. S. Cox, Congressman from best citizens. For cause, which need not Fine Cigars, Oysters, &c. Call and see him oct 30-1y the Raleigh district, boards at the Riggs now be given, the measure did not become a law, although both Houses by House in Washington. We only give very large majorities favored it." the initials of his name, from the fact WATER WORKS. Hereby hangs a tale which it may be that we suppose everybody knows his the writer can unfold. The people res-THE UNDERSIGNED having engaged & tive under the oppressive measures of full christian name; but in case there ompetent and experienced FLUMBER, certain railroads demand relief. The are any who do not, we will give it.last legislature, appreciating this, unfrom the North, beg to notify the public The H. is for Hold, the R. is for Robederiook to enact the necessary legislathat they will hereafter con bine with their son, one S. is for Save, and the other is tion. Mr. Thomas, the excellent repfor State. Properly translated it is, resentative from Davidson county, after present Iron and Copper Work the basis an arduous struggle succeeded in get-"Hold Robeson and Save the State." ness of ting through the House a bill with ple-The "Bugle," of Goldsboro, Dec. 19, nary powers to check the railroads .-PLUMBING AND GAS FITTING. This bill was duly sent to the Senate. says that the passenger train due here at least three weeks before the adjourn-By doing FIRST CLASS WORK at reason at 12.05 this morning did not arrive ment. It was promptly referred to the able prices they hope to merit any order committee on internal improvements until 10 o'clock. The delay was caused their customers may leave with them. by the placing of cross ties in a cattle of which Senator, Staples of Guilford, was chairman. Notwithstanding the guard near Harrisburg, station this side dec 4-lm HART; BAILY & CO. fact that myself and other Senators who of charlotte. The first truck under were the warm friends of the measure the engine was knocked out; and other RAIL ROAD. arose in our places day after day and asked Colonel Staples for a report on damage done the train; but fortunately WILMINGTON, N. C. Dec. Dih, 184. the bill so that it might have a hearing no one was hurt. The attempts to by the Senate, a decided majority of liooks of Subscription to the Stort # wreck trains are getil g too frequent which favored it, the blond fox from the Wilmington and Jacksonville Ball and the railroad authorities are doing Guilford kept dodging and doubling Road will opened at J. L. Bostwright's until about two days before the adjournall in their power to bring the offendment, when his committee instructed tore on Front between Market and Priners to jusifice. Mr. Dortch, the Senator from Wayne, cess Streets, and at Geo. Myers' Store -Hon. James . Rumley, Clerk of the to report a substitute which emasculated the House bill of all its effective Superior Court of Carteret county, died Front between Market and Dock Stratts. provisions, Colornel Staples well knowabout the 15th instant. He had been All who wish to aid this enterprise will ing the triends of the railroad commisone of the most useful men in the old please call and subscribe, I shall takt sion would not have such a bastard. county. He was in the constant sersubscription books along the routs mysti and further, that if they would, the E. F. MARTIN. vice of those people for over 40 years." substitute would not restrain the raildec 19 21 roads, and that it would be impossible In 1875 a member of the constitutional in the closing days of the session to get convention: the whole of his life way Home Made Candy, the House to act upon the substitute. one of praise, except his zcts in said Thus by pocketing the 'House bill, the PURE AND WHOLESOME matter of a railroad commission was convention, when the part he took was All kinds Made Fresh every day al defeated. Did Governor Jarvis have a very questionable, and in fact disgracehand in this? Beyond question, judg-G. E. JEVESS ful, voting as he did, sgainst his coning from the surrounding circumstanscience, to retain the two members from ces. It was an open secret that Staples dec 19 1y Robeson county in their seats, that he was his representative in the Senate; it was an open secret that Staples was of knew were obtained by fraud, and we retained counsel for the Raleigh and have reason to believe that to the day knew were obtained by fraud, and we French Confectionary Danville people; it was an open secret that Staples throttled the bill; it was notorious cast the sgents of the Raleigh that particular. And had it not been am now prepared to farmish the Bill in Lown at the lowest prices. One thread per in per in ZIMMERMANA and Danville syndica'e were present in | for the influence over him of corrupt person, lobying against the passage of men, whom he had confidence in, he would have never been guilty of such Cor. Second and Princes S STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA SET mite relations with and slavish subsee-viency to the Baleigh and Danville an outrage. He will be greatly missed Washington and lay the matter before Johnson-a few straightout Republi-Congress. He was made chairman of cans voted for General Wickham. The advocating the retention of a friend of When T. J. Jarvis was nominated, we Syndicate. Then it at the time of his by the good people of Carterel county. tion Ettinger and Eikan Birg. augural address, Gove

the handsomest

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

PROCLAMATION

SHERIFF HANGING!

AM NOT THE SHERIFF. BUT I WILL

Paper Hanging

UPHOLSTERING

AND

REFITT NG

TWENTY YEARS EXPERIENCE.

Of old furniture done in mander.

Carpets cut, made and put down

I. B. Abbott, editor of the "Lodge," of Newbern, has been quite sick. Hon. Frank Dancy, Mayor of Tar common with the decent people of the state of North Carolinal

Let the candid reader reflect upon Governor Jarvis's conduct in regard to railroad matters before the election of 1850, when he succeeded the unexpired term of Governor Vance who was sent to the United States Senate; let the indid reader reflect upon the conduct of Thomas J. Jarvis, as to railroad matters during the official term he is now serving; let the candid reader reflect that Democratic editors with shame

sold the Governor's office to a foreign syndicate that has inserted its poison ous fangs into the body politic and is sucking the life blood out of our peoboro, has been on a visit north, Pender county Superior Court has been in session the past week, Judge Shipp presiding.

A man was murdered at Wilson, N. C., on Monday night last, and theu laid on the railroad track so the train would pass over him. This was done to cover up the crime.

Dorsey Battle, for many years editor of the "Southerner," at Tarboro, N. C. has retired from the paper, and will in future practice his profession of the law. We wish him success.

The "Falcon," of Elizabeth City, comes to us this week as a daily. 'We hope the enterprise will prove success-

GOODS AND WORK GUARAN. TEED. BENJ. F. WHITE.

DEATH OF HENRY NUTT.

On Sunday last, at 5 o'clock p. m. one of the most honorable and valua ble citizens of this city and state paid the debt that we all must pay sooner or later. Henry Nutt is dead. How sad the word sounds when used about ordinary persons, but it is terrible when used concerning one who stood as high in the respect of the entire people of North Carolina, as did the subject of this article. He was truly a good and useful man and valuable citizen. Mr. Nutt was in his 74th year-old in years yet young in his general conduct, he thence to Uakdale Cemetery. had lived a long and useful life. Entering in business when quite young, he soon became one of the leading merchants and business men of this city; always foremost in public enterprises. vannah, Ga., and paid us a call. We he had as much, if not more to do with tound him in fine spirits, politically .the general prosperity of this city, pre He says the anti-Bourbon Democracy vious to the war, than any other one man combination is gaining ground every here, and when the rebellion came on day. The people, he says, are tired of he was one of the wealthiest men in the corrupt ring that now has charge Wilmington. His money was made by of state affairs, and the Democratic hard work and honest, square dealing prohibition bill was the "last hair that with his fellow man. broke the camels back;" that the people

HON: THOMAS S. LUTTERLOH.

The construction of the Wilmington & had submitted to have their rights ta-Weldon railroad was to a very large ken from them in local self government extent due to Henry Nutt. He was one by Jarvis and his crowd; they had subof the largest subscribers to the Wilmitted to many other flagrant outrages, ton & Manchester railroad, and served but at last they were aroused by the for many years as a director; he was prohibition bill and voted it down, twice tendered the Presidency of the now while they are at it they intend to road by a unanimous vote of the Board have the right to elect their own local of Directors, but on account of private officers, and will retire the present probusiness declined the honor. He was hibition state government to the shades a large stockholder in the Deep River of private life. Navigation Company, and was urged by both stockholders and citizens to the state is Republican by 25,000 maaccept the position of President of said jority, but he says, notwithstanding all Company, but refused. He was exthat, he is in favor of a combination ceedingly well posted concerning the with the liberal Democrats who are in history of the city, and the men of the tayor of "a free ballot and a fair count," olden times.

'local self-government," and equal rights After the war, Mr. Nutt having re to all men before the law. With such tired from business, turned his attena combination the state will be carried tion entirely to the future prosperity of by 50,000 majority. this city, and being a man of great ability and judgment, he knew the first thing to be accomplished was to have Gen. Joseph Johnston says that Jeff. our river and barso improved that larger Davis had $2,500,000 when he left Richships could come to the wharves of the mond, just before Grant come in. From city. He therefore went to work aggithe way the posr Confederate soldiers tating the question among our business fared we should not be surprised to men; the Chamber of Commerce held a hear that he had even more than that special meeting to consider the question, amount. and many of those who now claim great credit for the present improvements about airs. Abraham Lincoln-she has did at that time everything in their gone blind this time. What next. power against Mr. Nutt's propositions. Notwithstanding the outspoken oppo-Readjuster party, has been elected U sition of some, and the coldness of nearly ail of the business men to his S. Senator from Virginia .y a hand pet scheme, he finally succeeded in some majority. The Democrats voted tian gentleman and citizen, breathed his last, We honestly believe that the to the treatment he received at the hands of A. H. VanBokkelen and Henry Bacon. But the name of Henry Nutt will live Representatives be requested to javite among the great men of the 19th century. He has a monument across New Inlet that will stand for all ages. The loss to this city cannot and will never be repaired. He has gone; peace to several states, the General of the Army, the Admiral of the Navy, and such his ashes.

at the mouth of the river at once com-

but on the presentation of Mr. Nutt's lion when aroused.

officers as have received the thanks of The funerel took place on Tuesday Congress. morning last at St. John's Church, of the United States be requested to transmit a copy of these resolutions to Mrs. Lucretia R. Garfield, and to assure her of the profound sympathy of This gentleman was in our city on the two houses of Congress for her deep Monday last, on his way home from Sapersonal affliction, and their sincere condolence for the late national bereavement.

MINCELLANEOUS NEWS.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Resolved, further, That the President

Frederick, T. Frelingheusen, of New Jersey, has been nominated and unanimously confirmed as Secretary of State, in place of Hon. James G. Blaine, resigned.

Benjamin H. Brewster, of Philadelphia, has been made Attorney General in place of Wayne MacVeagh, vamboost.

J. C. Bancroft Davis has been appointed First Assistant Secretary of State, in place of Mr. --- Hilt, resigned to accept the Presidency of a Bank.

has tendered his resignation to take Mr. Lutterloh has no doubt but what effect 1st January, 1882.

> It is reported that Secretary of the Navy, Hunt, of Louisiana, is soon to retire from the Cabinet, and will accept the vacancy on Court of Claims, made vacant by the resignation of Bancroft Davis, who accepted Assistant Secretaryship of State.

Both Houses of Congress adjourned on Wednesday to the 5th day of January. We wish them a pleasant Christ mas.

Ex-Senator Timothy O. Howe, of Wisconsin, has been appointed Postmaster-General, and will assume the office on 1st of January next.

Judge Horace Grey, of Massachusetts, was nominated Associate Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court, and was confirmed by the Senate on Tuesday last. And now there is another report The Senate confirmed the nomination of Wm. H. Trescutt, to be Special Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Pleni-Captain H. H. Riddleberger, of the potentiary to the Republics of Chilli, Peru and Bolivia.

Yesterday Hon. William E. Chanhaving a committee appointed to visit for the present incumbent, Senator dler, of New Hampshire, called upon Washington and lay the matter before Johnson-a few straightout Republi- President Arthur for the purpose of in office in Florida. He said joint committee, and that in the The admirable tact, susvity of manuer, presence of the two houses there ashis last, We honestly believe that the sembled an address on the life and fund of anecdote possessed by Mr. early death of Henry Nutt, Esq., is due character of James A. Garfield, late Blaine peculiarly fit him to shine socially, and probably no house in Wash President of the United States, be proington is freighted with more pleasant nounced by Hon. James G. Blaine, and memories of delightful social enjoythat the President of the Senate pro ments than that of the ex-Secretary of tem., and the Speaker of the House of State, the lights of which are but just going out, and the blaze of last night' the President and ex-Presidents of the entertainment is just fading away as this account is being written. United States, the heads of the several departments, the Judges of the Supreme Court, representatives of foreign Hon. Geo. M. Huskin has been nomgovernments, the Governors of the inated by the President, Attorney for the southern district of Alabama. Hon: Orlando Hubbs, during his abence, is paired with Mr. Converse.

[Correspondence of the North State.] . Why Not Impeach Jarvis?

TARBORO, N. C., Dec. 10, 1881. The fact that the feeling of ill-con cealed contempt for Governor Jarvis in the minds of those of the Democratic party throughout the state not directly connected with this machine, has been steadily growing since his inauguration, Republicans, all of whom abhor him as a receiver of stolen goods, in that through the means of the boldest frauds in the eastern part of the state ever perpetrated in North Carolina, he today occupies the Executive chair to which Ralph P. Buxton was elected had the popular will been honestly ascertained, were in a condition to be gratified rather than surprised at the following editorial from the Acubernian, of the 12th of November, as a sign that the brave people of North Carolina no longer to condone the great fraud by Postmaster General Thos. L. James virthe of which Thos. J. Jarvis excr-cises the functions of Governor: "But the unpleasant news is travel-ing, and by underground telegraph has reached this office, that demagogueism an unboly ambition has seized him and made him its own. "That the man, in fact the Governor of the bravest people that the bright and cents, makes us blush for our own manhood

"Have we arrived-maybe ali too con-let us pause-can it be possible, that a successor of Manly, of Graham,

"We stood in the make in ISSO. The name of T. J. Jarvis was our watchword and battle-cry.

cause to was a Confederate officer,and because, liks us, he was a Demo-crat-somstimes called Bourbon-we wrote his name upon our neast, and determined that it should be written to-day proud of our following—can it be possible, that the chosen one of the praent Democracy has fallen prostrate and surrendered all his manhood to Mo-lech ?

We are loth to think so.

"Because he was an eastern man; b:

is possessing T. J. Jarvis-and almest smiles of Heavan ever shope upon, should stoop and bend himself to dellars

Reid, of Bragg,-of that glorious Eilis, who unfolded to our vision an emblem of freedom, which we followed through owers of grapes and shell-and are

