County Government There is no question which spitates the public mind as the "broad cloth" system of county government. In bale full effects have been felt throughout from the poor honest farmer down to the most humble citizen. The right to elect our county commissioners has been taken from us, the right to elect our magistrates and our school committeemen, and still they say such laws were enacted to protect the white men party takes now and sounds as though of the east from negro rule, and of the east from negro rule, and claims the bourbon party to be the whiteman's party and the party of the saints.
