LET HIM ANSWER.

The Raleigh Times says: "Why has not John Cato Scarborough, the Democratic Superintendent of Public Instruction, made public his annual report, as is required by law? Has he been ordered by the bosses to withhold it? Does it contain information damaging to the Democratic administration? Is there a leak in the Treasury? Have the poor children of the state been robbed of a part of the money intended for their tuition? Are the school taxes squandered in salaries for needless offices to be filled by Bourbon puppets?"

REPUBLICAN NOMINATING CONVENTION.

Rockingham, N. C., Aug. 12, '82. The Republican Convention for Rockingham county will be held at Rockingham on Saturday, September 16th, 1882, for the purpose of nominating County officers and a member of the Legislature, to be voted for at the next election. The representation to said convention, in accordance with the plan of organization, shall consist of three delegates and three alternates from each precinct and no more. The chairman of the several townships will call conventions in their respective townships and appoint delegates.

EVERYTHING IS HARMONIOUS IN THE FIRST DISTRICT.

The Republican Convention which assembled at Edenton on Thursday, the 10th inst., nominated Walter F. Pool, Esq., as a candidate for Congress from the First District. This nomination was the result of a compromise between the friends of John B. Rees and Miles commander, Esq., who had prominently brought their names forward as candidates. The nomination of Mr. Pool is considered a strong one, and is not only acquiesced in but cordially endorsed by all who desire complete harmony and the success of our cause.

GEN. S. H. MANNING.

Our worthy sheriff, Gen. S. H. Manning, who has been in exceedingly bad health for months past, is now in Pennsylvania. In a letter to the Editor, he says he thinks he has at last struck the place where he will be entirely restored to his former health and vigor. We congratulate the General on his good prospect and the people of this city and county on the fact that General Manning will continue to be their able efficient sheriff.

We are sorry to learn that Dr. Mott has been very sick, but rejoice in the fact that he is improving.

Gen. O. H. Dochow

has a large and enthusiastic crowd to listen to his able speeches.

WHITE MEN, READ.

WHAT THE PRESENT CAMPAIGN MEANS.

We are now at the beginning of a very important campaign in North Carolina. On one side is the Bourbon aristocratic Bourbon Democracy with all the intolerance, proscription, aristocratic exclusiveness and opposition to free schools and the rights of poor white men that that party means and has ever maintained. Else show us why when public lands were donated by the State they were set aside for the University when no poor man's sons are able to go in preference to being donated to the free public schools that bring education to the home and fireside of every poor man. Else why is it that the present system of county government and the gerrymandering tendencies of all Democratic Legislatures, and towards perpetuating the power and influence of certain families who under a past and dead order of things were the best families so-called.

Else why is it that the history of North Carolina does not show one son of a poor white man who has ever been recommended for appointment to either Annapolis or West Point? Does not show scarcely one instance of a poor man's son who has been able, no matter what his abilities and capacity may be, to rise above the common level assigned to all "white trash" by the Bourbon Democracy. What few and insistent instances there have been were only when great courage and endurance were isolated to great abilities, and even those are the few, and the terrible few who have hurried the general desolate wreck that has overcome all the young, noble and capable sons of poor white men whose lonely lives of toil and groaning hearthstones at the want of appreciation has been succeeded by sad immigration to other and fairer skies or else more lonely graves.

When melancholy claimed them for her own, and what few have gone away have reaped in other lands the rewards dealt them at home by Bourbon aristocratic exclusiveness, and other States have been the beneficiaries of the talents and abilities of many a native North Carolinian that the "Old North State" ought and could have had.

How many years would it be before this intolerance and proscription would allow a Garfield to come to the front or any other of the long line of Presidents whose proud names it was "white men" and their elevation to no family or social influence, but who raised themselves from the lonely obscurity of honest poverty by the fervor of their energies and abilities aided by the mental encouragement of a tolerant, liberal and generous people? But on the other hand, how many a time and oft the lustre of the radiant abilities of able young men have been dimmed and smothered by the deed of oppression and opposition laid to lower all but the scions of an effete and an inflexible aristocracy.

This is the reason why North Carolina has been so backward in the development of its almost inexhaustible resources and why she is laughed and sneered at as the Rip Van Winkle of the original confederates, and this is why she is fastened with the discreditable stigma of showing a lower rate of education than any State in the Union, notwithstanding the fact that she was a sovereign State for decades of years before some of the Western States, who far outstrip her, notwithstanding their comparative youth, in education and all the evidence of enterprise and prosperity.

Else why is it that in the rural districts now white men who choose to exercise the rights of freemen and vote as they please, are afraid to speak of their intention above a whisper, still enforcing from the dominion of a few whites, so-called aristocrats, who exercise their lordly power to elevate their relatives to positions of honor and profit at the expense of the poor white man.

And now comes the Liberal party. A large number of Democrats who tired of this ostracism and terrorism, meet together and nominate a ticket which is cordially endorsed by the Republican party and put forward in the interests of free speech and the liberty of opinion, "a free ball and a fair count" and a government through of and by the people, and not by a few self-constituted "bosses."

They say to the Bourbons, you have disgraced free education of the masses, given the land that should belong to them to the University when only the sons of rich men are able to go.

You have centralized the local government, and the election machinery of the State in the hands of a few at Bourbon headquarters.

You have wiped out majorities you could not control by gerrymandering. You have attempted by a Legislature largely Democratic, aided by the influence of your Bourbon Governor, to foster on the State a liberty-crushing prohibition law.

chinery of the State in the hands of a few at Bourbon headquarters. You have wiped out majorities you could not control by gerrymandering. You have attempted by a Legislature largely Democratic, aided by the influence of your Bourbon Governor, to foster on the State a liberty-crushing prohibition law.

After trying to make use of the colored man to aid you in this, at the very next campaign you raise the cry of color line and seek to bring race prejudices to aid you to perpetuate your power.

You seek to array race against race, thereby chilling the good feelings of both, paralyzing the industries of the State and making the natural home of the poor colored man a land of terror to him.

You have ostracized and looked over the poor white voters until they are afraid to exercise the rights of freemen.

These and many new things you have done, and the Liberal party backed by the Republican party says to you thus far shall you go and no farther.

White men, colored men, liberty loving freemen, look upon the picture. Can there be any doubt which you should choose. You who wish to live here in peace and harmony, who wish to accord to all their rights under the law and claim the same for yourselves, go forward and exert yourselves that North Carolina may learn the intolerance and darkness of the past and turn her face to the morning sun again.

THE MILITARY REGIME.

The Raleigh News and Observer, the Bourbon official organ in this State, advises the organization of the Bourbon party on a military basis; Chairmen of township committees to be captains; chairmen of county committees to be "knights," and so on up to full General. Now this is, to say the least, significant. It simply means that a semi-military system of coercion is to be adopted. It does not mention the nature of the arms to be used, but from past experience, we can supply that omission. These soldier-politicians are to "ride" their Districts, we presume, and will no doubt do it in true Ku-Klux style, and do regular military patrol duty throughout the country.

Is this necessary, Mr. Observer? If so, you must begin to despair of success. The people are to be terrified into voting, when they cannot be induced to do so by other means. Go along, gentlemen! The people are getting tired of being bull-rigged and will not much longer submit to it.

There are no principles involved in the campaign, it is only a question of men. You accuse the Liberals of selling out, and at the same time support a man for Supreme Court Judge who bolted your ticket and obtained Republican aid to beat your candidate. Be consistent, or nothing, gentlemen.

THE SOUTH'S NEW INDUSTRY.

We clip from the New York Herald, of the 15th inst., the following: "At the close of the war cotton seed was regarded as of little or no value, except for planting, and, consequently, almost the entire product was thrown away. To-day, according to the statements made in yesterday's Herald by Tariff Commissioner, Kenner, of Louisiana, it is valued at about one-third of the cotton crop. The annual product of seed is now about two and a half millions tons over and above what is needed for planting purposes, and the price has reached from fifteen to twenty dollars a ton. The value of the annual yield when made in oil cake and other products is estimated at from seventy-five to a hundred million dollars. This is a very substantial source of wealth and material prosperity to the South, and one whose importance is no longer unappreciated by southern capitalists. The number of mills in operation and in progress of construction for converting cotton seed into its valuable products is reported at from sixty-five to seventy, most of which have been started in the past few years, and as the business is found to be highly profitable the establishments are likely to multiply with considerable rapidity. These are results over which the North as well as the South has reason to rejoice.

Col. Cook chairman Liberal party sent a challenge to chairman Cook of the Democratic party for Col. Dochow the Liberal Candidate to meet Col. Bennett the Bourbon Democratic Candidate. But this challenge was refused; Bennett and his committee were afraid of Dochow. And they cowardly like back down; this statement is correct and the Democratic papers that have any regard for the truth will not deny it.

the Review correspondent really seeks an answer to the queries made in his communication of a week he can find it in the unqualified endorsement of Mr. Darby's official acts by the two boards of Aldermen whose Attorney he has been.

As regards the low fling at his ability that is established to the entire satisfaction of "Daniel's" mental superiors and "vouched for by one of the distinguished Gentlemen who "Daniel" is pleased to use as an illustration.

If Mr. Darby only does half as well on the Bench as he has at the Bar he will compare very favorably with some of our present much praised Superior Court Judges, that is if judged by the Supreme Court decisions on their appealed cases.

It is late, very late in the day for Democrats to endeavor to belittle Mr. Darby's ability, and they will find it up hill work. The masses are with Mr. Darby, and he is satisfied with their support and encouragement and they will find his fitness for the place to which they are going to elect him in November.

This attack is in keeping with the Bourbon plan of endeavoring to besmirch every one who has the manliness to have opinions of their own, and not be bossed. Clingman, Leach, Chubb, Darby, Folk and all the independent candidates have been similarly treated, but they can stand it.

The Liberal Republican candidate for Congress in this district will not commence the canvass of the district before the first of October owing to the fact the people of the district are busy looking after their crops, and he does not desire to take them away from their labor at this time.

Dr. Fairfax Irving, our able, efficient and exceedingly popular Surgeon in charge of the U. S. Marine hospital of this city, is on a visit to his family and friends in Chicago, Ill. Dr. Irving is one of the very best Physicians in the U. S. service, and we hope the Department will be able to keep him.

We understand that Col. A. M. Waddell has completed his arrangements to establish at Charlotte a daily paper to be called the Journal. We hope Col. Waddell will meet with that success in his new venture that we feel is warranted by his peculiar talent in the field of literature.

Hon. D. L. Russell is canvassing the west in behalf of the Liberal party. He is one of the best, if not the ablest speaker in the state on either side.

We learn from a friend at Boneham, Fender county, that Mr. Taylor's floating saw mill has done no work the past week on account of a rise in the river.

We have interviewed Alderman Chadbourn in regard of the intent of the resolution offered by him at the last meeting of the Board of Aldermen to abolish the office of City Attorney, and find the insinuations in the communication to the Review to be entirely groundless. The facts are as follows:

Mr. Darby had been deposed from office simply because he refused longer to train under the Bourbon bosses, and because he dared to have an opinion of his own, and to have liberality enough to allow others to have their opinions. For this reason, and for this only was he requested to resign his office.

slurs of the old Bourbons cannot louch him. Mr. Darby has never sought office and his worth and fitness for the position alone instead of the Liberals to nominate him.

The Judicial crimes never fall on a better man, and the Liberals and Republicans of the North State are determined by thirty thousand majority that he shall wear it.

WILDS CREEK, BLADEN CO. Aug. 15th, 1882. To the Republicans of Bladen county: I hereby announced myself a candidate for the Republican nomination to the House of Representatives. If nominated and elected, I pledge myself to do my full duty by my county and my party. My claims are in the hands of the Convention when it meets, if nominated, I shall canvass the county for the ticket, whither nominated or not, I shall do all I can for the full Republican Liberal ticket of the State, Congressional and County.

H. B. EVERETT.

CITY ITEMS.

Quite a large excursion arrived in the city Wednesday from along the C. C. R. R. One of the largest oaks ever caught in this city was hauled in by a little colored ship at Market, Dock Tuesday evening. It measured six inches between the eyes and was two feet long.

We are pleased to note that Mr. Robert Kennedy, the foreman and business manager of this paper, is getting better. Mr. K. has been sick—quite sick—for about four weeks. We long to hear his voice soon again in the sanatorium.

Two colored women had a lively scrimmage way out on Mulberry street last Wednesday. Tearing and scratching was the programme.

Messrs. Shrier Bros & Dreyfus have rented store No. 46 Market Street, where they propose opening a grand Bazaar about the middle of September. They will display from twenty-five to thirty lady cloaks and from ten to fifteen male cloaks.

A lump of melted silver coin weighing about fifteen ounces was picked up on the streets in the town of Magnolia one day last week.

The Black-fish excursion which was postponed on account of rough weather, will take place Tuesday next.

Mr. John C. James, for many years, Assistant Freight Agent of the W. C. & A. R. R. in this city, has been appointed Freight Agent of the Richmond & Petersburg R. R. with headquarters at Richmond.

We were pleased to meet our old friend, Mr. Fred Meigs in our city last week, Mr. Meigs & Walker, Newton, N. C. We wish him a prosperous trip.

Just suppose free bathing houses and a free park were established at Hilton, don't you know it would give our city a boom?

THE NEWEST SHOW AND THE

BROODER.—S. H. BARRETT & Co.'s NEW UNITED RAILROAD SHOW.—This newest and as well as most colossal of all amusement enterprises will positively exhibit at Wilmington on Monday, Sept. 11th.

It is the best advertised show that has ever been announced here. Not only are its "bright and costly" pictorials displayed on every side, for miles and miles around, and its illustrated newspaper and programmes scattered like snowflakes; but there is a solid emphatic style in its manner of presenting its claims which commands attention and begets confidence. It is conspicuous for not indulging in the stale, dishonest "aggregation," "alliance," "combination" and "twelve shows-in-one" clap-net, which has always proved a delusion and a snare and involves such preposterous claims as to utterly discredit itself with all except the greenest fools. On the contrary, it assumes only to be one new and great show, which is the best of reasons for believing it to be so. Neither does it resort to manufactured names and purposely-mixed and vague generalities and figures, in order to convey the swindling impression that it has rare attractions, which, in fact, have no honest existence.

Its attractions are multifarious as well as novel, and it is a matter of surprise how many strictly new features can be crowded in a single exhibition. Zebras broken to perform incredible feats, hurdle leaping reindeers, giraffes, harnessed to Roman racing chariots, Harriman's steam air ship in operation, a man-sized riding cynoscephalus, elks harnessed tandem, ten funny clowns in simultaneous rivalry, high and long-distance double somersault leapers, peerless exploits in the gymnasium, extraordinarily trained thoroughbred horses, comical school of monkey comedians, monster living White Nile Hippopotamus, extraordinary feats of herculean strength, deeds of masculine and feminine intrepidity, and, in fact, so great an array of novelties and surprises that it would transcend the limits of a newspaper notice to give them even the briefest mention. The street parade is commensurate in magnitude and grandeur with the exhibition, and introduces among other attractions, thirty Arabian camels, decorated in the richest and most costly trappings and mounted by native Mahomedans.

Mr. John Nutt, of Bladen county, a nephew of the late Hon. Henry Nutt, of this city, has declared in favor of the Liberal party.

Subscribers to the Post, through me, must pay up their just dues to the paper, or after this issue they will receive it no longer. A hint to the wise is sufficient. C. H. MOORE.

NOTICE. I would respectfully ask my city subscribers to be ready in the future to pay up when I call to see them, and thereby save me the leather. The Post is only $2.00 per year, payable in advance. We cannot carry DEAD-HEADS. W. E. N. SMITH, City Agent.
