

W. P. CANADAY, Proprietor. WILMINGTON, N. C. SUNDAY MORNING, JAN. 28, 1906.

A Model Reformer. The young man who approached a policeman, denounced himself as an incorrigible thief and insisted on being put where he could be reformed.

Watch the Schools. By a bill just introduced into the Ohio General Assembly it is proposed to make it part of the duty of a board of health to make regular and special inspections of all schools and school buildings.

The world moves, intellects expand and progress marks the hour. A galvanic battery secreted under the lining of a hat is among the newest appliances to ameliorate the condition of mankind.

The supreme court of New York has just announced an important decision. During the freight handlers' strike in New York last summer great delay was experienced in getting goods shipped away from that city over the railroads.

The cotton spinners of Lancashire, with the accustomed slowness of Englishmen, have just reached the conclusion that the cotton dealers of Liverpool have been cheating them in weights.
