tinal reading. ALBEMARLE AND CHESAPEAKE CANAL Resolutions raising a committee to investigate the management of the Als bem rle a d Ch-sapeake canal, and aprepriating $250 for such exam nation dr. Blandeli stated the intent of the resolution, and said that the State ported. Mr. Turner thought the investigating committee was needed, but said that most committees of like charactor were inclined to champinge, terratin and oyster than to the business in hand. Mr. Blaisdell thought the State had been imposed upon and backed his statements with figures. The resolution should be passed, as next July the der, and Rev. J. M. Atkinson, D. D., mertgage bonds fall due. There was some debate by Messrs. Richardson, of U lumbus, Clarke and Anderson.

Mr. Vaughau moved to amend by saying that the committee report to his Legislature, as soon as possible. Mr. Melson said he was creditably nformed that the State had been derauded in the mara rement of the caal. Mr. Jones thought that swift action was necessary. There was need of uvestiga ion, as he had examined the mat e. The committee can send for persons and papers. The State may be gainer by thousands. Mr. Blocker shared this opinion.

The resolutions then passed by a large vote. Bilto relieve farmers and others from payment of special tax in cities op m wagons filled with garden truck. egard, Hoff, Huffstetler, Davis of fish, oysters, etc., passed, after Haywood, Yorke, Davis of Madison, remarks by Mosses, Lamb and Scott in fovor, and by Mr. Bernard in opposition. The laster thought it was a strike at powers delegated to cities in their chart rs. Mr So to said that in-Wilmington before a pe son from the country could sell 50 cents worth of green corn he mus pay lo cents license. It is an injustice and here is a chance correlation. Mr. Etheridge said it was towiship, Bun somes county, passed. | an act of pure justice to the time a to pass the bil. It then passed unanisnously.
