THE WEATHER TO-DAY.

For North Carolina: Fair, continued low temperature; northerly winds becoming northeasterly.
Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity to 8 o'clock tonight: Fair; freezing in the morning, followed by rising temperature.

Local data for yesterday: Maximum temperature, 43; minimum temperature, 49; mean, 30; rainfall .0.

The following tables give data for yesterday at stations named:

Table with 4 columns: Station, Max., Min., Rain. Rows include Washington, New York, Chicago, New Orleans, St. Louis, Atlanta.

Synopsis of the Weather.—The barometer is low in the Missouri valley and in Texas, and high in the Ohio valley. The rain area in the southwest is advancing easterly.

The barometer is rising, the temperature following and the weather is clear in the Atlantic and Gulf States.

The temperature is rising in the west. Precipitation is reported in small amounts from Texas, Massachusetts, Minnesota and northern New York.

The weather generally is clear and cool.

CITY IN BRIEF.

KEYS FOUND.—Policeman Creighton yesterday found a bunch of keys—three—on a brass ring, on East Hargett street. Owner can get them at Station House.

CORRECTION.—In publishing the list of members of the State Executive committee yesterday, we omitted the name of Mr. B. Varnum, of Lexington, elected to succeed the late M. H. Pinnix.

TAXES.—The penalty on over-due city taxes will increase again in a few days. The tax collector will be compelled to levy on personal property and real estate for the purpose of settling these taxes.

DUGHY'S GOBBLER.—Dughy yesterday packed into a basket a fine 15 pound wild gobbler and three bottles of excellent old wine and sent them to a friend in Baltimore—a man who has never seen a wild turkey.

NEW SOLICITOR.—Wheeler Martin has indicated to the Governor his acceptance of the solicitorship of the Third district, made vacant by the resignation of Bernard, and has already taken the oath of office.

DON'T LIKE IT.—Some of the old veterans at the Soldiers' Home are protesting against the new rules recently put in force there. The rule most vigorously objected to is the one allowing the inmates of the Home to visit Raleigh only twice a week.

CHANGE OF BASE.—Mr. W. M. Bagwell, who has been connected with Darnell and Thomas, has accepted a position with Luden and Bates, with office in the Pullen building. Mr. Bagwell has many friends who wish him success in his new field.

FELL ON A KNIFE.—The little son Mr. J. W. Mangum narrowly escaped a serious accident. He fell on his open knife which penetrated his right side. If the knife had been a few inches to the left it would probably have caused the little fellow's death.

EARLY SCHOOLS.—Dr. Kemp P. Battle, professor of History in the University, has consented to prepare for the forthcoming annual report of State Superintendent of Public Instruction a history of the early schools in North Carolina. It will be an interesting and valuable paper.

POSTPONED.—Owing to unavoidable circumstances, the monthly meeting of the Raleigh Musical Association, which was to have been held tonight, has been postponed until March 10th. The Chorus Class will meet for practice in their room this evening at 8 o'clock. It is earnestly desired that there be a full attendance.

EXPOSITION.—An effort is being made by the Agricultural Department to arrange for an exhibit from North Carolina at the Trans-Mississippi and International Exposition, at Omaha, Nebraska. The management of the exposition wants to charge $200 for the space, and it is this that now makes it uncertain whether the exhibit will be made or not.

A SURPRISE MARRIAGE.

Yesterday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, Mr. J. D. Balentine and Miss Cornelia Betts, both of this county, were married at the home of Mrs. Allen Betts, at Varina, near this city. Rev. A. L. Betts, city missionary of the Baptist church, officiated. Only a few invited friends were present, and the event was a surprise to nearly every one. Members of Mr. Balentine's family did not know he was to be married, and only the closest friends of Miss Betts dreamed it was to take place.

PRITCHARD SICK.

Lieutenant Governor Reynolds returned from Washington this morning. He says Senator Pritchard had an operation performed on him Sunday, the result of which he is confined to his bed. His condition is not considered serious. —Winston Sentinel.

NO CURE NO PAY.

That is the way all druggists sell GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC for Chills and Fevers and all forms of Malaria. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

Don't annoy others by your coughing, and risk your life by neglecting a cold. One Minute Cough Cure cures coughs, colds, croup, grippe and all throat and lung troubles. Heartt & Heartt's drug store.

DIAMOND DYES THE SIMPLEST AND EASIEST WAY OF HOME DYEING.

Their Great Superiority Over All Other Ways of Home Dyeing. A Ten-Cent Package Will Color from One to Five Pounds of Goods. Colors that Will Not Wash Out in Strong Soapsuds.

Success in home dyeing depends wholly upon the kind of dyes used. With Diamond Dyes, if the simple directions on the package are followed carefully, and the special dyes for cotton aroused for cotton and mixed goods, and the wool dyes used for woolen, there is absolutely no chance of failure.

Diamond Dyes are very simple and easy to use, and by using a stick to lift the goods while in the dye bath, there is no need of soiling the hands. For beauty, brilliancy, and fastness, no other dye stuffs, whether for home use or for the dye-shop, equal the Diamond. The latest scientific discoveries are used in their manufacture, they are guaranteed the strongest and fastest of all known dyes, and their solid colors will not wash out in the strongest soap-suds, nor will they fade when exposed to the sunlight.

Try Diamond Dyes once, and see how easy it is to make old and faded dresses, waists, ribbons, coats, etc. look like new.

MARSH MOTT A GONER.

Republicans and Democrats Would Fuse to Beat Him.

"I see that Marsh Mott announces that he's a candidate for Solicitor again, and that he'll be nominated and elected again," said a well-known politician last night.

"Well, now he will, I don't think. If there's any one man in the State that will be beaten that man is Marsh Mott. Of course the Democrats are opposed to him and the Republicans are almost as much against him. If necessary to beat him the Democrats and Republicans in that district will fuse on the solicitorship. He's a goner, that's settled beyond all question."

MR. JONES CALLED.

Roanoke Seems Appreciative of North Carolina Preachers.

Rev. C. G. Jones, now pastor of the Baptist church at Covington, Ky., has been called to the pastorate of the Roanoke, Va., Baptist church to succeed Dr. Broughton. Mr. Jones is a native of Rockingham county, and graduated at Wake Forest College in 1885. He and Dr. Broughton were room-mates and college-mates.

GOVERNOR OF NEW YORK. PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

We do not claim to be Prophets. Through our Highland descent we are entitled to the gift of "Second Sight," and the "Scotch Gloom." Already the Gloom is lifting, and our Second Sight has satisfied us that we know the man. You will wonder what this has to do with keeping a Grocery Shop in Raleigh, and Raising Pions and Turnip Salad in Geranium Valley.

We admit that "Tis a Far Cry to Uganda" and may be to New York, but it is a great satisfaction to know that in the near future a Gentleman, Straight and True, is to occupy those honorable positions.

In the Grocery Shop we chew our Slippery-Elm in great comfort, and listen to the Jaw of a possible customer with unwearying patience. When we are working in The Valley the Onions have a more delicate Perfume, and the Salad a greener hue for the thought of it.

We have not named our man, but there will be many a chief takin' notes of him very soon. The Scotch are a Conceited race and unless they be Lawyers charge nothing for their Opinion.

We think we have the nicest Grocery Shop in the State. We sell first class Goods as cheap as is possible to do. We guarantee them to please, and you do us a kindness by letting us know, when there is cause for complaint. W. C. STRONACH & SONS. Grocers.
