NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

S. C. POOL—Shoes. WHITING BROS.—Boy's Clothing. JULIUS LEWIS—Notice to the Public. ATLANTIC HOTEL—Barbee, Griffin & Cooke, Managers.

THE WEATHER TO-DAY.

North Carolina: Partly cloudy Tuesday; threatening Wednesday, with probably showers on the coast; light east winds. Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity to 8 o'clock p. m.: Fair, but possibly increasing cloudiness in the evening.

CITY ITEMS.

Ex-Congressman H. G. Turner, of Georgia, is here visiting his brother, Dr. V. E. Turner.

The body of Jim Miller, the colored boy killed by the train at Morehead Saturday night, was yesterday brought here for burial.

Dr. Winston telegraphs to Mr. Primrose, president of the board of trustees, accepting the presidency of the Agricultural and Mechanical college.

An educational barbecue will be given at Merry Oaks, Chatham county, next Friday, Mr. N. B. Broughton, of this city, will deliver an address.

A number of Raleigh people will attend the North Carolina Baptist Sunday School Chataunna, which meets at Shelby on July 25th-30th. This will be the seventh annual session.

There is much criticism among white Republicans of Collector Duncan's appointment of the negro Jim Young to a clerkship in the Revenue Department. They say it will do much toward insuring the passage of the Constitutional Amendment.

The State Auditor yesterday completed and sent out to the sheriffs of the various counties a list of the stockholders in the business corporations and the banks of each county. According to reports recently received by the Auditor there are about 600 corporations in the State.

This evening there will be a meeting of the social department of Central Epworth League at the residence of Mr. W. N. Snelling, No. 226 East Morgan street. All members, both honorary and active, also the junior chapter, with friends who wish to come are invited. A pleasant and profitable evening is in store for all who attend.

Yesterday was the day set by Justice of the Peace Maroon for trial of the bawdy house cases. The case against the Hagwood woman was postponed till Wednesday. The Richardson woman agreed to move from Martin street by August 1st and not return. In case she does this the prosecution consents to withdraw the complaint.

A number of Raleigh Baptists will attend the annual convention of the Baptist Young People's Union of America, which meets in Richmond on Thursday. Messrs. N. B. Broughton, John E. White and J. W. Bailey are among those who will attend from this city. Mr. White is in the programme for a speech Thursday night. "Conquest and Discipleship" is his subject.

The enlistment of recruits for the ten new regiments to be formed for service in the Philippines began yesterday morning. Lieutenant Donaghy, Seattle, U. S. A., is the recruiting officer. He has a recruiting office here and at Greensboro. As already stated, the recruits from this State will rendezvous at Camp Meade, Pa., and will be put into the 27th regiment with men from Connecticut, New York, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and the District of Columbia. They will be under command of Col. James M. Bell, now major of the 1st Cavalry.

DANCE YESTERDAY EVENING.

At the residence of Mr. Nick West, on Hillsboro street last night, a delightful dance was given by a number of Raleigh's most popular young people complimentary to the Misses McGowan, and Woolford, of Texas, who are the guests of Miss Lucy West. Those attending were:

Allen Higgs, with Hal Morson; John Andrews, with Miss Lucy West; Leigh Skinner, with Miss Mary Jones; John West, with Miss Fannie Jones; Fred Olds, with Miss Florence Jones; Henry Miller, with Miss Kate Skinner; John Royall, with Miss Edna Woolford; Albert Bauman, with Miss Henrietta McGowan; Stark Batchelor, with Miss Margarette Bryan; Murray Alleen, with Miss Nell Hinsdale; Wm. Andrews, with Miss Helen Primrose; Dick Busbee, with Miss Ellen West; Dalen Stronach, with Miss Laura Williams. Chaperons—Mrs. West, Mrs. Primrose and Mrs. Jones.

A NEW GROCERY FIRM.

Dickson Bros. & Dunn Bros. will open a wholesale grocery business here the 1st of September. They will occupy the store in the Commercial and Farmers Bank building, and have a frontage on both Martin and Wilmington streets. They are young men of good business training and will no doubt do a large business. The firm will be W. M. Dickson, W. W. Dickson, N. A. Dunn and Robert Dunn, all of Wake Forest. They have leased the store for a term of years. The store is to be at once nicely fitted up for the business.

Thomas Rhoads, Centerfield, Ohio, writes: "I suffered from piles seven or eight years. No remedy gave me relief until DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, less than a box of which permanently cured me." Soothing, healing, perfectly harmless. Beware of counterfeits. Sold by Bobbitt-Wyome, W. H. King & Co., Adams & Moyer, Wm. Simpson, Drug-gists.

Standard Patterns for August are now Ready. Standard Fashion Sheets Free. Designers 10c. THESE GOODS HAVE GOT TO GO.

The Summer Clearance Sale of Seasonable Goods.

THE SOLE AIM AND OBJECT Of this sale is to reduce stock, as big alterations are to be made in our store; also you know we never carry goods over to another season, so to reduce stock quickly means price reductions—big price reductions. We have made these reductions, made them honestly made them intelligently, made them with the single purpose of making this sale go down into history as a merchandising event of the utmost importance.

WASH GOODS SELLING CONTINUES.

Two big tables holding 11,561 1-2 yards of all kinds of wash goods to close—they are 7 1-2c, 10c and 12 1-2c values—all new for this sale. See the big window—then come in and see the most emphatic reductions. No wash goods carried over. Every dollar's worth of these pretty summer fabrics must walk; they're priced so much below normal values. Don't wait 'till the best of the picking is past.

Crashes, White India Linon, Dimities, Colored Lawns, Percals, Organdies, Piques, Sheer Muslins, Satines, Repps, 50c

Parasols.

Not so many Fancy Parasols as yesterday, but quite enough if the item of a dollar or two is worth the saving. We calculate that they will not last long, consequently, promptness should govern your actions. Plaids, Stripes, Changeable, Solid Colors and White, White Taffeta, White Gros Grains are in the lot—worth from $3.00 to $5.00 choice $1.50 For those that have been up to $2 now $1.00 For those that have been up to $1 now 50c.

Men's Mercerized Silk Underwear.

One case of Mercerized or Silk-like Shirts and Drawers. The Big Window display is a kind invitation for you to stop in and examine the quality. All sizes in Shirts from 34 to 48, were $1.00 now 50c. All sizes in Drawers from 30 to 42, were $1.00 now 50c.

Summer Corsets.

Strange we should want to close out our summer corsets now, when one has three or four months longer to wear them in, but they must go. Two strong items in summer corsets are here—one at 50c—the other at 25c.

C. B. Ventilated Corset.

Heavy net, coutil stripping—5 hook—medium length, hips and bust—silk flossed—all sizes—regular 75c quality now 50c.

Zero Summer Corsets.

Extra quality net—coutil stripping—5 hook—3 zones—extra long waist—all sizes—regular 30c quality 25c.

Leather Belts.

Almost 25 dozen of Ladies' Leather Belts are to close—some with big harness buckles, others with covered buckles—they have been priced at 15 and 25 cents—but we say to close 10c.

English Squares.

The new fad in Men's Neckwear is now The English Square. Foulards in the new lines—they are only shown here—you see they are new now 50c.

CHASE AND SANBORN'S COFFEE.

Mack is a little boastful, but even Mack could not say too much in behalf of "ROLLER CHAMPION" FLOUR, HE-NO-TEA, or CHASE AND SANBORN'S COFFEE.
