

LOCAL

To Correspondents.

We again ask our friends in all parts of the county to write letters to THE RECORD, and give publicity to any items that may be of interest.

All advertisements must be handed in by Tuesday of every week, in order to be inserted in the issue of that week.

Read the notice of sheriff Taylor, offering for sale some valuable land on Deep River.

If you wish to read an instructive and exceedingly interesting book, buy a copy of Stanley's great book, giving an account of his wonderful travels in Africa.

Mr. Isaac Clegg has sent us the largest turpentine of the season, measuring 26 inches in circumference, and weighing 8 pounds.

Christmas is coming! Bynum & Hadden have just received a fine lot of Confectionaries, French Candies, Oranges, Cocoanuts, and London Layer Raisins.

The second session of the Forty-Fifth Congress will commence next Monday, the 2nd day of December. As is generally known the Congressmen recently elected will be members of the Forty-Sixth Congress, which does not meet until next year.

The Grand Jury of Wake Criminal Court have presented their Court-House and Jail as public nuisances; the former as being badly ventilated and not being a secure depository for the court records, and the latter as being insecure and not properly ventilated or heated.

Joseph B. Guthrie, Esq. informs us that on five-eighths of an acre he has made this season 105 gallons of sorghum, which he is selling at 30 cents per gallon, and it is well worth that price if it is all like the jug full which he kindly sent us.

Attempts to assassinate several of the ruling Monarchs of Europe have been made in the last few months. Indeed they are becoming alarmingly frequent, and must cause the head that wears a crown to lie still more "unsteady."

The Board held a special meeting on the 21st, 22nd, and 23rd. Present, John W. Hatch, Chairman, and Messrs. G. R. Scott, W. P. Wren, Luther B. Bynum and Thomas Cross.

It may seem a hard tale to believe, but yet it is true, that our popular sheriff, Capt. John W. Taylor, while walking in his farm recently with his gun unloaded suddenly started up a partridge, and before it could fly out of range, he had loaded the gun and killed the bird!

The trade from this county is worth more to Raleigh, than that of any other county in the State, and especially at this season of the year. Scarcely a day passes now but a long line of wagons may be seen going through this place, on their way to Raleigh, all loaded with the varied products of this county.

Strayed or stolen from my farm, near Pittsboro, on the 25th, eight head of cattle. Three of them without horns, and one with horns are milch cows; two are heifers, and two are dry cows.

On the 22nd inst. Mr. Henry G. Johnson, of this county, killed a negro under the following circumstances, as narrated to us: the negro was a powerful man, weighing over 200 pounds, and was quite a desperate character, very quarrelsome, and "the bully" of the neighborhood.

On the 22nd inst., some sneak thief slipped behind the counter in the store of Capt. W. L. London, and stole from his safe the sum of $294. The store (which is 110 feet long) was quite crowded with customers that day, and it is surprising how any one could have committed the theft without detection.

On the morning of the 19th of November, 1878, by the Rev. Mr. Boyles, of the North Carolina Conference, Mr. PETER L. SHAMBERGER, formerly of Moore county, but now of Randolph, to Miss GORINNA, youngest daughter of Samuel Lewis, Esq., of Randolph county.

I gazed, and wider, and wider still. A broad stream rolled from the tiny rill: And meadows wide on its banks grew green.

On the morning of the 19th of November, 1878, by the Rev. Mr. Boyles, of the North Carolina Conference, Mr. PETER L. SHAMBERGER, formerly of Moore county, but now of Randolph, to Miss GORINNA, youngest daughter of Samuel Lewis, Esq., of Randolph county.

On the morning of the 19th of November, 1878, by the Rev. Mr. Boyles, of the North Carolina Conference, Mr. PETER L. SHAMBERGER, formerly of Moore county, but now of Randolph, to Miss GORINNA, youngest daughter of Samuel Lewis, Esq., of Randolph county.

On the morning of the 19th of November, 1878, by the Rev. Mr. Boyles, of the North Carolina Conference, Mr. PETER L. SHAMBERGER, formerly of Moore county, but now of Randolph, to Miss GORINNA, youngest daughter of Samuel Lewis, Esq., of Randolph county.

Correspondence.

On Monday, the sixth day of January A. D. 1879, I will sell at the Court House door in the town of Pittsboro, to the highest bidder for cash, the interest of James E. Watson in one tract of land in Chatham County, consisting about 425 acres, adjoining the lands of Jacob Kaley, William Burns and others, and on which D. W. Kiddle resides, to satisfy an execution in my hands for collection against James E. Watson and which has been levied on said land as the property of said James E. Watson.

On Monday, the sixth day of January A. D. 1879, I will sell at the Court House door in the town of Pittsboro, to the highest bidder for cash, the interest of James E. Watson in one tract of land in Chatham County, consisting about 425 acres, adjoining the lands of Jacob Kaley, William Burns and others, and on which D. W. Kiddle resides, to satisfy an execution in my hands for collection against James E. Watson and which has been levied on said land as the property of said James E. Watson.

On Monday, the sixth day of January A. D. 1879, I will sell at the Court House door in the town of Pittsboro, to the highest bidder for cash, the interest of James E. Watson in one tract of land in Chatham County, consisting about 425 acres, adjoining the lands of Jacob Kaley, William Burns and others, and on which D. W. Kiddle resides, to satisfy an execution in my hands for collection against James E. Watson and which has been levied on said land as the property of said James E. Watson.

On Monday, the sixth day of January A. D. 1879, I will sell at the Court House door in the town of Pittsboro, to the highest bidder for cash, the interest of James E. Watson in one tract of land in Chatham County, consisting about 425 acres, adjoining the lands of Jacob Kaley, William Burns and others, and on which D. W. Kiddle resides, to satisfy an execution in my hands for collection against James E. Watson and which has been levied on said land as the property of said James E. Watson.

On Monday, the sixth day of January A. D. 1879, I will sell at the Court House door in the town of Pittsboro, to the highest bidder for cash, the interest of James E. Watson in one tract of land in Chatham County, consisting about 425 acres, adjoining the lands of Jacob Kaley, William Burns and others, and on which D. W. Kiddle resides, to satisfy an execution in my hands for collection against James E. Watson and which has been levied on said land as the property of said James E. Watson.

On Monday, the sixth day of January A. D. 1879, I will sell at the Court House door in the town of Pittsboro, to the highest bidder for cash, the interest of James E. Watson in one tract of land in Chatham County, consisting about 425 acres, adjoining the lands of Jacob Kaley, William Burns and others, and on which D. W. Kiddle resides, to satisfy an execution in my hands for collection against James E. Watson and which has been levied on said land as the property of said James E. Watson.

The thriving little town of Shoe Heel, in Robeson county, was visited by a very disastrous fire on Thursday night last, by which property to the amount of some $10,000 was destroyed.

THE MARKETS.

COTTON—MIDDLING 8 3/4 Strict Low Middling 8 1/4; Low Middling 8; Good Ordinary 7 3/4; Old, Middling stained 8 1/2; Low Middling stained 7 3/4; Good Ordinary stained 7 1/2. Tons of market steady.

On the morning of the 19th of November, 1878, by the Rev. Mr. Boyles, of the North Carolina Conference, Mr. PETER L. SHAMBERGER, formerly of Moore county, but now of Randolph, to Miss GORINNA, youngest daughter of Samuel Lewis, Esq., of Randolph county.

On the morning of the 19th of November, 1878, by the Rev. Mr. Boyles, of the North Carolina Conference, Mr. PETER L. SHAMBERGER, formerly of Moore county, but now of Randolph, to Miss GORINNA, youngest daughter of Samuel Lewis, Esq., of Randolph county.

LAND SALE!

On the morning of the 19th of November, 1878, by the Rev. Mr. Boyles, of the North Carolina Conference, Mr. PETER L. SHAMBERGER, formerly of Moore county, but now of Randolph, to Miss GORINNA, youngest daughter of Samuel Lewis, Esq., of Randolph county.

NOTICE!

On Monday, the sixth day of January A. D. 1879, I will sell at the Court House door in the town of Pittsboro, to the highest bidder for cash, the interest of James E. Watson in one tract of land in Chatham County, consisting about 425 acres, adjoining the lands of Jacob Kaley, William Burns and others, and on which D. W. Kiddle resides, to satisfy an execution in my hands for collection against James E. Watson and which has been levied on said land as the property of said James E. Watson.

On Monday, the sixth day of January A. D. 1879, I will sell at the Court House door in the town of Pittsboro, to the highest bidder for cash, the interest of James E. Watson in one tract of land in Chatham County, consisting about 425 acres, adjoining the lands of Jacob Kaley, William Burns and others, and on which D. W. Kiddle resides, to satisfy an execution in my hands for collection against James E. Watson and which has been levied on said land as the property of said James E. Watson.

On Monday, the sixth day of January A. D. 1879, I will sell at the Court House door in the town of Pittsboro, to the highest bidder for cash, the interest of James E. Watson in one tract of land in Chatham County, consisting about 425 acres, adjoining the lands of Jacob Kaley, William Burns and others, and on which D. W. Kiddle resides, to satisfy an execution in my hands for collection against James E. Watson and which has been levied on said land as the property of said James E. Watson.

On Monday, the sixth day of January A. D. 1879, I will sell at the Court House door in the town of Pittsboro, to the highest bidder for cash, the interest of James E. Watson in one tract of land in Chatham County, consisting about 425 acres, adjoining the lands of Jacob Kaley, William Burns and others, and on which D. W. Kiddle resides, to satisfy an execution in my hands for collection against James E. Watson and which has been levied on said land as the property of said James E. Watson.

J. B. STARR, COMMISSION MERCHANT, Fayetteville, N. C., Will pay the highest prices for Cotton and Naval Stores.

CHARLES FAIGH, GROCERIES and HARDWARE, Fayetteville, N. C. Consignments of produce promptly attended to.

WALTER WATSON, FAYETTEVILLE, N. C. DEALER IN HARDWARE OF ALL KINDS: Guns, Pistols, Locks, Nails, Horse-Shoes, Blacksmith's Tools, Carpenter's Tools, &c., &c.

On the morning of the 19th of November, 1878, by the Rev. Mr. Boyles, of the North Carolina Conference, Mr. PETER L. SHAMBERGER, formerly of Moore county, but now of Randolph, to Miss GORINNA, youngest daughter of Samuel Lewis, Esq., of Randolph county.

On the morning of the 19th of November, 1878, by the Rev. Mr. Boyles, of the North Carolina Conference, Mr. PETER L. SHAMBERGER, formerly of Moore county, but now of Randolph, to Miss GORINNA, youngest daughter of Samuel Lewis, Esq., of Randolph county.

On the morning of the 19th of November, 1878, by the Rev. Mr. Boyles, of the North Carolina Conference, Mr. PETER L. SHAMBERGER, formerly of Moore county, but now of Randolph, to Miss GORINNA, youngest daughter of Samuel Lewis, Esq., of Randolph county.

On the morning of the 19th of November, 1878, by the Rev. Mr. Boyles, of the North Carolina Conference, Mr. PETER L. SHAMBERGER, formerly of Moore county, but now of Randolph, to Miss GORINNA, youngest daughter of Samuel Lewis, Esq., of Randolph county.

LAND SALE!

On the morning of the 19th of November, 1878, by the Rev. Mr. Boyles, of the North Carolina Conference, Mr. PETER L. SHAMBERGER, formerly of Moore county, but now of Randolph, to Miss GORINNA, youngest daughter of Samuel Lewis, Esq., of Randolph county.

NOTICE!

On Monday, the sixth day of January A. D. 1879, I will sell at the Court House door in the town of Pittsboro, to the highest bidder for cash, the interest of James E. Watson in one tract of land in Chatham County, consisting about 425 acres, adjoining the lands of Jacob Kaley, William Burns and others, and on which D. W. Kiddle resides, to satisfy an execution in my hands for collection against James E. Watson and which has been levied on said land as the property of said James E. Watson.

On Monday, the sixth day of January A. D. 1879, I will sell at the Court House door in the town of Pittsboro, to the highest bidder for cash, the interest of James E. Watson in one tract of land in Chatham County, consisting about 425 acres, adjoining the lands of Jacob Kaley, William Burns and others, and on which D. W. Kiddle resides, to satisfy an execution in my hands for collection against James E. Watson and which has been levied on said land as the property of said James E. Watson.

On Monday, the sixth day of January A. D. 1879, I will sell at the Court House door in the town of Pittsboro, to the highest bidder for cash, the interest of James E. Watson in one tract of land in Chatham County, consisting about 425 acres, adjoining the lands of Jacob Kaley, William Burns and others, and on which D. W. Kiddle resides, to satisfy an execution in my hands for collection against James E. Watson and which has been levied on said land as the property of said James E. Watson.

On Monday, the sixth day of January A. D. 1879, I will sell at the Court House door in the town of Pittsboro, to the highest bidder for cash, the interest of James E. Watson in one tract of land in Chatham County, consisting about 425 acres, adjoining the lands of Jacob Kaley, William Burns and others, and on which D. W. Kiddle resides, to satisfy an execution in my hands for collection against James E. Watson and which has been levied on said land as the property of said James E. Watson.

T. B. WOMACK, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Chatham county, PITTTSBORO, N. C. Prompt attention given to all business entrusted to his care, and special attention given to settling the estates of deceased persons, taking accounts, &c. sep2-f

JOHN M. MORING, Attorney-at-Law, Morningsville, Chatham County, N. C. All business entrusted to them will receive prompt attention. sep19-1f

JOHN M. MORING, ALFRED M. MORING (Of Orange.) MORING & MORING, Attorneys-at-Law, DURHAM, N. C.

On the morning of the 19th of November, 1878, by the Rev. Mr. Boyles, of the North Carolina Conference, Mr. PETER L. SHAMBERGER, formerly of Moore county, but now of Randolph, to Miss GORINNA, youngest daughter of Samuel Lewis, Esq., of Randolph county.

On the morning of the 19th of November, 1878, by the Rev. Mr. Boyles, of the North Carolina Conference, Mr. PETER L. SHAMBERGER, formerly of Moore county, but now of Randolph, to Miss GORINNA, youngest daughter of Samuel Lewis, Esq., of Randolph county.

On the morning of the 19th of November, 1878, by the Rev. Mr. Boyles, of the North Carolina Conference, Mr. PETER L. SHAMBERGER, formerly of Moore county, but now of Randolph, to Miss GORINNA, youngest daughter of Samuel Lewis, Esq., of Randolph county.

On the morning of the 19th of November, 1878, by the Rev. Mr. Boyles, of the North Carolina Conference, Mr. PETER L. SHAMBERGER, formerly of Moore county, but now of Randolph, to Miss GORINNA, youngest daughter of Samuel Lewis, Esq., of Randolph county.

LAND SALE!

On the morning of the 19th of November, 1878, by the Rev. Mr. Boyles, of the North Carolina Conference, Mr. PETER L. SHAMBERGER, formerly of Moore county, but now of Randolph, to Miss GORINNA, youngest daughter of Samuel Lewis, Esq., of Randolph county.

NOTICE!

On Monday, the sixth day of January A. D. 1879, I will sell at the Court House door in the town of Pittsboro, to the highest bidder for cash, the interest of James E. Watson in one tract of land in Chatham County, consisting about 425 acres, adjoining the lands of Jacob Kaley, William Burns and others, and on which D. W. Kiddle resides, to satisfy an execution in my hands for collection against James E. Watson and which has been levied on said land as the property of said James E. Watson.

On Monday, the sixth day of January A. D. 1879, I will sell at the Court House door in the town of Pittsboro, to the highest bidder for cash, the interest of James E. Watson in one tract of land in Chatham County, consisting about 425 acres, adjoining the lands of Jacob Kaley, William Burns and others, and on which D. W. Kiddle resides, to satisfy an execution in my hands for collection against James E. Watson and which has been levied on said land as the property of said James E. Watson.

On Monday, the sixth day of January A. D. 1879, I will sell at the Court House door in the town of Pittsboro, to the highest bidder for cash, the interest of James E. Watson in one tract of land in Chatham County, consisting about 425 acres, adjoining the lands of Jacob Kaley, William Burns and others, and on which D. W. Kiddle resides, to satisfy an execution in my hands for collection against James E. Watson and which has been levied on said land as the property of said James E. Watson.

On Monday, the sixth day of January A. D. 1879, I will sell at the Court House door in the town of Pittsboro, to the highest bidder for cash, the interest of James E. Watson in one tract of land in Chatham County, consisting about 425 acres, adjoining the lands of Jacob Kaley, William Burns and others, and on which D. W. Kiddle resides, to satisfy an execution in my hands for collection against James E. Watson and which has been levied on said land as the property of said James E. Watson.

READ THIS! -AND- Profit By What You Read! N. L. LONDON HAS JUST RETURNED FROM THE NORTH, -WITH THE- Largest, Best Selected, -AND- CHEAPEST STOCK OF GOODS Ever Brought to Chatham. HIS STOCK OF CLOTHING IS IMMENSE!

Overcoats from size of Boys Six Years Old, to Men Weighing Two Hundred and Fifty Pounds.

STOCK OF BOOTS More than twice as Large as he has ever had—Boys Boots from $1 up; Mens from $1.75 up.

STOCK OF SHOES 25 tremendous, From 25 cents a Pair Up!

CASHMERE, JEANS, KERSEYS, very cheap; and a fine assortment of DRY GOODS -OF- EVERY DESCRIPTION, VERY LOW, and in large quantities and styles.

Extra Bargains in CLOAKS, SHAWLS, BLANKETS, FLANNELS, TABLE CLOTHS, QUILTS, AND CARPETS.

Notions and Fancy Goods, FOR ALMOST NOTHING. Nice Scarfs at 15 cents; Good Collars 5 cents; Ruches 15 cents per Dozen; Stockings and Socks from 7 1-2 per Pair Up.

CORSETS, and everything else, VERY LOW! Assortment of Crockery and Glassware extra large and fine. Would call especial attention to his large assortment of Flannel Shirts, for Children, Ladies, and Men. Hats and Caps, cheaper than you EVER SAW! Stock of Groceries, Hardware, Tin Ware, Confectionaries, Carriage Materials, Sole, Upper, and Harness Leather, Calf and Sheep Skins, is Large and cheap. Coffins from 15 cents up. Recollect I keep everything and anything you can want or wish for. I mean business, when I say I will not be undersold by any one or anywhere in North Carolina.

W. L. LONDON'S CHEAP STORE, Pittsboro, N. C. nov7-1f

FOR CHUFAS, APPLY TO H. C. OLIVE, ALEX. N. C. oct10-no4 6m

Bynum Manufacturing Company, L. B. BYNUM, Agent. PITTTSBORO, N. C. MANUFACTURERS -OF THE- BEST YARNS -AND- SHEETINGS, -AND- DEALERS IN GENERAL MERCHANDISE!

LOOK FOR THE SHEETINGS AND YARNS, BRANDED CHATHAM COTTON MILLS, IF YOU WANT THE BEST! FIRST, AND ONLY COTTON MILL IN THE COUNTY. Encourage Home Enterprise. oct3-no3-1f

FAYETTEVILLE HOTEL, FAYETTEVILLE, N. C. A. OVERBAUGH, Proprietor, Still maintains its well established reputation, and has no superior in the State. oct 24-no6 2m

Table with 2 columns: MAIL TRAIN GOING SOUTH, MAIL TRAIN GOING NORTH. Lists destinations and times for various routes.

Table with 2 columns: PAGE'S HOTEL, SANFORD, N. C. Lists rates for different types of rooms and services.

Country Merchants should avail themselves of the extraordinary inducements offered by G. A. THOMSON, No. 51 Person Street, Fayetteville, N. C., and should examine for themselves his large and varied stock of Flour, Corn, Meal, Hominy, Western bulk and smoked meats, North Carolina, Virginia, Baltimore and New York hams, Carolina bacon, syrups, molasses, coffees, teas, soaps, candles, candied salt, soda, starch, lye, snuff, tobacco, vinegar, sugars, spices, fruits, vegetables, canned goods, cheese, butter, beef tongues, pickled and smoked beef, hardware and hollowware, nails, shingles, and laths. Low for CASH. Constantly receiving and always in stock. WILL NOT BE UNDERSOLD. nov21-3m