

OUR INDIAN POLICY.

That there is something radically wrong in the management of the Indians by the General Government must be admitted by all persons. We continually hear of battles and bloody massacres and there is always some trouble arising on our Western frontiers between the white settlers and the native Indians.

Temperance Address.

The following address was delivered by Mr. A. J. Clark, before the Hickory Mountain Temperance Society, and is published at their request: "As Heaven is higher than earth, so is temperance essential—yet absolutely necessary—to the acquisition of many of the desiderables of this life as well as a blessed inheritance in the life to come."

Bond-Burning.

A. A. McKeithan and A. P. Hart, Directors, and John M. Rose, Secretary, of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway, a committee appointed by the Board of Directors for that purpose, in presence of Julius A. Gray, President, John D. Williams, a Director, and Thos. S. Lutterbald, a trustee of the former mortgage, on Friday last, burned the following bonds of the Western Railroad, viz: $1,000,000 of bonds issued to the State, prior to 1861, and $200,000 of some issued during the war, making the total issue of the State, and which bonds were exchanged by the State with the company in 1861 for stock, and also $250,000 of first mortgage bonds issued by Andrew J. Jones, President in 1870, when all the bonds except $2,000,000 which the company have not yet been able to get under $1.

Charity and Extravagance.

How soon one becomes impoverished or overextended to supporting a Poor Man's Club, and the adjoining country, is still in agony from the plague and pestilence which were paid by certain gentlemen in Fayetteville, and for which the State in the last session of the Legislature made provisions to pay, but which has not yet been arranged. A new mortgage has been made and now bonds will be issued to promote the iron and finish up the Road which is now rapidly being graded between One Hill and Greensboro.—Fayetteville Gazette.

Monroe Mines.

Gold mining in Monroe county is being carried on with considerable success. The old and well known Cuddeback mine, which has been leased by the county for years, has been sold to P. C. Overton of New York. The vein proper is understood to be proposed to put in the hands of a strong company, which, when as known as Red Hills, he will work and now putting up his machinery for that purpose.

Monroe County Grand-Juries.

J. E. Taylor, President of the Taylor Manufacturing Company, of Westminster, Md., was in this city yesterday. We learn that he has bought a large tract of land in Monroe county, about five miles from Charlotte, which contains a stone that was discovered some six or seven years ago, and has been worked by several parties in a primitive way, some ten quarries having been opened for years. The stone has a greenish color, and is much harder than any other. Mr. Taylor purchased the entire vein some five miles long, to go with 350 acres of land, and has formed a company called the Monroe County Millstone Company, which will put in all the improved machinery necessary to put the stones on the market in quantities. The deposit is said by all acquainted with it to be inexhaustible.—Charlotte Observer.

Tax Reduction. The State and county tax, this year, is $1.18 on the $100 worth of property and $3.51 on the poll. This is a reduction of over one-fourth from last year's taxes.—Shelby Forum.

Had the Fever. Colonel John A. McDonald yesterday received a letter from his son, Walter McDonald, who has been living in Memphis for some years, stating that he had been down with the yellow fever for five days. He is improving some and it is hoped he will recover.—Raleigh News.

Tobacco Factories. There is a move on foot in Greensboro to erect a half dozen tobacco factories, to be rented when completed to the highest bidder. The object in view is to offer facilities for the manufacture of tobacco at that point and not to realize money out of the investment.—Charlotte Observer.

Killed by Cotton Gin. Mr. Nathan Brozden, an enterprising citizen of Wayne county, a brother of ex-Governor Curtis H. Brozden, while ginning cotton last Thursday, had his arm severed from his body by the gin saws, which caused him to bleed so much that he died in about twenty-four hours.—Goldboro' Messenger.

Healthy Family. There is an old gentleman and his wife in Jones county with a good lengthy family record. Mr. John Heath was born in 1800, his wife in 1798. They raised 11 children, have 48 grand children, 16 of whom are married. They have lived all their lives in Tazewell (now part of Jones) and have never taken any medicine.—Kinston Journal.

Dry Weather. The correspondent of the Observer writing from Richmond county, N. C., on the 13th inst., says: "The crops in Richmond county, except the cotton crop, are turning out well. The weather is very dry; some of the farmers below Rockingham have had to haul their water, wells and springs having dried up."

Insane Asylum. At a meeting last week of the Directors of the Insane Asylum the following rules were adopted: "No applicant considered incurable by the medical officers of the Asylum shall be admitted as a patient until all who are deemed curable have been provided for."

Horrible Murder. A correspondent of the Observer from Wadesboro' says, a negro man named Hal Ruffin has been arrested and is now in jail here on the charge of killing his own child, aged three years. The post mortem examination showed that the child's stomach was perfectly empty and the body was covered with large lacerations. Some of the vertebrae of the lower part of the spine were driven in as if the deceased had been stamped in the back. The evidence before the coroner's jury was that the child was not allowed to go inside the house all night; that it was never given anything to eat, and was often kicked and beaten with sticks by the father. It would be every one who passed near the house for something to eat. All it got was what it picked up out of doors with the dogs.

Burglary. A correspondent of the Raleigh Observer, writing from Wadesboro', on the 13th inst., says: "The house of Mr. M. P. Lusk was entered by burglars this morning just before day, and many valuable articles stolen. Mr. Lusk is having some repairs done on his house, and the burglars got on the roof and the front porch by means of the raft-felling and then entered the second story through the window. On that floor they went into the room occupied by Mrs. Saunders of Raleigh, and her daughter, and took from it some valuable jewelry. They next passed on to the parlor and took a great many articles of value that were there. They next entered Mr. Lusk's bedroom and took from a chest by his bedside the entire suit of clothes he had taken off on retiring. In the pockets were valuable papers, a hand some gold watch and chain and about forty dollars in cash. Mr. Lusk was aroused by the burglars striking the watch of iron against the chair as he was raising the vest from it, and sprang at him, but the fellow was too fast for him. A good many things were found pitched upon the front porch. There is no clue so far."
