

LOCAL NEWS

All advertisements must be handed in by Tuesday every week, in order to be inserted in the issue of that week.

IMPORTANT SALES.—Read the advertisements of John Manning trustee, who will sell some valuable real estate.

It is time to throw that old straw hat away! W. L. London has just received a splendid stock of hats for men and boys.

A. G. ROBINSON.—When any of our readers go to Egypt they will consult their interests by calling on this enterprising Merchant, who will give them good bargains.

Sonnet.—The research of the excavations is now heard throughout the land, for our farmers are busily engaged in working the soil. Quite a large amount is made in this county, and some of it of an excellent quality.

BYNUM MANUFACTURING COMPANY.—Read their new advertisement. In addition to the goods manufactured at their factory, they keep at their store a large and well-selected stock of general merchandise. They will buy cotton in the seed or gin.

HONOR TO A CATHAMITE.—We learn from the Wilmington papers that a newly organized fire company in that city has been named in compliment to Maj. Charles M. Steadman.

We are always pleased to hear of honors conferred upon any of our citizens, and especially when so gallant a soldier and worthy a gentleman is the recipient.

DAILY FORGIVENESS.—During the session of the Baptist Convention, which meets in Octo. 10, the 5th of November, the undersigned editor of the Record will issue a daily edition of this paper containing the full proceedings of the Convention, besides all the latest news. Price only 25 cents.

NATIONAL HOTEL.—To those of our readers who will attend the Fair next week we can recommend the National Hotel at Raleigh, which under the management of its present popular proprietors has attained quite an enviable reputation. You will there find a courteous host, a polite clerk, attentive waiters, comfortable rooms, and good fare.

MEALS AT THE FAIR.—Jessie Hill will be glad to furnish meals to any of her friends in Chatham who will go to the Fair. Her eating room is the first one on the left of the Railroad track as it enters the Fair grounds. Her cooking is not excelled by any one, and her charges are moderate. Give her a call all ye hungry, and you shall be satisfied.

MOSLEY'S SALOON.—Our readers who will attend the Fair should by all means go to Mosley's Saloon to refresh the "thirsty man." This is the only dining saloon kept by a white man on the Fair grounds, and is at the northern end of the Grand Stand, where you will find all the delicacies of the season. Fresh Oysters a specialty. Cold soda water for the thirsty. His tables will seat 120 persons at one time.

MATRIMONIAL.—There is filed with rumors of approaching matrimony, how much indeed that it all is to be credited, there would be but few of our young folks left to enjoy single blessedness. It is true however, for business in this line is so busy, that it has been necessary to call for several months past, and doubtless our obliging Registrar is in high place in satisfying the large number of licenses that he will soon issue.

DEPARTURE.—Dr. T. J. Garpening announces to the citizens of Pittsboro and vicinity that he will arrive here about the first of November, and remain so long for the purpose of operating on the teeth of those who may desire his services. Will insert upper sets of teeth for $20, lower sets $10; gold fillings $1.50 to $2.00, or amalgam, 50 cents to $1.00, extracting 50 cents. With moderate charges and good work he hopes to give satisfaction.

FAIR TO THE FAIR.—Excursion trains will be run on the Raleigh and Annapolis Air-Line Railroad to the State Fair on the 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, and 18th of this month at greatly reduced rates. The train each day will arrive at Raleigh at 8:20 a. m. and leave at 8 p. m. passing Monroeville at 6:25 a. m. and at 5:50 p. m. The fare from Monroeville to Raleigh and return (including what you pay for the Fair) is only $1.15, so that every body can have an opportunity of taking the trip.

RALEIGH ADVERTISEMENTS.—We would call special attention to our new Raleigh advertisements that appear in this issue. When our readers go to the Fair next week we hope they will do their trading with the business men of Raleigh who advertise in the Record. Without advertising, patronage no paper can be published, so that if the people of Chatham desire to have a county paper, they should trade with men who help to sustain their paper by advertising in it, and especially when these advertisements will give good bargains.

THE DROUGHT.—Day after day, week after week have our people been vainly expecting a rain, until now has now almost expired. The "olden inhabitant" has never known so long-continued a drought, and the rivers have never been known before to be so low, and the smaller streams have completely dried up.

In consequence of the low stage of water in Deep River we learn that at such places near that stream. The general exhibition from the exposed mud-flats have produced fever in many families.

CATHAMITE FAIR.—We return our thanks to Col. Wm. Alderman, Secretary of the Cathamite County Agricultural Society, for an invitation to attend their next annual Fair, to be held at Fayetteville on the 11th, 12th, 13th and 14th days of November next. Their Fair last year was the first we had ever attended, and were so much pleased with what we here saw, that we will certainly try to go again.

For accomplishing the legitimate and proper objects of an agricultural fair, we think the Cathamite Fair is eminently successful, and offers much credit to their management.

Why cannot the people of Chatham have annual fairs as well as their neighbors in Van School and Cambridge?

THE BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.—Wherever we publish the full proceedings of the 12th annual session of the Sandy Creek Association, which met at May's Chapel, in this county on Thursday, the 24th inst., and adjourned on Monday the 4th. We had the pleasure of being present on the 24th, and were pleased to see so large an attendance for in addition to the large number of delegates and visitors from almost the whole of our county, several seemed to have traveled. The good people of the neighborhood, however, were fully able to feed all who came, and most importantly did they provide "the creature comforts." The proceedings throughout the entire session were very harmonious, and all the business was transacted and matters discussed in a most fraternal spirit. There was quite an interesting and wise discussion on the temperance question, which plainly showed that our Baptists there take more heed of water than whiskey. The great treat of the day was the address of the Rev. Dr. Prichard on the great subject of education. He is a fluent and powerful speaker, of commanding presence, with a full and clear enunciation, a nervous voice, and altogether an orator of more than ordinary ability. His address was calculated to do much good, and to elevate the minds of his hearers by impressing upon them the importance of the subject of education.

Our thanks are hereby tendered to the Rev. Dr. A. Moore, the Pastor of May's Chapel, and to the officers of the Association for their cordiality.

The next session will be held at Mt. Spring, Missouri, on the 15th inst. on the 15th day of October 1880.

War on Polygamy. The Washington Critic learns that the Government will make vigorous and continuing war on polygamy in Utah. The grand jury meets in Salt Lake City this month and for the first time since the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the Reynolds' case, it is understood that an examination of the Endowment House will be one of the first duties of the grand jury, this being the place where polygamists are required to consummate. The United States District Attorney has been instructed to proceed with a vigorous prosecution of every case presented.

Flour for Bards. Mrs. Susie A. Nelson of this city, is strongly impressed with the usefulness of flour as a remedy for scurvy. Her little son, Charlie, changed to put on the coffee-pot, sending his mother and a lady, who at once wrapped the flour and sent it in dry form, and in an hour's time the little fellow was playing about as usual. The flour used is thought to be the best, and it is thought to be the best, and it is thought to be the best.

Miller's Death. On Sunday morning, the 11th inst., about 10:00 a. m. the steam boiler attached to the cotton gin belonging to Mr. G. B. Gentry, who resides about four miles from Fayetteville, N. C., exploded, killing three persons, and maiming several others. The explosion was caused by the boiler being over-pressured, and the cause of the explosion is not known. Alfred Gentry, Dr. J. H. Gentry, and J. H. Gentry were killed. Hugh Gentry was maimed.

Failure of a Georgia Firm. A. J. Gentry, of this city, has failed, and his creditors are making an assignment. The cause of the failure is not known.

Accident at a Fair. A young man, named John Gentry, was killed at a fair, while riding on a horse. The cause of the accident is not known.

Harvest Moon. Last week we had the harvest moon, so often and so fondly spoken of in English poetry. This is the full moon occurring nearest the autumnal equinox, the possibility of which is that it rises for several days nearly at sunset, about the same time, instead of being set in the west, as usual.
