

WINSTON.

Having recently spent a few days at Winston we will give our readers some facts and figures in regard to the condition of the town...

With the exception of the present the growth of the town in 1874 has been extraordinary. The population of Winston in the year 1874 was 1,000...

Many have seen a railroad when we get a railroad here there and four-story brick factories there...

At all seasons of the year, the climate is salubrious and the water pure. It is quite a pleasant resort in the summer...
